Racing the Storm Hillary Potter, 2007-01-01 On August 29 2005 Hurricane Katrina hit land and gravely affected the lives of many people in the states along the Gulf Coast Katrina went beyond demonstrating the devastating natural effects of a hurricane by exposing the continuing significance of race relations and racial stereotyping in U S society Racing the Storm serves to highlight the race based perceptions of and responses to Katrina survivors by governmental entities volunteers the media and the general public Scholars from a variety of disciplines take on the task of analyzing the social phenomena and racial implications surrounding Hurricane Katrina Book jacket

Contesting the Foreshore Jeremy Boissevain, Tom Selwyn, 2004 This collection of essays examines social political and economic relations in primarily European coastal locations through the lens of tourism The contributors explore the intersecting interests of fishing tourism and development and the conflict among local communities and market forces all of which are infused with the symbolism of the sea as a place of mystery and danger From the tensions between Cornish villagers and city visitors to the explosion of resort development in Gran Canaria the authors consider the relationship between local residents businesses and tourist newcomers as they vie for status influence and ultimately for space

Heritage Formation and the Senses in Post-Apartheid South Africa Duane Jethro, 2020-05-11 In this book Duane Jethro creates a framework for understanding the role of the senses in processes of heritage formation He shows how the senses were important for crafting and successfully deploying new nation building heritage projects in South Africa during the postapartheid period The book also highlights how heritage dynamics are entangled in evocative changing sensory worlds Jethro uses five case studies that correlate with the five main Western senses Examples include touch and the ruination of a series of art memorials how vision was mobilised to assert the authority of the state sponsored Freedom Park project in Pretoria how smell memories of apartheid era social life in Cape Town informed contemporary struggles for belonging after forced removal how taste informed debates about the attempted rebranding of Heritage Day as barbecue day and how the sound of the vuvuzela popularized during the FIFA 2010 Football World Cup helped legitimize its unofficial

African and South African heritage status This book makes a valuable contribution to the field of sensory studies and with its focus on aesthetics and material culture is in sync with the broader material turn in the humanities At War with the Weather Howard C. Kunreuther, Erwann O. Michel-Kerjan, 2011-08-19 Innovative long term strategies for reducing vulnerability to large scale natural disasters and for providing financial support for disaster victims The United States and other nations are facing large scale risks at an accelerating rhythm In 2005 three major hurricanes Katrina Rita and Wilma made landfall along the U S Gulf Coast within a six week period The damage caused by these storms led to insurance reimbursements and federal disaster relief of more than 180 billion a record sum Today we are more vulnerable to catastrophic losses because of the increasing concentration of population and activities in high risk coastal regions of the country The question is not whether but when and how frequently future catastrophes will strike and the extent of damages they will cause Who should pay the costs associated with catastrophic losses suffered by homeowners in hazard prone areas In At War with the Weather Howard Kunreuther and Erwann Michel Kerjan with their colleagues deliver a groundbreaking analysis of how we currently mitigate insure against and finance recovery from natural disasters in the United States They offer innovative long term solutions for reducing losses and providing financial support for disaster victims that define a coherent strategy to assure sustainable recovery from future large scale disasters The amount of data collected and analyzed and innovations proposed make this the most comprehensive book written on these critical issues in the past thirty years

