an extraordinary feat of combat leadership In the days that followed Paul Revere led a new battle for public opinion which proved even more decisive than the fighting itself When the alarm riders of April 18 took to the streets they did not cry the British are coming for most of them still believed they were British Within a day many began to think differently For George Washington Thomas Jefferson John Adams and Thomas Paine the news of Lexington was their revolutionary Rubicon Paul Revere's Ride returns Paul Revere to center stage in these critical events capturing both the drama and the underlying developments in a triumphant return to narrative history at its finest
