Gauguin's Intimate Journals Paul Gauguin, 1997-01-01 These journals are an illuminating self portrait of a unique personality They bring sharply into focus for me his goodness his humor his insurgent spirit his clarity of vision his inordinate hatred of hypocrisy and sham Emil Gauguin the artist's son in the Preface One of the great innovative figures in modern art Gauguin was a complex driven individual who in 1883 gave up his job as a stockbroker in order to be free to paint every day As time passed he determined to sacrifice everything for his artistic vocation Finally in pursuit of a place to paint natural men and women living lives unstained by the sham and hypocrisy of civilization he took up residence in the South Seas first in Tahiti and later in the Marquesas Islands Completed during the artist's final sojourn in the Marquesas these revealing journals reprinted from rare limited edition throw much light on the painter's inner life and his thoughts about a great many topics We learn of Gauguin's first stay in Paris in 1876 and his initial encounter with Impressionism his tumultuous relationship with van Gogh when they lived and painted together in Arles his pithy evaluations of Degas Cezanne Manet and other artists his opinion of art dealers and critics poor and much more Also here are illuminating glimpses of Gauguin's life in the islands his delight in the simple carefree lives of the natives and the physical charms of Polynesian women counterbalanced by his struggles with poverty hatred of the missionaries and despair over the failures of French colonial justice Witty wide ranging and aphoristic these writings are not only entertaining in themselves they are crucial for anyone seeking to understand Gauguin and his work The text is enhanced with 27 full page illustrations by Gauguin Dover 1997 unabridged republication of Paul Gauguin's Intimate Journals Boni and Liveright New York 1921

Tahitian journey in 1891 he spent nearly two years in the remote Breton fishing village of Le Pouldu Seeking creative isolation in a primitive setting he pursued his art accompanied by several followers One of them was the Dutch painter Meyer de Haan who was able to pay the living expenses in Le Pouldu and was also knowledgeable in literary and philosophical matters that fascinated Gauguin Their association resulted in some of Gauguin s most remarkable works including the Wadsworth Atheneum s symbolist portrait of de Haan inscribed Nirvana This and the rich variety of paintings and sculpture by Gauguin produced in 1889 90 are the focus of this beautiful book Gauguin and de Haan settled into an inn at Le Pouldu run by an attractive unwed mother named Marie Henry who began a liaison with de Haan despite the fact that he was a sickly hunchback The intensity of relations between Gauguin and de Haan is reflected in many of the works including frescoes which they installed in the inn Gauguin s time in Le Pouldu was crucial to the advancement of his art and the vivid Breton subjects and personality of Meyer de Haan remained in his imagination to reappear even during his later Tahitian period In this book several distinguished experts draw on previously unavailable sources to examine in depth the history of this period Gauguin s relationship with de Haan their interest in religion and exotic cultures and the meaning of the many innovative symbolist works they produced Modern Theories of Art: From impressionism to Kandinsky Moshe Barasch,1990 In this volume the third in his classic series of texts surveying the history of art theory Moshe Barasch traces the hidden patterns and interlocking themes in the study of art from Impressionism to Abstract Art Barasch details the immense social changes in the creation presentation and reception of art which have set the history of art theory on a vertiginous new course the decreased relevance of workshops and art schools the replacement of the treatise by the critical review and the interrelation of new modes of scientific inquiry with artistic theory and praxis The consequent changes in the ways in which critics as well as artists conceptualized paintings and sculptures were radical marked by an obsession with intense immediate sensory experiences psychological reflection on the effects of art and a magnetic pull to the exotic and alien making for the most exciting and fertile period in the history of art criticism Theories of Art: From Impressionism to Kandinsky Moshe Barasch,2000 This Strange Eventful History Paul Bradley,2011