Shelter Blues Robert R. Desjarlais, 2011-09-16 Desjarlais shows us not anonymous faces of the homeless but real people While it is estimated that 25 percent or more of America's homeless are mentally ill their lives are largely unknown to us What must life be like for those who in addition to living on the street hear voices suffer paranoid delusions or have trouble thinking clearly or talking to others Shelter Blues is an innovative portrait of people residing in Boston's Station Street Shelter It examines the everyday lives of more than 40 homeless men and women both white and African American ranging in age from early 20s to mid 60s Based on a sixteen month study it draws readers into the personal worlds of these individuals and by addressing the intimacies of homelessness illness and abjection picks up where most scholarship and journalism stops Robert Desjarlais works against the grain of media representations of homelessness by showing us not anonymous stereotypes but individuals He draws on conversations as well as observations talking with and listening to shelter residents to understand how they relate to their environment to one another and to those entrusted with their care His book considers their lives in terms of a complex range of forces and helps us comprehend the linkages between culture illness personhood and political agency on the margins of contemporary American society Shelter Blues is unlike anything else ever written about homelessness It challenges social scientists and mental health professionals to rethink their approaches to human subjectivity and helps us all to better understand one of the most pressing problems of our time groundbreaking work Dr M Powell Lawton who died in January 2001 was arguably the most significant thinker researcher and practitioner in environment behavior studies within the field of gerontology The authors of Physical Environments and Aging represent three generations of internationally recognized researchers whose lives and work were greatly influenced by both Lawton the professional and Lawton the man This book presents their assessment of his contributions to environmental theory purpose built housing community study long term care settings and other related topics Many of the contributors also share personal anecdotes that illustrate how Lawton s professional visions were shaped by his remarkable intellect and personality Physical Environments and Aging examines many aspects of environmental gerontology including housing policy reform and home modification place therapy philosophic foundations of environment aging studies the future of theory practice and policy in the field the role of neighborhoods More than just an homage Physical Environments and Aging is also a practical guide to the field offering you tractable theory useful methods and measures and functional research overviews in the realms of everyday experience of older adults Telling Environmental Histories Katie Holmes, Heather Goodall, 2017-12-12 This collection explores the intersections of oral history and environmental history Oral history offers environmental historians the opportunity to understand the ways people s perceptions experiences and beliefs about environments change over time In turn the insights of environmental history challenge oral historians to think more critically about the ways an active more than human world shapes experiences and people The integration of these approaches enables us to more fully and critically understand the ways cultural and individual memory and experience shapes human interactions with the more than human world just as it enables us to identify the ways human memory identity and experience is moulded by the landscapes and environments in which people live and labour It includes contributions from Australia India the UK Canada and the USA Reckoning with Change in Yucatán Jason Ramsey, 2023-11-30 Reckoning with Change in Yucatán engages with how best to look upon and respond to change arguing that this debate is an important arena for negotiating local belonging and a force of transformation in its own right For residents of Chunchucmil a historic rural community in Yucatán Mexico history is anything but straightforward Living in what is both a defunct 19th century hacienda estate and a vibrant Catholic pilgrimage site Chunchucmil os reckon past present and future in radically different ways For example while some use the aging estate buildings to weave a history of economic decline and push for revitalization by hotel developers others highlight the growing fame of the Virgin of the Rosary in the attached church and vow to defend the site from developer interference By exploring how past and future are channeled through changing built environments landscapes sacred relics and legal documents this ethnographic study details how the politics of change provide Chunchucmil os with a common language for debating commitments to place and each another in the present Against Western notions of History as a relatively coherent account of change the book suggests we reframe it as an ongoing performance that is always fractured democratic and morally tinged Alliance Rises in the West Charlotte K.

Sunseri,2020-12 Alliance Rises in the West documents the experiences of a company town at a critical moment in the rise of working class consciousness in nineteenth century California Through archaeological research Charlotte K Sunseri overcomes the silence of the documentary record to re examine the mining frontier at Mono Mills a community of multiple ethnic and racial groups predominantly Chinese immigrants and Kutzadika Paiutes The rise of political economic and social alliances among workers symbolized solidarity and provided opportunity to effect change in this setting of unequal power Urban planning and neighborhood layout depict company structures of control and surveillance while household archaeology from ethnically distinct neighborhoods speaks to lived experiences and how working class identities emerged to crosscut ethnic and racial divides imposed in capitalism Mono Mills s Paiute and Chinese communities experienced exclusionary legislation and brutal treatment on the basis of racial prejudice but lived alongside and built community with European American laborers managers and merchants who were also on an economic periphery These experiences in Mono Mills and other nineteenth century company towns did not occur in a vacuum capitalists control and ideologies of race and class all doubled down as American workers used collective action to change the rules of the system In this rare in depth perspective close consideration of the ghost towns that dot the landscape of the West shows the haunting elements of capitalism and racial structures that characterized Gilded Age society and whose legacies endure to this day Workers Across the Americas Leon Fink,2011-04-13 The first major volume to place U S centered labor history in a transnational focus Workers Across the Americas collects the newest scholarship of Canadianist Caribbeanist and Latin American specialists as well as U S historians These essays highlight both the supra and sub national aspect of selected topics without neglecting nation states themselves as historical forces Indeed the transnational focus opens new avenues for understanding changes in the concepts policies and practice of states their interactions with each other and their populations and the ways in which the popular classes resist react and advance their interests What does this transnational turn encompass And what are its likely perils as well as promise as a framework for research and analysis To address these questions John French Julie Greene Neville Kirk Aviva Chomsky Dirk Hoerder and Vic Satzewich lead off the volume with critical commentaries on the project of transnational labor history Their responses offer a tour of explanations tensions and cautions in the evolution of a new arena of research and writing Thereafter Workers Across the Americas groups fifteen research essays around themes of labor and empire indigenous peoples and labor systems international feminism and reproductive labor labor recruitment and immigration control transnational labor politics and labor internationalism Topics range from military labor in the British Empire to coffee workers on the Guatemalan Mexican border to the role of the International Labor Organization in attempting to set common labor standards Leading scholars introduce each section and recommend further reading

