Resisting Fiction The Novels Of Henry Handel Richardson:

Resisting Fiction Catherine Pratt,1999 Henry Handel Richardson is one of Australia s most distinguished writers This penetrating original study discusses her novels in relation to their historical cultural and intellectual context and is the first full length critical work to offer a sustained feminist interpretation of her work The Cambridge History of the Australian Novel

David Carter,2023-07-27 The Cambridge History of the Australian Novel is an authoritative volume on the Australian novel by more than forty experts in the field of Australian literary studies drawn from within Australia and abroad Essays cover a wide range of types of novel writing and publishing from the earliest colonial period through to the present day The international dimensions of publishing Australian fiction are also considered as are the changing contours of criticism of the novel in Australia Chapters examine colonial fiction women s writing Indigenous novels popular genre fiction historical fiction political novels and challenging novels on identity and belonging from recent decades not least the major rise of Indigenous novel writing Essays focus on specific periods of major change in Australian history or range broadly across themes and issues that have influenced fiction across many years and in many parts of the country Victorian Literary

Mesmerism ,2006-01-01 Victorian Literary Mesmerism examines the engagement between literature and mesmerism in Victorian writing Drawing on recent trends in interdisciplinary literary scholarship the essays collected here investigate the complex connections between scientific mesmerism its manifestations in the Victorian social and cultural world and the literary imagination Here for the first time the varied themes and contexts shaped by mesmeric practices are brought together in one volume Mesmerism s influence on phrenology medicine and mental health its interaction with the occult and with communication technologies the effects of mesmeric principles on gender and sexuality as well as on criminal behaviour are all set within the context of literary texts that interrogate and critique mesmerism s influence on the Victorians This volume will be of interest therefore to scholars of Victorian literature and the history of science as well as to those interested in cultural history with a focus on gender sexuality and sciences of the mind The Cambridge History of Australian

Literature Peter Pierce,2009-09-17 Draws on scholarship from leading figures in the field and spans Australian literary history from colonial origins indigenous and migrant literatures as well as representations of Asia and the Pacific and the role of literary culture in modern Australian society Witnessing the Past Sigrun Meinig,2004 Henry Handel Richardson

Michael Ackland,2004-06-29 This 2004 book is a complete biography of Henry Handel Richardson The Magic Phrase

Margaret Harris,2000 This is the first volume of essays by various hands on the work of the great Australian novelist

Christina Stead 1902 83 It provides an overview of Stead criticism including pioneering classic essays together with a selection from the burgeoning critical literature of the 1980s and 90s and several articles not previously published

Attuned to Alien Moonlight Dennis Haskell,2002 Bruce Dawe is Australia s most popular and widely studied poet This first full scale critical study of his poetry to date reveals a richly complex and varied poet Dennis Haskell argues that the widespread view of Dawe as a social satirist is limiting and that Dawe is a more imaginative and lyrical poet than he has been given credit for as the title Attuned to Alien Moonlight indicates Dawe's apparent topicality and ease of access hides deeper more mysterious and more Romantic elements in his work Haskell analyses well known and some quite unknown poems in order to build up a picture of Dawe's poetry as a whole and his chapters approach Dawe from some surprising perspectives for example in relation to Asia and as a love poet Aimed at both students of Dawe's work and the general literary reader the book places Dawe in the context of Australian poetry and cultural values and in relation to the larger traditions of poetry in English It includes a substantial bibliography and a comprehensive chronology Empire Girls Mandy Treagus, 2014-05-12

The dominant form of the nineteenth century novel was the Bildungsroman a story of an individual's development that came to speak more widely of the aspirations of nineteenth century British society Some of the most famous examples David Copperfield Great Expectations Jane Eyre validated the world from which they sprang in which even orphans could successfully make their way Empire Girls the colonial heroine comes of age is a critical examination of three novels by writers from different regions of the British Empire Olive Schreiner's The Story of An African Farm South Africa Sara Jeannette Duncan's A Daughter of Today Canada and Henry Handel Richardson's The Getting of Wisdom Australia All three novels commence as conventional Bildungsromane yet the plots of all diverge from the usual narrative structure as a result of both their colonial origins and the clash between their aspirational heroines and the plots available to them In an analysis including gender empire nation and race Empire Girls provides new critical perspectives on the ways in which this dominant narrative form performs very differently when taken out of its metropolitan setting The Journal of Commonwealth Literature, 2000 One number each year includes Annual bibliography of Commonwealth literature Real Relations

