Paul Bowles's Literary Engagement with Morocco Bouchra Benlemlih, 2018-01-05 This study argues that Paul Bowles is more perceptive than many American travelers in Morocco The book provides us with what are perhaps the most sustained meditations to date on Bowles's translation work and his autobiography as well as perceptive analyses of key stories such as A Distant Episode and Here to Learn and his second novel Let It Come Down set primarily in Tangier The chapter on translation dwells on the complex interactions between Moroccan storytellers and Bowles The work considers translation as a site where the oral and written colonial and post colonial scene and English and Maghrebi come face to face it is a place where things are worked out in dynamic interaction The chapter on Bowles's autobiography Without Stopping urges us to take this piece of self writing famously dubbed Without Telling by William Burroughs more seriously drawing our attention to baroque architectural features of mind and external landscape worlds distorted by mirrors dreams and fluid transit where forms morph The work also highlights difference between experience and representation of experience through language transformed through the prism of memory In the chapter on Without Stopping as well as in my discussions of Bowles's fiction I provide useful elaborations of connections between Bowles's work and that of Edgar Allan Poe My reading of one of Bowles's best known stories A Distant Episode brings to the surface a recognition that the tragic fate of the Professor the story's protagonist is an outcome of his inability to admit that cultures are not static The academically trained linguist demonstrates an unwillingness or inability to adapt to change or to read cultural signs accurately The message is that Morocco is not stuck in time and cannot be held in place by Orientalist fantasies or preconceived externally derived intellectual constructs and assumptions The book concludes that against the grain of Samuel Huntington's notion of Clash of Civilizations Bowles's poetic and geographical journey forcefully projects cosmopolitanism and transnational attention confirming that civilizations and identities open up rather than shut down war or clash

Re-creating Paul Bowles, the Other, and the Imagination Raj Chandarlapaty, 2014-11-05 As we withdraw farther from American canonical literature and poetry and move closer to a re appraisal of literature's impact upon the arts through media we may easily find a match for greater humanism and popular interaction in American rock culture through Paul Bowles In this work Bowles is re-invented within the postmodern the postcolonial and the renegade future underscored by liberal elites that had breathed new life into the American counterculture Re Creating Paul Bowles attests to the moments of relentless humanism and imaginative transformation that are most dreamlike engaging the antagonism of psychology with imperialism at last In his youth a classical composer and critic Bowles deserves credit for spawning new generations of rock and pop music through his use of sound and tapping of non Western or non European folk music bringing classic ethnography to the rock generation with Music of Morocco Re Creating Paul Bowles examines the Latin American African and Arab moments of his scholastic effort a primary beginning for understanding modern popular music's free transcription of tradition Re Creating Paul Bowles includes several examples of films that adapt the author's personal life and times the production of surrealist technique in film and literature and the re-invention of classic works such as The Sheltering Sky and Collected Stories It assumes the technique for re-production allows the elder Bowles greater freedom in crossing cultural boundaries and overruling the colonialist separateness that guarded cultural content for centuries Bowles has always deserved re appraisal in the American academy and liberation from his stereotypical cult figure identity a positive force in the ethnic comprehension of Self and society

Conversations with Paul Bowles Paul Bowles, 1993 Paul Bowles says Each man's life has the quality he gives it but you can't say that life itself has any qualities If we suffer it's because we haven't learned how not to The man who wrote the books didn't exist No Writer exists He exists in his books and that's all I write unconsciously without knowing what I am writing

Paul Bowles Barry Tharaud, 2020 Shows that the writings of Paul Bowles who is often seen as a literary renegade owe much to the antinomian American tradition of Emerson and his literary descendants

