Causes of Action Pascoe Pleasence, Great Britain: Legal Services Commission, Nigel Balmer, Legal Services Research Centre, Alexy Buck, 2006-03-23 Civil law provides a framework within which people conduct their daily lives and civil court cases often relate to problems that affect people's basic life opportunities and well-being. This is the 2nd edition of this publication which sets out the key findings of surveys conducted in England and Wales in 2001 and 2004, the most extensive of its kind so far undertaken to examine people's experiences of civil law problems including exploring social, economic and health consequences. Issues discussed include the links between the civil justice system, crime and social exclusion, the relatively infrequent use of formal legal processes and the obstacles that can prevent problems being resolved. Private Law in the 21st Century Kit Barker, Karen Fairweather, Ross Grantham, 2017-01-26. This book brings together a wide range of contributors from across the common law world to identify and debate the principal moral and systemic challenges facing private law in the remaining part of the twenty-first century. The various contributions identify serious problems relating to complexity and overload, threats to research and education, the law's unintelligibility, the unsatisfactory nature of the law reform process and a general lack of public engagement. They consider the respective future roles of statutes, codes and judge-made law in the form of both common law and equitable rules. They consider how best to organise the private law system internally and how to co-ordinate it externally with other public and economic systems, human rights, regulation, insurance markets and social security frameworks. They address the challenges for private law presented by new forms of technology and by modern demands for the protection of new and intangible forms of moral interest such as interests in privacy, vindication and personal choice. They also engage with the critical contemporary debates about access to and the privatisation of civil justice. The work is designed as a source of inspiration and reference for private lawyers as well as legislators, policy makers and students. Challenges to School Exclusion and Ann Blair, Karen Eden, Neville Harris, 2002-11-01. Permanent exclusion is the most severe sanction a school can impose on a child and the number of permanently excluded children is rising. Based on systematic observation of exclusion appeal panel hearings, Challenges to School Exclusion offers a unique insight into the appeal process. It focuses on mechanisms by which parents and children can challenge permanent exclusion, the law and current practice, the social context of exclusion, reforms of the appeal system made by the School Standards and Framework Act, the DfEE's latest guidance on pupil inclusion. Challenges to School Exclusion is the first study to examine permanent exclusion. The findings reveal serious deficiencies in the appeal system, including a frequent failure to deal fairly with excluded children. The text will be of particular interest to head teachers, local education authorities, school governors, education lawyers and education charities. Law, Reason and Emotion Mortimer Sellers (org.), Catherine Moore (org.), Vitor Medrado (org.), Volume II Special Workshops.
