Resistance Exile And Love:

Love in a Time of Hate Hanna Schott, 2017-06-13 Love in a Time of Hate tells the gripping tale of Magda and Andr Trocm the couple that transformed a small town in the mountains of southern France into a place of safety during the Holocaust At great risk to their own lives the Trocm s led efforts in Le Chambon sur Lignon to hide more than three thousand Jewish children and adults who were fleeing the Nazis In this astonishing story of courage romance and resistance learn what prompted Andr and Magda to risk everything for the sake of strangers who showed up at their door Building on the story told in Lest Innocent Blood Be Shed German journalist Hanna Schott portrays a vivid story of resisting evil and sheltering refugees with striking resonance for today Free downloadable study guide available here Journal of the Hellenic Diaspora ,1994 Dangerous Citizens Neni Panourgíá, 2009-08-25 This book simultaneously tells a story or rather stories and a history The stories are those of Greek Leftists as paradigmatic figures of abjection given that between 1929 and 1974 tens of thousands of Greek dissidents were detained and tortured in prisons places of exile and concentration camps They were sometimes held for decades in subhuman conditions of toil and deprivation The history is that of how the Greek Left was constituted by the Greek state as a zone of danger Legislation put in place in the early twentieth century postulated this zone Once the zone was created there was always the possibility which came to be a horrific reality after the Greek Civil War of 1946 to 1949 that the state would populate it with its own citizens Indeed the Greek state started to do so in 1929 by identifying ever increasing numbers of citizens as Leftists and persecuting them with means extending from indefinite detention to execution In a striking departure from conventional treatments Neni Panourgi places the Civil War in a larger historical context within ruptures that have marked Greek society for centuries She begins the story in 1929 when the Greek state set up numerous exile camps on isolated islands in the Greek archipelago The legal justification for these camps drew upon laws reaching back to 1871 originally directed at controlling brigands that allowed the death penalty for those accused and the banishment of their family members and anyone helping to conceal them She ends with the 2004 trial of the Revolutionary Organization 17 November Drawing on years of fieldwork Panourgi uses ethnographic interviews archival material unpublished personal narratives and memoirs of political prisoners and dissidents to piece together the various microhistories of a generation stories that reveal how the modern Greek citizen was created as a fraught political subject Her book does more than give voice to feelings and experiences suppressed for decades It establishes a history for the notion of indefinite detention that appeared as a legal innovation with the Bush administration Part of its roots Panourgi shows lie in the laboratory that Greece provided for neo colonialism after the Truman Doctrine and under the Marshall Plan Women Writers of Great Britain and Europe Katharina M. Aavang,2011 Based upon her own words this is the story of a unique individual whose deep love for her native country was overshadowed only by her compelling love for freedom Born with a pedigree of royalty reaching back to the Byzantine Empire and riches comparable to the American Rockerfellers this princess seemed destined to a life of pampered luxury and perhaps a noble charity Life however doesn t always follow the script especially someone with Catherine s character In Love With Freedom a sweeping story of one woman s remarkable lifetime of triumph and tragedy in the kaleidoscope of the twentieth century The story begins with a toddler snatched from her mother s bosom by her evil father and hidden for thirteen years in a series of orphanages a pawn in a high stakes game of ransom and revenge The plucky fearless and resourceful child at last escapes and crosses Europe eventually arriving in Romania on the Orient Express and is declared a princess but that is only the beginning of her journey Catherine learns to be a princess wife and mother through World War I the Depression and epidemics Yet it is World War II that is her defining moment Learn how this woman of less than five feet of stature stands up to the despicable Gestapo and the mighty Nazi Armies earns the moniker the Angel of Ploesti from the 1400 American POWs that are torn from the angry skies of Hitler s most heavily protected resource Romania s Catherine s oil fields and then survives the starvation pogroms and death of the Soviet liberation of Eastern Europe What can she do to escape the barbarism What can she do to help her country and all those oppressed by the horrors of Communism and dictatorships The answers are truly amazing and inspiring Eros and Thanatos. Love across Civilizations Alberto Castelli,2024-02-06 Eros and Thanatos is about the deadly nature of love It is remarkable that literary critics have paid so little attention to the combination between love and death in literature This book seeks to address this significant scholarly lacuna by exploring key literary texts of the last two hundred years as exemplary of a consistent tendency toward love and death Its emphasis on singular characters and close readings suggests the spectrum of an arbitrary dichotomy never fully resolved The existential discussion triggered by each plot is so intense that the erotic and the merely sexual seem inappropriate Indeed each writer chose to reduce it to the setting and background of a story that takes place elsewhere With this in mind the author intends to reflect love s paradoxical nature If love is triggered by beauty beauty can be immoral and love must die to preserve the illusion of beauty The Courage to Love: Principles and Practices of Self-Relations Psychotherapy Stephen Gilligan,1997-05-17 This is a book about how psychotherapy may be used to cultivate the courage and freedom to love In a time when love seems to be fading and hatred and despair rising it presents love as a skill and force that can heal and invigorate reconnect and guide calm and encourage In Gilligan s self relations approach psychotherapy is a conversation about competing differences When these differences are treated violently or indifferently problems arise solutions develop when the skills of love are practiced Those practical skills are described here with an emphasis on postconventional ethics Buddhist and aikido principles and ideas of human sponsorship William