Writing Tangier Ralph M. Coury, Robert Kevin Lacey, 2009 Writing Tangier discusses an array of topics relating to the literature on Tangier from the seventeenth century to the present Major questions include Why has Tangier come to play an important role in contemporary world literary history as a signifier in the literary imagination what is the nature of the inter-textual output produced through Paul Bowles translations of the oral tales of a circle of uneducated storytellers including Mohammed Mrabet and Larbi Layachi and the text For Bread Alone brought to Bowles by the literate Mohamed Choukri how do academics artists and writers who have been based in the city or who have written about it assess the various socio economic political and cultural factors that have shaped its cultural production and the relationship of this production to the celebrated hybrid aspects of its identity does the success of the literature of Tangier reflect a truly new multicultural cosmopolitanism or does it stem from the fact that this literature is congenial to Westerners that it is understood in terms that they themselves define and that much of it including productions in Arabic prepared with the expectation of translation has even been written to measure for them

Cosmopolitan Minds Alexa Weik von Mossner, 2014-04-21 During World War II and the early Cold War period factors such as race gender sexual orientation or class made a number of American writers feel marginalized in U S society Cosmopolitan Minds focuses on a core of transnational writers Kay Boyle Pearl S Buck William Gardner Smith Richard Wright and Paul Bowles who found themselves prompted to seek experiences outside of their home country experiences that profoundly changed their self understanding and creative imagination as they encountered alternative points of views and cultural practices in Europe Asia and Africa Alexa Weik von Mossner offers a new perspective on the affective underpinnings of critical and reflexive cosmopolitanism by drawing on theories of emotion and literary imagination from cognitive psychology philosophy and cognitive literary studies She analyzes how physical dislocation and the sometimes violent shifts in understanding that result from our affective encounters with others led Boyle Buck Smith Wright and Bowles to develop new cosmopolitan solidarities across national ethnic and religious boundaries She also shows how in their literary texts these writers employed strategic empathy to provoke strong emotions such as love sympathy compassion fear anger guilt shame and disgust in their readers in order to challenge their parochial worldviews and practices Reading these texts as emotionally powerful indictments of institutionalized racism and national violence inside and outside of the United States Weik von Mossner demonstrates that our emotional engagements with others real and imagined are crucially important for the development of transnational and cosmopolitan imaginations Henry James' Travel Mirosława Buchholtz,2018-12-17 Henry James Travel Fiction and Non Fiction offers a multifaceted approach to Henry James idea and practice of travel from the perspective of the globalized world today Each chapter addresses a different selection of James fiction and non fiction and offers a different approach towards the ideas that are still with us today history reflected in art and architecture the tourist gaze museum culture transnationalism and the return home As a whole the book encompasses both early and late fiction and non fiction by Henry James giving the reader a sense of how his idea of travel evolved over several decades of his creative activity and shows how thin the line between fiction and non fiction travel writing really is The Exquisite Corpse Kanta Kochhar-Lindgren,Davis Schneiderman,Tom Denlinger,2009-12-01 This work addresses historical and contemporary manifestations of poems drawings collages and performance works that employ the ritual of the cadaver exquis Turncoats, Traitors, and Fellow Travelers Arthur Redding,2009-10-08 The Cold War was unique in the way films books television shows colleges and universities and practices of everyday life were enlisted to create American political consensus This coercion fostered a seemingly hegemonic nationally unified perspective devoted to spreading a capitalist socially conservative notion of freedom throughout the world to fight Communism In Turncoats Traitors and Fellow Travelers Culture and Politics of the Early Cold War Arthur Redding traces the historical contours of this manufactured consent by considering the ways in which authors playwrights and directors participated in responded to and resisted the construction of Cold War discourses The book argues that a fugitive resistance to the status quo emerged as writers and activists variously fled into exile went underground or grudgingly accommodated themselves to the new spirit of the times To this end Redding examines work by a wide swath of creators including essayists W E B Du Bois and F O Matthiessen novelists Ralph Ellison Patricia Highsmith Jane Bowles and Paul Bowles playwrights Arthur Miller poets Sylvia Plath and filmmakers Elia Kazan and John Ford The book explores how writers and artists created works that went against mainstream notions of liberty and offered alternatives to the false dichotomy between capitalist freedom and totalitarian tyranny These complex responses and the era they reflect had and continue to have profound effects on American and international cultural and intellectual life as can be seen in the connections Redding makes between past and present
