Paul Bowles Lawrence Delbert Stewart,1976 Paul Bowles: the Illumination of North Africa [by] Lawrence D. Stewart. With a Pref. by Harry T. Moore Lawrence Delbert Stewart, Paul Bowles Virginia Spencer Carr,2004-11-09

Paul Bowles best known for his classic 1949 novel The Sheltering Sky is one of the most compelling yet elusive figures of twentieth century American counterculture In this definitive biography Virginia Spencer Carr has captured Bowles in his many guises gifted composer expatriate novelist and gay icon to name only a few Born in New York in 1910 Bowles brilliance was evident from early childhood His first artistic interest was music which he studied with the composer Aaron Copland Bowles wrote scores for films and countless plays including pieces by Tennessee Williams and Orson Welles Over the course of his life his intellectual pursuits led him around the world He cultivated a circle of artistic friends that included Gertrude Stein W H Auden Gore Vidal Truman Capote Allen Ginsburg William Burroughs Stephen Spender and Carson McCullers Just as fascinating for his flamboyant personality as for his literary success Bowles leftist politics and experimentation with drugs make him an ever controversial character Carr delves into Bowles unconventional marriage to Jane Auer and his self exile in Morocco Close friends with him before his death in 1999 Carr s first hand knowledge of Bowles is undeniable This book encompasses her personal experiences plus ten years of research and interviews with some two hundred of Bowles acquaintances Virginia Spencer Carr has written a riveting biography that tells not only the story of Paul Bowles literary genius but also of a crucial period of redefinition in American culture Carr is simultaneously entertaining and precise delivering a wealth of information on one of the most mythologized figures of mid century literature Paul Bowles's Literary Engagement with Morocco Bouchra Benlemlih,2018-01-05 This study argues that Paul Bowles is more perceptive than many American travelers in Morocco The book provides us with what are perhaps the most sustained meditations to date on Bowles s translation work and his autobiography as well as perceptive analyses of key stories such as A Distant Episode and Here to Learn and his second novel Let It Come Down set primarily in Tangier The chapter on translation dwells on the complex interactions between Moroccan storytellers and Bowles The work considers translation as a site where the oral and written colonial and post colonial scene and English and Maghrebi come face to face it is a place where things are worked out in dynamic interaction The chapter on Bowles s autobiography Without Stopping urges us to take this piece of self writing famously dubbed Without Telling by William Burroughs more seriously drawing our attention to baroque architectural features of mind and external landscape worlds distorted by mirrors dreams and fluid transit where forms morph The work also highlights difference between experience and representation of experience through language transformed through the prism of memory In the chapter on Without Stopping as well as in my discussions of Bowles s fiction I provide useful elaborations of connections between Bowles s work and that of Edgar Allan Poe My reading of one of Bowles s best known stories A Distant Episode brings to the surface a recognition that the tragic fate of the Professor the story s protagonist is an outcome of his inability to admit that cultures are not static The academically trained linguist demonstrates an unwillingness or inability to adapt to change or to read cultural signs accurately The message is that Morocco is not stuck in time and cannot be held in place by Orientalist fantasies or preconceived externally derived intellectual constructs and assumptions The book concludes that against the grain of Samuel Huntington's notion of Clash of Civilizations Bowles's poetic and geographical journey forcefully projects cosmopolitanism and transnational attention confirming that civilizations and identities open up rather than shut down war or clash The Fiction of Paul Bowles Hans Bertens, 2022-09-12

Conversations with Paul Bowles Paul Bowles, 1993 Paul Bowles says Each man's life has the quality he gives it but you can't say that life itself has any qualities If we suffer it's because we haven't learned how not to The man who wrote the books didn't exist No Writer exists He exists in his books and that's all I write unconsciously without knowing what I am writing Writing Tangier Ralph M. Coury, Robert Kevin Lacey, 2009 Writing Tangier discusses an array of topics relating to the literature on Tangier from the seventeenth century to the present Major questions include Why has Tangier come to play an important role in contemporary world literary history as a signifier in the literary imagination what is the nature of the intertextual output produced through Paul Bowles translations of the oral tales of a circle of uneducated storytellers including Mohammed Mrabet and Larbi Layachi and the text For Bread Alone brought to Bowles by the literate Mohamed Choukri how do academics artists and writers who have been based in the city or who have written about it assess the various socio economic political and cultural factors that have shaped its cultural production and the relationship of this production to the celebrated hybrid aspects of its identity does the success of the literature of Tangier reflect a truly new multicultural cosmopolitanism or does it stem from the fact that this literature is congenial to Westerners that it is understood in terms that they themselves define and that much of it including productions in Arabic prepared with the expectation of translation has even been written to measure for them Writing Tangier in the Postcolonial Transition Michael K. Walonen, 2016-02-17 In his study of the Tangier expatriate community Michael K Walonen analyzes the representations of French and Spanish Colonial North Africa by Paul Bowles Jane Bowles William Burroughs Brion Gysin and Alfred Chester during the end of the colonial era and the earliest days of post independence The conceptualizations of space in these authors descriptions of Tangier Walonen shows share common components an attention to the transformative potential of the conflict sweeping the region a record of the power relations that divided space along lines of gender and ethnicity including the spatial impact of the widespread sexual commerce between Westerners and natives a vision of the Maghreb as a land that can be dominated or imposed on as a kind of frontier space an expression of anxieties about the specters of Cold War antagonisms and an embrace of the underlying logic of the market to the culture of the Maghreb Counterbalancing the depictions of Tangier by Westerners who sought to reconcile their nostalgia for the colonial order with their support of native demands for independent governance is Walonen's extended analysis of the contrasting sense of place found in the writings of native Moroccan authors such as Mohammed Choukri Tahar Ben Jelloun and Anouar Majid In its focus on Tangier and the larger Maghreb as a lived environment situated at a particular spatial and temporal crossroads Walonen s study makes an important contribution to the fields of urban transatlantic and postcolonial studies

