histories have described the CCF as social democrats guided by middle class intellectuals a party which shied away from labour radicalism and communist agitation James Naylor's assiduous research tells a very different story a CCF created by working class activists steeped in Marxist ideology who sought to create a movement that would be both loyal to its socialist principles and appealing to the wider electorate The Fate of Labour Socialism is a fundamental reexamination of the CCF and Canadian working class politics in the 1930s one that will help historians better understand Canada's political intellectual and labour history
