Resident Alien Feminist Cultural Criticism:

Resident Alien Janet Wolff, Professor Emerita in the School of Arts Languages and Cultures Janet Wolff, 1995-01-01 In this book of critical writings Janet Wolff examines issues of exile memoir and movement from the perspective of the female stranger Wolff born in Great Britain but now living and working in the United States discusses the positive consequences of women's travel the use of dance another form of mobility as an image of liberation whether exile or distance provides a better vantage point for cultural criticism than centrality and stability the place of personal memoir in academic writing and much more Emigré Feminism Alena Heitlinger, 1999-01-01 The thirteen articles presented here originated with a conference on emigre feminism held at Trent University in October 1996 The authors most of them now living in Canada are scholars from South Africa Uganda Chile Trinidad and Tobago Greece Hungary the Czech Republic Poland Turkey Iran Finland and New Zealand The Shock of the Other Silke Horstkotte, Esther Peeren, 2007-01 Alterity is not a mere synonym of difference what it signifies is otherness a distinction or separation that can entail similarity as well as difference The articles collected here explore ways to define situate and negotiate alterity in a manner that does not do away with the other through negation or neutralization but that instead engages alterity as a reconfiguring of identities that keeps them open to change to a becoming without horizon Alterity and its situated negotiations with identity are configured through the body through the psyche and through translational politics From critical readings of angels specters grotesque bodies online avatars Sex and the City pornography in French literature Australian billboard art Pina Bausch Adrian Piper Kashmiri poetry contemporary German fiction Jacques Brault and Northern Irish poetry there emerges a vision of identities as multi faceted constructions that are continually being transformed by the various alterities with which they intersect and which they must actively engage in order to function effectively in the social political and aesthetic realm Next Year I Will Know More

Tamar El-Or, 2002-05-01 In traditional Jewish societies of previous centuries literacy education was mostly a male prerogative Even more recently women have not been taught the traditional male curriculum that includes the Talmud and midrashic books But the situation is changing partly because of the special emphasis that modern Judaism places on learning its philosophy and traditions and on broadening its circle of knowers In Next Year I Will Know More the distinguished Israeli anthropologist Tamar El Or explores the spreading practice of intensive Judaic studies among women in the religious Zionist community Feminist literacy notes El Or will alter gender relations and the construction of gender identities of the members of the religious community This in turn could effect changes in Jewish theology and law In an engaging narrative that offers rare insights into a traditional society in the midst of a modern world the author points to a community that will be more feminist and even more religious The Feeling of Reading Rachel Ablow, 2010 The first collection of criticism devoted to the problem of reading in Victorian literature Marianne Moore and the Cultures of Modernity Victoria Bazin, 2016-05-06 Victoria Bazin examines the poetry of Marianne Moore as it is shaped by and responsive to the experience of being a modern woman of living in the aftermath of the First World War of being interpellated as a modern consumer and of writing in the age of mechanical reproduction She argues that Moore s textual collages and syllabic sculptures are based on the cultural clutter or debris of modernity on textual extracts and reproductions on the phantasmagoria of city life revealing something modernism worked hard to conceal its relation to modernity more specifically its relation to the new emerging and expanding mass consumer culture Drawing extensively on archival resources to trace Moore s influences and to describe her own distinctive modernist aesthetic this book argues that it was her feminist adaptation of pragmatism that shaped her poetic response to modernity Moore s use of the quoted fragment is conceptualised in relation not only to Walter Benjamin s philosophical history but also to William James s image of the world as a series of partial stories As such this account of Marianne Moore not only contributes to a greater understanding of the poet and her work but it also offers up a more politicized and historically nuanced understanding of poetic modernism between the wars one that retains a sense of the formal complexities of poetic language and the poet s own ethical imperatives whilst also recognising the material impact of modernity upon the modernist poem This book will appeal therefore not only to scholars already familiar with Moore s poetry but more widely to those interested in modernism and American culture between the wars

