Biography, 1973 Spiritual Wounds Síobhra Aiken, 2022-03-01 This book challenges the widespread scholarly and popular belief that the Irish Civil War 1922-1923 was followed by a traumatic silence. It achieves this by opening an alternative archive of published testimonies which were largely produced in the 1920s and 1930s; testimonies were written by pro and anti-treaty men and women in both English and Irish. Nearly all have eluded sustained scholarly attention to date. However, the act of smuggling private painful experience into the public realm, especially when it challenged official memory-making or even forgetting, demanded the cautious deployment of self-protective narrative strategies. As a result, many testimonies from the Irish Civil War emerge in non-conventional, hybridised and fictionalised forms of life-writing. This book re-introduces a number of these testimonies into public debate. It considers contemporary understandings of mental illness and how a number of veterans, both men and women, self-consciously engaged in projects of therapeutic writing as a means to heal the spiritual wounds of civil war. It also outlines the prevalence of literary representations of revolutionary sexual violence, challenging the assumptions that sexual violence during the Irish revolution was either rare or hidden. Encyclopedia of World Biography, 1998 Presents brief biographical sketches which provide vital statistics as well as information on the importance of the person listed. Columbia Dictionary of Modern European Literature Jean Albert Bédé, William Benbow Edgerton, 1980 With more than 1800 critical entries on the writers and literatures of 33 languages, this work presents the entire range of modern European writing from the symbolist and modernist works rooted in the last decades of the nineteenth century through the avant-garde and existentialist movement to Barthes, Blanchot, Breton and continental thought pertinent today. Along with Youth Peter Griffin, 1987-05-28 In this compelling biography, Peter Griffin draws on a wealth of previously unpublished material, including numerous letters and five of Hemingway's early short stories that appear in their entirety, to trace the formative years of one of America's most celebrated and influential authors. Along with Youth examines in richer detail than any previous account Hemingway's midwestern childhood, his relations with his parents, his journalistic apprenticeship and his experiences as a Red Cross volunteer in Italy during World War I. It sheds new light on his wartime romance with Agnes von Kurowsky, his first love and a model for the character of Catherine Barkley in A Farewell to Arms, as well as on the circumstances surrounding his wounding and convalescence. It closes with Hemingway on the brink of the literary career that would bring him worldwide fame. The five short stories The Mercenaries, Crossroads, Portrait of an Idealist in Love, The Ash-Heel's Tendon, and The Current reveal that the Hemingway vision and style preceded the 1920s; his Paris years with Ezra Pound and Gertrude Stein. The book also contains many other newly uncovered documents, including letters written by Ernest to his closest friend Bill Horne before and after the Kurowsky love affair, which provide a rich new perspective on Hemingway's emotional development and his beginnings as a writer. Jack Hemingway, Ernest's son by his first wife Hadley Richardson, made his mother's complete correspondence available to Griffin and also contributed a foreword in which he writes: "Griffin has shown me insights into my own father's character and behavior I would not have thought possible."

in view of the time lapse between Hemingway's death and the research he accomplished This is the first installment of a projected three volume life which promises to be the definitive Hemingway biography for this generation
