Patterns of European Urbanisation Since 1500 Henk Schmal,2018-01-12 Originally published in 1981 Patterns of European Urbanisation Since 1500 examines urbanisation in Europe since 1500 paying particular attention to the underlying factors which govern the differentiated process of urbanisation The book goes on to formulate some of the ways in which these factors can be generalised in an attempt to delineate the process of urbanisation in theoretic terms Mobility Patterns and Urban Structure Paulo Pinho, Cecília Silva, 2016-03-03 Despite extensive efforts to understand the overall effect of urban structure on the current patterns of urban mobility we are still far from a consensual perspective on this complex matter To help build agreement on the factors influencing travel behaviour this book discusses the influence of alternative urban structures on sustainable mobility Bringing together two existing and complementary methods to study the relationship between urban structure and mobility the authors compare two case studies with distinct urban structures and travel behaviour Copenhagen and Oporto Of particular concern is the influence of urban structure factors namely land use and transport system factors and motivational factors related to the social economic and cultural characteristics of the individual traveller The research presented in this book highlights the relevance of centrality in travel behaviour and in more sustainable travel choices Different operational forms of the centrality concept are revealed as important it is shown that more sustainable travel can be influenced by several urban structure factors and that no particular combination is required as long as a certain level of centrality is provided Finally the book concludes that urban structure can on the one hand constrain and on the other hand influence travel choice Comparative Urbanization: City Growth and Change , NASA SP. ,1977