Courtyard Housing and Cultural Sustainability Donia Zhang,2016-05-13 Cultural sustainability is a very important aspect of the overall sustainability framework and is regarded as the fourth pillar alongside the other three environmental economic and social sustainability However the concept is neither fully explored nor widely accepted or recognized This book elicits the interplay of nature culture architecture and theorizes the concept of cultural sustainability and culturally sustainable architecture It identifies four key themes in Chinese philosophy Harmony with Heaven Harmony with Earth Harmony with Humans and Harmony with Self along with Greek philosopher Aristotle s physics form space matter and time it sets them as criteria to evaluate the renewed and new courtyard housing projects constructed in China since the 1990s Using an innovative architectural and social science approach this book examines the political economic social and spatial factors that affect cultural sustainability Supported by a multiplicity of data including field surveys interviews with residents architects and planners time diaries drawings photos planning documents observation notes and real estate brochures the book proposes new courtyard garden house design strategies that promote healthy communities and human care for one another a concept that is universally applicable The volume is a first opportunity to take a holistic view to encompass eastern and western tangible and intangible cultures in the theorization of cultural sustainability and culturally sustainable architecture It is a comprehensive contribution to architectural theory The Making of Place and People in the Danish Metropolis Christian Sandbjerg Hansen,2021-04-05 This book investigates the sociohistorical making of place and people in Copenhagen from around 1900 to the present day Drawing inspiration from Pierre Bourdieu s sociology of social space and symbolic power and from Lo c Wacquant s hypothesis of advanced marginality and territorial stigmatisation the book explores the genesis and development of the notorious neighbourhood of Copenhagen North West As an extraordinary place the North West provides an illustrative case of Danish welfare and urban history that questions the epitome on inclusive Copenhagen Through detailed empirical analysis the book spotlights three angles and entanglements of the social history of this area of Copenhagen the production of socio spatial constructions and authoritative categorisations of the neighbourhood especially by the state and the media the local social pedagogical interventions and symbolic boundary drawings by welfare agencies in the neighbourhood and the residents subjective experiences of place social divisions and dis honour In this way The Making of Place and People in the Danish Metropolis analyses how social symbolical and spatial structures dynamically intertwine and contribute to the fashioning of divisions of inequality and marginality in the city over the course of some 125 years It will appeal to scholars of sociology urban studies and urban history with interests in social welfare Beyond Memory G. Uehling,2004-11-26 In the early morning hours of May 18 1944 the Russian army under orders from Stalin deported the entire Crimean Tatar population from their historical homeland Given only fifteen minutes to gather their belongings they were herded into cattle cars bound for Soviet Central Asia Although the official Soviet record was cleansed of this affair and the name of their ethnic group was erased from all records and official documents Crimean Tatars did not assimilate with other groups or disappear This is an ethnographic study of the negotiation of social memory and the role this had in the growth of a national repatriation movement among the Crimean Tatars It examines the recollections of the

Crimean Tatars the techniques by which they are produced and transmitted and the formation of a remarkably uniform social memory in light of their dispersion throughout Central Asia Through the lens of social memory the book covers not only the deportation and life in the diaspora but the process by which the children and grandchildren of the deportees returned and anchored themselves in the Crimean Peninsula a place they had never visited Sites of Memory Craig E.

Barton,2001-03 These essays explore the historic and contemporary effects of race upon the development of the built environment and examine the myths and realities of America's racial landscapes Its multi disciplinary approach identifies and interprets the black cultural landscape examining its visual spatial and ideological dimensions Back to the Roots Sara

Shostak,2021-05-14 Urban agriculture has become a critical domain for explorations of and challenges to the long standing and systemic inequalities that shape cities neighborhoods and the lives and life chances of their residents Back to the Roots describes how urban farmers and gardeners reckon with the cultural meanings and material legacies of the past as they seek to create more just and equitable futures California.
