Staircase to Heaven Tova Gamliel,2024-09-13 Is there anyone who does not imagine the moment of their death Who is unaware of their steady march to the endline By suppressing and denying death Westerners overlook the positive side of death anxiety This ethnography fills this lacuna by describing a colorful and rich death culture among survivors of Holocaust and war who endure their last palpitations of life in a Tel Aviv old age home Unable to suppress the consciousness of end of life the protagonists climb a staircase to heaven among different fields of existence Resourcefully they transform their anxiety and suffering into paths of choice comforting each other filling their days with acts of respect and unity and replacing all consuming individualism with social existentialism and Judeo Christian religious ideas This book holds us up to an existential mirror that bridges old and young a geriatric institution and a concentration camp and natural death and tragic death induced by terrorism Law, Mind and Brain Michael Freeman,Oliver R. Goodenough,2017-05-15 Over the past 20 years cognitive neuroscience has revolutionized our ability to understand the nature of human thought Working with the understandings of traditional psychology the new brain science is transforming many disciplines from economics to literary theory These developments are now affecting the law and there is an upsurge of interest in the potential of neuroscience to contribute to our understanding of criminal and civil law and our system of justice in general The international and interdisciplinary chapters in this volume are written by experts in criminal behaviour civil law and jurisprudence They concentrate on the potential of neuroscience to increase our understanding of blame and responsibility in such areas as juveniles and the death penalty evidence and procedure neurological enhancement and treatment property end of life choices contracting and the effects of words and pictures in law This collection suggests that legal scholarship and practice will be increasingly enriched by an interdisciplinary study of law mind and brain and is a valuable addition to the emerging field of neurolaw Death Dreams Kenneth Kramer, John S. Gamliel, 2014-04-21 Her interdisciplinary perspective and her focus on a uniquely female immigrant cultural practice will make this study fascinating reading for scholars of anthropology gender folklore psychology performance philosophy and sociology God's Plenty William Closson James, 2011 A complete religious topography of a mid sized Canadian city in the early twenty first century inspired by the Harvard Pluralism Project Toward More Family-Centered Family Sciences Howard M. Bahr, Kathleen S. Bahr, 2009-03-16 Much academic writing on families reflects the ideal of non involvement and distanced subject matter Toward More Family Centered Family Sciences suggests that the family sciences in their effort to be scientific have perpetuated this distance between researcher and subject to the detriment of both The authors argue that family and kinship ties are transcendent ties boundary crossing in numerous ways They place an emphasis on family love in contrast and in addition to romantic love and criticize current approaches for neglecting the importance of transcendent concepts such as love commitment respect and sacrifice in the development and well being of family structures Drawing from insights both inside and outside of academia the authors seek to reincorporate transcendent concepts into the study of the family as a unit of society They argue for a more collaborative family centered family science and offer recommendations for how family researchers might work to change the scientific monologue about families to a systemic dialogue with families