Susan Lever, 2000 Examines a century of realist fiction and challenges a contemporary feminist assumption that realist writers speak for patriarchal liberalism In the work of writers such as Henry Handel Richardson Christina Stead and Sally Morgan Susan Lever finds new perspectives on sex and fictional forms Henry Handel Richardson Vol 1 Probyn, Clive, Steele, Bruce, 2013-07-17 This three volume set marks the first time any Australian literary writer has had his/her correspondence published in its entirety The letters of Henry Handel Richardson were opened in March 1996 to unrestricted access but none of the letters may be published until this edition of the complete correspondence has been released At present there are approximately 1800 unpublished manuscript letters to and from HHR which form a correspondence between Australia England Germany Italy and the USA for the period 1874 to 1946 The letters shed much new light on HHR's biography her artistic methods her personal life her friendships and antagonisms her response to Australian readers and to expatriation and her efforts to maintain a literary life apart from her personal life They include HHR's earliest letter and trace her student days in Leipzig the publication of Maurice Guest The Getting of Wisdom The Fortunes of Richard Mahoney The End of a Childhood and The Young Cosima and her experience of life in wartime England Some of the most vivid letters

describe her schooldays the biographical context for The Getting of Wisdom her memories of the Australian bush her relationship with Vance and Nettie Palmer her meetings with Miles Franklin and her views on contemporary writing The letters to Mary Kernot provide constant linkages between life in England and Australia during the most formative period for modern Australian literature including the negotiations for HHR's Nobel Prize nomination The Cambridge Companion to the Australian Novel Nicholas Birns, Louis Klee, 2023-03-02 This book provides a clear lively and accessible guide to the complex histories and vital present of the Australian novel Essential Novelists - Henry Handel Richardson August Nemo, Henry Handel Richardson, 2019-09-12 Welcome to the Essential Novelists book series where we present to you the best works of remarkable authors For this book the literary critic August Nemo has chosen the two most important and meaningful novels of Henry Handel Richardson which are The Getting of Wisdom and Maurice Guest Henry Handel Richardson pseudonym of Ethel Florence Lindesay Robertson Australian novelist whose trilogy The Fortunes of Richard Mahony combining description of an Australian immigrant's life and work in the goldfields with a powerful character study is considered the crowning achievement of modern Australian fiction to that time Novels selected for this book The Getting of Wisdom Maurice Guest This is one of many books in the series Essential Novelists If you liked this book look for the other titles in the series we are sure you will like some of the authors Maurice Guest Henry Handel Richardson, 2015-10-20 Maurice Guest comes to Leipzig the music capital of Europe to realize his dream of becoming a great pianist However in its bohemian and heady atmosphere he encounters not exaltation and inspiration but coarseness greed and ambition For his muse he turns to Louise Dufrayer an exotic and languid pianist Louise has recently been deserted by her own obsessive love the resident composer and reigning genius Schilsky Now her capricious demands on Maurice's time and energy destroy whatever slight chance he may have had at distinguishing himself The more he slides in failure the more striking the contrast between him and the absent Schilsky who still holds first place in Louise's thoughts and feelings The degradation of their relationship runs its full course until jealousy and hatred are its only vital forms Maurice Guest was first published in 1908 Antonia White called it one of the greatest novels of the twentieth century As a study of the tragic power of desperate love it ranks in the great tradition of the European naturalist novel Skyhorse Publishing as well as our Arcade Yucca and Good Books imprints are proud to publish a broad range of books for readers interested in fiction novels novellas political and medical thrillers comedy satire historical fiction romance erotic and love stories mystery classic literature folklore and mythology literary classics including Shakespeare Dumas Wilde Cather and much more While not every title we publish becomes a New York Times bestseller or a national bestseller we are committed to books on subjects that are sometimes overlooked and to authors whose work might not otherwise find a home Henry Handel Richardson Vol 3 Edited By Clive Probyn and Bruce Steele, 2013-07-15 The publication of Henry Handel Richardson's correspondence is a major event in Australian scholarly publishing There are approximately fifteen hundred unpublished manuscript letters to and from HHR of which almost a thousand are in her own hand They form a correspondence between Australia England Germany Italy and the USA over a seventy year period 1874 to 1946 The letters shed new light on Henry Handel Richardson s biography her artistic methods her personal life her friendships and antagonisms her response to Australian readers and to expatriation and her rigorous efforts to maintain a literary life apart from her personal life The collection begins with HHR s earliest letter then traces her student days in Leipzig the publication of Maurice Guest The Getting of Wisdom The Fortunes of Richard Mahony The Young Cosima and The End of a Childhood and her struggle late in life with the stringencies of wartime England In this volume the widowed HHR moves to the Sussex village where she lived until her death The letters cover the publication of The End of a Childhood and Other Stories the ill fated The Young Cosima and her incomplete memoir Myself When Young War dominated the closing years of her life and she reported her experiences graphically to Mary Kernot She refused to leave her house even while the Battle of Britain was being fought in the skies above her The strain and deprivations of war weakened her When unable to write her companion and secretary Olga Roncoroni wrote for her and these letters are included Her last letter is a little pencilled note to Mary Kernot

