Women and Peace in the Islamic World Yasmin Saikia, Chad Haines, 2015-01-20

How realistic is the prospect of peace in the Muslim world This question is the predominant focus for global analysis today but its debate frequently ignores the cultural and social complexity of the Muslim world reducing it into a system of states and select actors This book addresses such a failing by exploring how the everyday interactions of women in accordance with Islamic personal ethics can offer the world a new interpretation of peace In particular it focuses on the women in Islamic societies from Aceh to Bosnia Morocco to Bangladesh initiating a dialogue on the role of these women in peacemaking This concentration upon the complex issues of the everyday both enables a detailed exploration of how people conceptualise peace and opens up new frameworks for conflict resolution The discussions that emerge lead to a critical questioning of assumptions about peace as a state policy and cessation of violence Drawing upon original research from different parts of the Middle East North Africa and Asia including Iran India Afghanistan Bangladesh Bosnia Egypt and Sudan the contributors offer a refreshing new look at Muslim women as peacemakers challenging any assumptions of Islam as an inherently violent religion Such a timely work provides new and important analyses on the role of Muslim women in forging new pathways of peace in the contemporary world

Leadership Lessons from the Life of Rasoolullah SAS Mirza Yawar Baig, 2012-10

There is a distinct difference between how one whose core faith is that Muhammad Peace be upon him was the Messenger of

Allah and how someone who does not hold this belief writes about him This book however is not simply an analysis of history It is a labor of love and reverence while being analytical and objective It is an attempt by one who not only believes that Muhammad Peace be upon him was the best leader that ever existed but who believes in him and his message and wants to share it The life of Muhammad Peace be upon him the Messenger of Allah is rich and full of lessons It has been so well documented and so much has been written about his life over the centuries that another attempt is almost unnecessary However I decided to write this for two reasons to make the lessons from the life of Rasoolullah Peace be upon him relating specifically to leadership easily accessible to the seeker whether Muslim or not and to make an attempt to see how these lessons are applicable today in a world that is in principle very similar to the world he lived in My premise is this Since he was able to change his world and take his people from being the most insignificant oppressed and weakest to becoming the predominant admired and strongest in just one generation if we learn how he was able to do it we will be able to learn how to succeed in our world today

The Renewal of Islam's World Order Munawar Sabir, 2021-07-29 Allah created the earth and then bestowed on man His favor to extract sustenance from it He also creates the sun moon and the stars to create a just equilibrium and harmony in the universe The sun provides energy for the growth sustenance and wellbeing of the humans plants and the animals Gradually man began to extract more than his personal needs from the earth and the boom of economics trade and commerce started creating cycle s imbalance disharmony wars poverty and injustice throughout the globe This disharmony caused by greed not only blemished the humans but the animal life also suffered by disappearance of species Pollution and contamination of the environment resulted from race to accumulate and hoard the world s wealth in a few hands Man disobeyed Allah s universal laws and Allah s Covenant In return for all of Allah s favors Allah commands Justice Al Adl Justice fairness honesty integrity and even handed dealings are a prerequisite of every Muslim s conduct when dealing with others whether socially or in business transaction Doing what is good and that is beautiful Al Ihsan This attribute includes every positive quality such as goodness beautiful pleasing harmony Human beings have an obligation to do what is wholesome and beautiful in their relationship with Allah and His creatures Provide for those near to you qurba and kith and kin Help them with wealth kindness compassion humanity and sympathy Allah forbids Al Fahasha all evil deeds lies false testimony fornication selfishness ingratitude greed and false belief One must fulfill the Covenant of Allah and who so ever does beautiful and righteous deeds Allah will give him or her new life and reward them with greater wages Allah commands justice the doing of good and liberality to kith and kin and He forbids all shameful deeds and injustice and rebellion He instructs you that ye may receive admonition Fulfill the Covenant of Allah when ye have entered into it and break not your covenants after ye have confirmed them indeed ye have made Allah your surety for Allah knows all that you do Qur an 16 90 91 Whoever works righteousness man or woman and has Faith verily to him will We give a new Life a life that is good and pure and We will bestow on such their reward according to the best their actions Qur an 16 97 Tawhid the main pillar of Islam signifies that human's economic life depends wholly on Allah's Laws of the universe that their relationship to those who believe is through the obedience to the Covenant of Allah. Allah maintains in the Qur'an that there is no creature on earth the responsibility of whose sustenance is not assumed by Allah. No creature crawls on earth that Allah does not nourish. He knows its essential nature and its varying forms; every detail has its place in the obvious plan. Qur'an 11:6: How are the people in need provided for their sustenance and needs of daily lives? All wealth belongs to Allah, who bestows it on some persons more than others. This wealth is given in trust whereby the possessor is obliged to give the surplus in Allah's cause to his kin, to the widows and orphans, and to the needy first in his community and then in the other communities around him. Wealth is to be shared so that not a single individual of the Ummah or indeed in the world should go hungry or without education and shelter.
