Freitag,2013-10-28 First published in 1997 For this second edition of Art Books A Basic Bibliography of Monographs on Artists the vast number of new books published since 1985 was surveyed and evaluated This has resulted in the selection of 3 395 additional titles These selections reflective of the increase in the monographic literature on artists during the last ten years are evidence of the activities of a larger number of art historians in more countries worldwide of the increasingly diverse and ambitious exhibition programs of museums whose number has also increased dramatically and also of a lively international art market and the attendant gallery activities The selections of the first edition have been reviewed errors have been corrected and important new editions and reprints have been noted The second edition contains 278 names of artists not represented in the first edition Paul Klee 1939 Paul Klee,Dawn Ades,Richard Tuttle,2021-06-22 The year before he died in what was one of the most difficult yet prolific periods of his life Paul Klee created some of his most surprising and innovative works In 1939 the year before his death from a long illness and against a backdrop of sociopolitical turmoil and the outbreak of World War II Klee worked with a vigor and inventiveness that rivaled even the most productive periods of his youth This book illuminates the artist's response to his personal difficulties and the era's broader realities through imagery that is tirelessly inventive by turns political solemn playful humorous and poetic The works featured testify to Klee's restless drive to experiment with form and material His use of adhesive grease oil chalk and watercolor among other media resulted in surfaces that are not only visually striking but also highly tactile and original Not unlike a diary the drawings are often meditative reflections on the pains and pleasures of life their titles among them Monsters in readiness and Struggles with himself signal Klee's frame of mind Renowned art historian Dawn Ades looks at this group of paintings and drawings in the context of their time and as indicative of a pivotal moment in art history Moved by this late period of Klee's oeuvre American artist Richard Tuttle responds to specific works in the form of dialogical poems This stunning publication highlights the novelty and ingenuity of Klee's late works which deeply affected the generation of artists including Anni Albers Jean Dubuffet Mark Tobey and Zao Wou Ki that emerged after World War II and continues to captivate artists and viewers alike today Parting the Cosmic Veil Kenneth R. Lang,2007-12-31 This book describes our gradual awareness of a vast previously concealed Universe It is a story of expanding horizons and the discovery of invisible worlds This voyage of discovery is presented within universal themes such as invisibility motion content form impermanence violence and emptiness beginnings and ends These are topics that concern us all helping us take the Universe personally so each chapter begins with the human aspect of some of these themes The book is additionally broadened by including the perceptions of artists poets and writers as well as with line drawings that forcefully compact a scientific insight The Rotarian ,1963-12 Established in 1911 The Rotarian is the official magazine of Rotary International and is circulated worldwide Each issue contains feature articles columns and departments about or of interest to Rotarians Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19 Pulitzer Prize winners from Mahatma Ghandi to Kurt Vonnegut Jr have written for the magazine Index to Educational Slides National Information Center for Educational Media,1974 Symbolism, Its Origins and Its Consequences Rosina Neginsky,2010-08-11 The notion of the symbol is at the root of the Symbolist movement but this symbol is different from the way it was used and understood in the Middle Ages and Renaissance In the Symbolist movement a symbol is not an allegory The Belgian writer Maurice Maeterlinck defined its essence in an article that appeared on April 24 1887 in L Art moderne He wrote that the notion of a symbol in the Symbolist movement is the opposite of the notion of the symbol in classical usage instead of going from the abstract to the concrete Venus incarnated in the statue represents love it goes from the concrete to the abstract from what is seen heard felt tasted and sensed to the evocation of the idea This volume attempts to give a glimpse into the power of the Symbolist movement and the nature of its fundamental and interdisciplinary role in the evolution of art and literature of the twentieth century It records the studies of a group of scholars who met and discussed these topics together for the first time in 2009 While illuminating the specificity of Symbolism in art architecture and literature in different European countries these articles also demonstrate the crucial role of French Symbolism in the development of the international Symbolist movement The authors hope that an expanding group a society of Art Literature and Music in Symbolism and Decadence ALMSD born out of the first meeting will continue to further this discussion at future conferences and in the printed conference proceedings National Union Catalog ,1973 Includes entries for maps and atlases Catalogue of the Library of the National Gallery of Canada: Has National Gallery of Canada.
