Patriarchy And Economic Development Womens Positions At The End Of The Twentieth Century:

Patriarchy and Economic Development Valentine M. Moghadam,1996 Gender and Identity Construction Feride Acar,Günes-Ayate,2021-12-28 This volume deals with issues and problems of national and gender identity in Central Asia the Caucasus and Turkey Articles discuss experiences and position of women vis vis state intervention economic political and cultural change in both public and private spheres of life In the book the real life conditions and experiences of women are analyzed on three complementary levels The first of these is the economic and institutional circumstances shaped by structural adjustment policies globalization and transnational policies The second is realities of everyday life particularly pertaining to family religion tradition and education The third level is that of politics and ideology where national and nationalist discourses often build on the gender identity shaped by the economic and social levels The book does not only present a cross cultural analysis of women s position in the region but also reflects the varied perspectives of female scholars from many different countries and disciplines Gender Economics: Breakthroughs in Research and Practice Management Association, Information Resources,2018-12-07 Gender Economics challenges current economic theory targeting the way gender is often used for economic gain or increased market share Experts realize that company growth can no longer be achieved by taking a conventional approach but few follow through with introducing new frameworks that change the way diversity is treated Gender Economics Breakthroughs in Research and Practice features current research that combines the concepts of gender theory sociology and economics observing how diversity influences numerous dimensions of business and consumerism Covering topics including gender empowerment and also bias economic equality industrial creativity leadership and the impact of social connectedness on life satisfaction this publication is an ideal reference source for legislators and policymakers economic developers corporate practitioners educational faculties academicians researchers and graduate level students of all disciplines Hermeneutics and Honor Anan Ameri,1999 Women s traversal of public space in Islamic ate societies and the ensuing process of negotiating gendered identities are the central concerns of this collection of essays The dichotomy between private and public spheres upheld as axiomatic for most societies has recently been challenged by scholars as an artificial construct For women in particular the demarcation between the two spheres has become blurred by the enormous public consequences of their private behaviour Elaborate cultural codes of honour and traditional masculinist interpretations of scripture have reinforced the public private polarity and restricted Muslim women s access to the public realm as conventionally defined The distinguished contributors to this volume provide insight into how women from different social strata and historical periods in various Islamic ate societies have creatively engaged with these limitations upon their behaviour Agency and Gender in Gaza Aitemad Muhanna,2016-04-01 Drawing on rich interview material and adopting a life history approach this book examines the agency of women living in insecure and uncertain conflict situations It explores the effects of the Israeli policy of closure against Gaza and the resulting humanitarian crisis in relation to gender relations and gender subjectivity With attention to the changing roles of men in the household and community as a result of the loss of male employment the author explores the extension of poor women s mobility particularly that of young wives with dependent children for whom the meaning of agency has shifted from being providers in the domestic sphere to becoming publicly dependent on humanitarian aid Without conflating women s agency with resistance to patriarchy Agency and Gender in Gaza extends the concept of agency to include its subjective and intersubjective elements shedding light on the recent distortion of the traditional gender order and the reasons for which women resist the masculine power that they have acquired as a result An empirically grounded examination of the attempt to maintain the meaning of social existence through the preservation of socially constructed images of masculinity and femininity this book will be of interest to social scientists with interests in gender studies masculinities and the sociology of the family

Subramaniam,2006-01-01 The Power of Women s Organizing is a remarkable work that offers a glimpse into the women s movement outside the United States Author Mangala Subramaniam addresses the mobilizing and organizing of the Indian women s movement in the larger context of globalization and the national social fabric She draws attention to the emergence of multiple interests based on class caste religion and geographic differences Uniquely featuring the integration of rural women s experiences and a case study of the dalit women s challenges this expert work examines the women s movement in India since the 1970s its growth and the tensions resulting from the representation of varied interests Women s experiences outside of the West are a fruitful new source of understanding the women s movement and will be of interest to scholars of women s studies and sociology Under Construction Laurel Kendall,2001-09-30 Since the late 1960s the lives of south Koreans have been reconstructed on the shifting ground of urbanization industrialization military authoritarianism democratic reform and social liberalization Class and gender identities have been modified in relation to a changing modernity and new definitions of home and family work and leisure husband and wife Under Construction provides an illuminating portrait of south Koreans in the 1990s a decade that saw a return to civilian rule a loosening of censorship and social control and the emergence of a full blown consumer culture It shows how these changes impacted the lives of Korean men and women and the very definition of what it means to be male and female in Korea In a series of provocative essays written by Korean and Western scholars we see how Korean women and men actively engage and at times openly contest the limitations of gender Under Construction is part of a decisive turn in the anthropology of gender from its early quest for the causes of female subordination to a finely tuned analysis of the historical cultural and class based specificities of gender relations and the tension between gender as an ideological construct and as a lived experience Firmly grounded in the political and economic history of south Korea this long awaited volume fills an important gap in Korean studies and East Asia gender studies in English Contributors Nancy Abelmann Cho Haejoang Roger L Janelli Laurel Kendall June Lee So Hee Lee Seungsook Moon Dawnhee Yim Women, Politics, and Power Pamela Paxton, Melanie M. Hughes, 2015-12-30 Women Politics and Power A Global Perspective Third Edition provides a clear detailed introduction to women s political participation and representation across a wide range of countries and regions Through broad statistical overviews and detailed case study accounts authors Pamela Paxton and Melanie M Hughes document both historical trends and the contemporary state of women s political strength Readers see the cultural structural political and international influences on women s access to political power and the difference women make once in political office The text acknowledges differences among women through attention to intersectionality and women from marginalized groups Undercurrent Journal: Vol. 10, Issue 2 (Fall/Winter 2014) [B&W] Clarke Foster (Editor-In-Chief), 2014-03-05 Undercurrent is the only student run national undergraduate journal publishing scholarly essays and articles that explore the subject of international development The journal is a refereed publication dedicated to providing a non partisan supportive yet critical and competitive forum exclusively for undergraduate research writing and editing Women and Globalization in the Arab Middle East Eleanor Abdella Doumato, Marsha Pripstein Posusney, 2003 This work assesses the impact of globalization on women in Middle Eastern societies To explore the gendered effects of social change the authors examine trends within as well as among states in the region Detailed case studies reveal the mixed results of global pressures Pioneers Or Pawns? Marina de Regt, 2007-10-22 Marina de Regt provides an invaluable analysis of gender health care training and globalization demonstrating women s positive impact on the complex workings of Yemeni health institutions Using the Hodeida Urban Primary Health Care Project as a case study the author looks at how development policies of the state interconnect with agendas of global donor organizations and the employment of women in the face of social disapproval and barriers to advancement Her highly accessible writing blends keen observations steeped in personal experience with a thorough grounding in theoretical literature Through interviews and the experience of working directly with the women she writes about De Regt gives voice to her subjects and offers an extraordinary portrait of the lives emotions and work of women dedicated to healing in a time of great political change This vitally important work challenges not only preconceived notions of the way in which health care is distributed in the Middle East but also questions the way women participate facilitate and resist the political change around them