Blake's Divine Love Joshua Schouten de Jel, 2024-03-15 Despite the fact that William Blake summarises the plot of Visions of the Daughters of Albion 1793 in just eight lines in the prefatory Argument there are several contentious moments in the poem which continue to cause debate Critics read Oothoon's call to Theotormon's eagles and her offer to catch girls of silver and gold as either evidence of her rape damaged psyche or confirmation of her selfless love which transcends her socio sexual state How do we reconcile the attack of Theotormon's eagles and the wanton play of the girls with Oothoon's articulate and highly sophisticated expressions of spiritual truth and free love In William Blake's Divine Love Visions of Oothoon Joshua Schouten de Jel explores the hermeneutical possibilities of Oothoon's self annihilation and the epistemological potential of her visual copulation by establishing an artistic and hagiographical heritage which informs the pictorial representation and poetic pronunciation of Oothoon's enlightened entelechy Working with Michelangelo's The Punishment of Tityus 1532 and Gian Lorenzo Bernini's Ecstasy of Saint Teresa 1647-51 Oothoon's ecstatic figuration reflects two iconographic traditions which framed by the linguistic tropes of divine love expressed within a female centred mystagogy reveal the soteriological significance of Oothoon's willing self sacrifice Leading a Church to Maturity in Love David R. Tomlinson, 2019-03-01 Church leaders frequently encounter tensions and conflict especially when facing change Building on extensive experience of leading churches at times of change Tomlinson shows how through critical theological reflection and modelling good practice church leaders can facilitate church life that is grounded and transformed by the love of God

Munro, 2012 Uncovers the story of how the politics of queer sexuality have played out in the struggle for multiracial democracy in South Africa Whose Love of Which Country? Balázs Trencsényi, Márton Zászkaliczky, 2010 The volume stemming from the long term cooperation of scholars working on East Central European intellectual history discusses the patterns of patriotic and national identification in the light of the multiplicity of levels of ethnic cultural and political allegiances characterizing this region in the early modern period

Love and Space in Contemporary African Diasporic Women's Writing Jennifer Leetsch, 2021-07-16 This book sets out to investigate how contemporary African diasporic women writers respond to the imbalances pressures and crises of twenty first century globalization by querying the boundaries between two separate conceptual domains love and space The study breaks new ground by systematically bringing together critical love studies with research into the cultures of migration diaspora and refuge Examining a notable tendency among current black feminist writers poets and performers to insist on the affective dimension of world making the book ponders strategies of reconfiguring postcolonial discourses Indeed the analyses of literary works and intermedia performances by Chimamanda Adichie Zadie Smith Helen Oyeyemi Shailja Patel and Warsan Shire reveal an urge of moving beyond a familiar insistence on processes of alienation or rupture and towards a new reparative emphasis on connection and intimacy to imagine possible inhabitable worlds
