Mythologies of the Prophet Muhammad in Early Modern English Culture Matthew Dimmock, 2013-05-31 The figure of Mahomet was widely known in early modern England A grotesque version of the Prophet Muhammad Mahomet was a product of vilification caricature and misinformation placed at the centre of Christian conceptions of Islam In Mythologies of the Prophet Muhammad in Early Modern English Culture Matthew Dimmock draws on an eclectic range of early modern sources literary historical visual to explore the nature and use of Mahomet in a period bounded by the beginnings of print and the early Enlightenment This fabricated figure and his spurious biography were endlessly recycled but also challenged and vindicated and the tales the English told about him offer new perspectives on their sense of the world its geographies and religions near and far and their place within it This book explores the role played by Mahomet in the making of Englishness and reflects on what this might reveal about England's present circumstances The Microscope in the Dutch Republic Edward G. Ruestow, 1996 Focusing on the two seventeenth century pioneers of microscopic discovery the Dutchmen Jan Swammerdam and Antoni van Leeuwenhoek Ruestow demonstrates that their uneasiness with their social circumstances spurred their discoveries Though arguing that aspects of Dutch culture impeded serious research with the microscope Ruestow also shows however that the culture of the period shaped how Swammerdam and Leeuwenhoek responded to what they saw through the lens He concludes by emphasising how their early microscopic efforts differed from the institutionalised microscopic research that began in the nineteenth century Art as a Social System Niklas Luhmann, 2000 This is the definitive analysis of art as a social and perceptual system by Germany's leading social theorist of the late 20th century It combines three decades of research in the social sciences phenomenology evolutionary biology cybernetics and information theory with an intimate knowledge of art history literature aesthetics and contemporary literary theory Encyclopedia of Interior Design Joanna Banham, 1997-05-01 From ancient Greece to Frank Lloyd Wright studiola to smoking rooms chimney boards to cocktail cabinets and papier m ch to tubular steel the Encyclopedia of Interior Design provides a history of interior decoration and design from ancient times to the present day It includes more than 500 illustrated entries covering a variety of subjects ranging from the work of the foremost designers to the origins and function of principal rooms and furnishing types as well as surveys of interior design by period and nationality all prepared by an international team of experts in the field Entries on individuals include a biography a chronological list of principal works or career summary a primary and secondary bibliography and a signed critical essay of 800 to 1500 words on the individual's work in interior design The style and topic entries contain an identifying headnote a guide to main collections a list of secondary sources and a signed critical essay Medieval Iconography John B. Allen, 2024-10-28 The author's aim in these essays which complement his pioneering books on natural history has been to find out more about the different categories of people who engaged in this field in the past and to piece together how the subject has been shaped by changes in society as a whole For long the historical study of natural history was neglected being questionably science as historians of science chose to define that word David Allen's work has done much to remedy this One group of the essays included here seeks to reinterpret and document more fully topics covered in The Naturalist in Britain others look at crazes that swept society notably the Victorian mania for fern collecting and at the biographies of some of the leading naturalists in 18th and 19th century Britain The J.