Wretched Refuge Jessica Datema,Diane Krumrey,2010-02-19 Recent literary expressions of the immigrant experience reveal the postmodern narrative obsession with the immigrant as cultural and political outlier Wretched Refuge Immigrants and Itinerants in the Postmodern asks us to reimagine this preoccupation with what Junot Diaz calls the actual flows of third world bodies as part of a larger more pertinent motif of the postmodern itinerant As a figure of cultural becoming the itinerant stands for displacement and dispersion exceeding the confines of physical location political subjectivity and relation to the natural world Thus Wretched Refuge seeks to map the cosmopolitan positionalities of an immigrant or exilic experience the itinerant the migrant and other foreign bodies The essays in Wretched Refuge consider fiction memoir and pop culture genres that reconceive time space and the shifting situatedness of the subject within nature politics and culture The book weaves together modern and postmodern visions of itinerancy in the writings of Cormac McCarthy Bob Dylan Junot Diaz Edwidge Danticat Jeffrey Eugenides Jhumpa Lahiri Roberto Bola o Paul Bowles and Bill McKibben among others Throughout these radically different narratives the trace of the itinerant suggests a cosmopolitan response to localized anxieties about global hegemony

A World Outside Richard F. Patteson,2014-08-04 Expatriation the sense of being outside or exposed is a central theme in the life and work of Paul Bowles Beginning with Bowles account of a frightening childhood memory A World Outside explores how the dichotomies of inside and outside safety and danger enclosure and exposure fundamental dualities in Bowles fiction have their deepest origin in the fabric of Bowles own life and also mark his kinship with other twentieth century writers Like V S Naipaul Paul Bowles is one of those writers who have an uncanny grasp of what it is like never to feel at home In this much needed study Richard Patten explores how this sense of outsidership characterizes one's experience in a world in which many of the traditional shelters social familial religious seem to have lost their ability to protect He discovers that storytelling is the vehicle by which both Bowles and his characters attempt to domesticate inchoate experience bringing it into the familiar interior of human comprehension The music world has for decades recognized Paul Bowles stature as a composer but his fiction is only recently receiving the close attention it has long deserved from students of American and contemporary literature Bowles is an author who neither sought nor received the kind of publicity often lavished on his contemporaries but one whom an ever growing audience regards as a commanding figure of twentieth century American literature

A Century of Encounters Tanja Stampfl, 2019-02-08 A Century of Encounters analyzes Arab American and European literary depictions of self and other as they interact with each other in Arab North Africa throughout the twentieth century and introduces the trope of the encounter as a lens through which to read contemporary world literature comparatively A focus on the transnational encounter allows for the in depth study of constructions of gender race and national identities both for the self and the other in order to answer the seemingly simple questions What makes up different encounters in the twentieth century and how can we facilitate a productive and positive encounter between these groups This book illustrates connections between literary texts that have hitherto been overlooked and establishes an intertextual genealogy of transcultural encounters throughout the twentieth century that coalesce around the themes of desire family and travel In its literary analysis A Century of Encounters aims to facilitate a better understanding of other cultures in general and contribute to constructive cross cultural interactions between the United States Europe and Arab North Africa in particular research first presented at the seventh annual Louisiana Conference on Literature Language and Culture explores one of the most pervasive vexing and alluring concepts in the Humanities that of place Including essays which encompass a broad range of research fields and methodologies from Geography to Cybernetics it presents a cross section of approaches aimed revealing the complex cultural machinations behind what once may have seemed a static one dimensional topic

Investigations into the function of place as a force in contemporary culture inevitably reveal a long history of the interplay between place and cultural product between context and text Just as traditional cultures mythologize sacred spaces so too has Western culture sanctified its own places through its literature Imagined places such as Faulker s Yoknapatawpha or

Joyce s Dublin become the focus of conferences and festivals authors homes birthplaces and gravesites are transformed into the line between fantasy and reality is increasingly blurred and persisting through the great cultural shifts of the past two hundred years is the popular and romantic notion that words performances narratives and even national identities are always in some way an expression of the places in which they are created and set With the idea of place foregrounded in so much contemporary discourse this collection promises to enter into an already lively debate and one which due to its relevance to where we live and how we make sense of our own places within them does not show any signs of flagging