Fan Cultures Matthew Hills,2003-09-02 Emphasising the contradictions of fandom Matt Hills outlines how media fans have been conceptualised in cultural theory Drawing on case studies of specific fan groups from Elvis impersonators to X Philes and Trekkers Hills discusses a range of approaches to fandom from the Frankfurt School to psychoanalytic readings and asks whether the development of new media creates the possibility of new forms of fandom Fan Cultures also explores the notion of fan cults or followings considering how media fans perform the distinctions of cult status

Cinema and the City Mark Shiel,Tony Fitzmaurice,2011-07-15 This book brings together the literature of urban sociology and film studies to explore new analytical and theoretical approaches to the relationship between cinema and the city and to show how these impact on the realities of life in urban societies

Victorian Women and the Economies of Travel, Translation and Culture, 1830-1870 Judith Johnston,2016-02-24 Both travel and translation involve a type of journey one with literal and metaphorical dimensions Judith Johnston brings together these two richly resonant modes of getting from here to there as she explores their impact on culture with respect to the work of Victorian women Using the metaphor of the published journey whether it involves actual travel or translation Johnston focusses particularly on the relationships of various British women with continental Europe At the same time she sheds light on the possibility of appropriation and British imperial enhancement that such contact produces Johnston s book is in part devoted to case studies of women such as Sarah Austin Mary Busk Anna Jameson Charlotte Guest Jane Sinnett and Mary Howitt who are representative of women travellers translators and journalists during a period when women became increasingly robust participants in the publishing industry Whether they wrote about their own travels or translated the foreign language texts of other writers Johnston shows women were establishing themselves as actors in the broad business of culture In widening our understanding of the ways in which gender and modernity functioned in the early decades of the Victorian age Johnston s book makes a strong case for a greater appreciation of the contributions nineteenth century women made to what is termed the knowledge empire      Embodied Geographies Elizabeth Kenworthy Teather,2005-06-23 Embodied Geographies provides a comprehensive account of different types of life crises which develop our identities and affect how we live our lives Chapters focus on pregnancy childbirth teenagers and parenthood migration the threat and reality of violence illness and disability bereavement the ensuing family responsibilities and death itself It includes case studies from the UK Australia New Zealand Singapore Hong Kong Canada and the USA      Rethinking Arshile Gorky , A reexamination of the art of Arshile Gorky 1904 1948 and an exploration of his role in the development of modern abstraction in America      Quebec National Cinema Bill Marshall,2001 Instead he shows that while the allegory of nation marks Quebec film production it also leads to a tension between textual and contextual forces between homogeneity and heterogeneity and between major and minor modes of being and identity      Dances of the Self in Heinrich von Kleist, E.T.A. Hoffmann and Heinrich Heine Lucia Ruprecht,2017-03-02 Lucia Ruprecht s study is the first monograph in English to analyse the relationship between nineteenth century German literature and theatrical dance Combining cultural history with close readings of major texts by Heinrich von Kleist E T A Hoffmann and Heinrich Heine the author brings to light little known German resources on dance to address the theoretical implications of examining the interdiscursive and intermedial relations between the three authors literary works aesthetic reflections on dance and dance of the period In doing so she not only shows how dancing and writing relate to one another but reveals the characteristics that make each mode of expression distinct unto itself Readings engage with literary modes of understanding physical movement that are neglected under the regime of eighteenth century aesthetic theory and of classical ballet setting the human frail and expressive body against the smoothly idealised neoclassicist ideal Particularly important is the way juxtaposing texts and performance practice allows for the emergence of meta discourses about trauma and repetition and their impact on aesthetics and formulations of the self and the human body Related to this is the author s concept of performative exercises or dances of the self which constitute a decisive force within the formation of subjectivity that is enacted in the literary texts Joining performance studies with psychoanalytical theory this book opens up new pathways for understanding Western theatrical dance s theoretical historical and literary continuum      City Requiem, Calcutta Ananya Roy,2003 Housing developments emerge amid the paddy fields on the fringes of Calcutta overflowing trains carry peasant women to informal urban labor markets in a daily commute against hunger land is settled and claimed in a complex choreography of squatting and evictions such Ananya Roy contends are the distinctive spaces of a communism for the new millennium where at a moment of liberalization the hegemony of poverty is quietly reproduced An ethnography of urban development in Calcutta Roy s book explores the dynamics of class and gender in the persistence of poverty City Requiem Calcutta emphasizes how gender itself is spatialized and how gender relations are negotiated within the geopolitics of modernity and through the everyday practices of territory Thus Roy shows how urban developmentalism in its populist guise reproduces the relations of masculinist patronage and in its entrepreneurial guise seeks to reclaim a bourgeois Calcutta gentlemanly in its nostalgias In doing so her work expands the field of poverty studies by showing how a politics of poverty is also a poverty of knowledge a construction and management of social and spatial categories Exile and Nomadism in French and Hispanic Women's Writing Kate Averis,2017-07-05

