Marion Dewar Deborah Gorham, 2016-09-13 Marion Dewar could never ignore a person who was begging in the street Along with money she would offer words of encouragement and friendship Perhaps it was her training as a nurse her devout Catholic upbringing or maybe it was simply because she was a genuinely compassionate woman As mayor of Ottawa from 1978-1985 Marion Dewar worked tirelessly to bring about non profit housing better public transportation support and encouragement for the arts for peace and for women's rights She advocated for visible minorities gays and lesbians and was the driving force behind the initiative to bring 4 000 boat people to Ottawa from Vietnam and Southeast Asia She was a prominent member of the New Democratic Party and sat as a Member of Parliament in 1987-1988 all while raising four children Accompanied by archival and personal photos an intriguing look at a woman who took action when it counted most

University Lorna R. Marsden, 2016-10-27 Founded in 1959 York University is now the second largest university in Ontario and third largest university in Canada However starting in 1970s the success of the university was far from guaranteed Leading the Modern University documents the challenges and solutions that five successive university presidents H Ian Macdonald Harry Arthurs Susan Mann Lorna Marsden and Mamdouh Shoukri encountered from the very early 1970s up to 2014 This book is the rare occurrence where a series of university presidents describe and analyze the challenges they faced regarding financing morale crises and succession With each president contributing a chapter covering her or his own years in office Leading the Modern University reveals that large public institutions have internal dynamics and external forces that supersede any individual leader's years in office This is a case study for those interested in organizational change as seen by the leadership of a major public institution during a dynamic period in higher education Working for the Common Good

Madelyn Holmes, 2017-06-27T00:00:00Z In Working for the Common Good Madelyn Holmes details the political policy work of eight social democratic Canadian women and highlights their largely unrecognized struggles and accomplishments Throughout their political careers Agnes Macphail Theresa Casgrain Grace MacInnis Pauline Jewett Margaret Mitchell Lynn McDonald Audrey McLaughlin and Alexa McDonough worked towards curing society's economic and social ills They raised their voices for world peace from the 1920s to the 2000s They were incensed about economic inequality in Canadian society and advocated for policies to reduce poverty They fought for social justice for Indigenous peoples Japanese Canadians Chinese Canadians Muslim Canadians and the imprisoned The profiles in this book illustrate the many ways these politicians embraced the cause of gender equality and served as role models for generations of Canadian women The Equity Myth

Frances Henry, Enakshi Dua, Carl E. James, Audrey Kobayashi, Peter Li, Howard Ramos, Malinda S. Smith, 2017-06-22 The university is often regarded as a bastion of liberal democracy where equity and diversity are promoted and racism doesn't exist In reality the university still excludes many people and is a site of racialization that is subtle complex and sophisticated While some studies do point to the persistence of systemic barriers to equity in higher education in depth analyses of racism racialization and Indigeneity in the academy are more notable for excluding racialized and Indigenous professors This book is the first comprehensive data based study of racialized and Indigenous faculty members experiences in Canadian universities Challenging the myth of equity in higher education it brings together leading scholars who scrutinize what universities have done and question the effectiveness of their equity programs They draw on a rich body of survey data interviews and analysis of universities stated policies to examine the experiences of racialized faculty members across Canada who despite diversity initiatives in their respective institutions have yet to see meaningful changes in everyday working conditions They also make important recommendations as to how universities can address racialization and fulfill the promise of equity in higher education Anthropologica ,2000 Canadian Book Review Annual ,1999 Canada Today ,1974 Choice ,1999