Australian Books and Authors in the American Marketplace 1840s-1940s David Carter, Roger Osborne, 2018-07-02 Australian Books and Authors in the American Marketplace 1840s 1940s explores how Australian writers and their works were present in the United States before the mid twentieth century to a much greater degree than previously acknowledged Drawing on fresh archival research and combining the approaches of literary criticism print culture studies and book history David Carter and Roger Osborne demonstrate that Australian writing was transnational long before the contemporary period In mapping Australian literature s connections to British and US markets their research challenges established understandings of national imperial and world literatures Carter and Osborne examine how Australian authors editors and publishers engaged productively with their American counterparts and how American readers and reviewers responded to Australian works They consider the role played by British publishers and agents in taking Australian writing to America and how the international circulation of new literary genres created new opportunities for novelists to move between markets Some of these writers such as Christina Stead and Patrick White remain household names others who once enjoyed international fame such as Dale Collins and Alice Grant Rosman have been largely forgotten The story of their books in America reveals how culture commerce and copyright law interacted to create both opportunities and obstacles for Australian writers

Henry Handel Richardson Axel Clark, 1990 This book tells the stories of Henry Handel Richardson s youth and her parents marriage which provided the historical basis for her three major novels Maurice Guest The Getting of Wisdom and The Fortunes of Richard Mahony

The Cambridge Guide to Women's Writing in English Lorna Sage, 1999-09-30 This Guide aims to consolidate and epitomise the re reading of women s writing that has gone on in the last twenty five years This is an opportunity for stock taking a timely project when so much writing has been rediscovered reclaimed and republished There are entries on writers on individual texts and on general terms genres and movements all printed in a single alphabetical sequence The earliest written documents in medieval English the visionary writings of Julian of Norwich and Margery Kempe are covered in an historical and geographical sweep that takes us up to the present day The book reflects the spread of literacy the history of colonisation and the development of post colonial cultures using and changing the English language The entries are written by contributors from all the countries covered The result is a work of reference with a unique feeling for the vitality wealth and diversity of women s writing Australian Short Fiction Bruce Bennett,2002 In this first extended study of Australian short fiction Bruce Bennett adopts Christina Stead s metaphor of an ocean of story to suggest the universality of story telling and the marks it leaves for posterity Bennett s study stresses the range and depth of the short prose narrative in Australia