Women in exile disrupt assumptions about exile belonging home and identity For many women exiles home represents less a place of belonging and more a point of departure and exile becomes a creative site of becoming rather than an unsettling state of errancy Exile may be a propitious circumstance for women to renegotiate identities far from the strictures of home appropriating a new freedom in mobility Through a feminist politics of place displacement and subjectivity this comparative study analyses the novels of key contemporary Francophone and Latin American writers Nancy Huston Linda Le Malika Mokeddem Cristina Peri Rossi Laura Restrepo and Cristina Siscar to identify a new nomadic subjectivity in the lives and works of transnational women today Democracy, Citizenship and the Global City Engin F. Isin,2013-04-15 Democracy

Citizenship and the Global City focuses on the controversial neglected theme of citizenship It examines the changing role of citizens their rights obligations and responsibilities as members of nation states and the issue of accountability in a global society Using this interdisciplinary approach the book offers an innovative collection of work from Robert A Beauregard Anna Bounds Janine Brodie Richard Dagger Gerard Delanty Judith A Garber Robert J Holton Warren Magnusson Raymond Rocco Nikolas Rose Evelyn S Ruppert Saskia Sassen Bryan S Turner John Urry Gerda R Wekerle and Nira Yuval Davis Car Cultures Daniel Miller,2020-05-26 Anyone who assumes that a car is simply a means to get from point A to point B or who even thinks that they know what a car is should read this book Profoundly shaped by culture the car gives rise to a wide range of emotions from guilt about the environment in the UK to aboriginal concerns with car corpses to struggles to keep the creatures alive with everything but the proper spare parts in West Africa Cars and their landscapes prove central to human life from its most intimate to the widest sense of global crisis and are capable of inspiring epic passions From road rage in Western Europe to the struggles of cab driving in Africa to the emergence of Black identity in the US this book examines the essential humanity of the car which includes the jealousies gender differences fears and moralities that cars give rise to Firmly grounded in detailed ethnographic and historical scholarship this is the first book to provide an informed sense of cars as one of the most familiar and significant forms of material culture Thinking Through Art Katy

Macleod,2013-01-11 Focusing on a unique arena Thinking Through Art takes an innovative look at artists experiences of undertaking doctorates and asks If the making of art is not simply the formulation of an object but is also the formation of complex ideas then what effect does academic enquiry have on art practice Using twenty eight pictures never before seen outside the artists universities Thinking Through Art focuses on art produced in higher educational environments and considers how the material product comes about through a process of conceiving and giving form to abstract thought It further examines how this form which is research art sits uneasily within academic circles and yet is uniquely situated outside the gallery system The journal articles from eminent scholars artists philosophers art historians and cultural theorists demonstrate the complexity of interpreting art as research and provide students and scholars with an invaluable resource for their art and cultural studies courses      Calcutta Requiem: Gender And The Politics Of Poverty Ananya Roy,2007-09
