Restoration The Twilight Of Humanism:

Restoration Lorenz Eitner,1970 Restoration - The Twilight of Humanism Lorenz Eitner,1970 Grandeur and Twilight of Radical Universalism Agnes Heller,2023-04-14 Grandeur and Twilight of Radical Universalism provides a theoretical construction to the extraordinary events of the past several years in Europe and the Soviet Union and China These masterful essays attribute much of the problem of totalitarianism to its blind acceptance of a Marxist philosophy of practice With the failure of communist practice the collapse of the Marxian paradigm was quick to follow At its roots this volume is a critique of the idea that we can have scientific knowledge of the social and political future Totalitarian Marxism combined statements of history and claims of omniscience Free choice was surrendered to history and when the predicted outcomes fail to materialize when communism came closer to being buried than capitalism and western ideals of democracy proved far more compelling than inherited doctrines of authoritarianism the outcome proved monumental and disastrous The authors position themselves as evolving from critical Marxism to post Marxism and then post modernism By this they mean a modest view of life one that moves beyond radical universalism and grand narrative into a realization of individualism and equity concerns are central to the end of the twentieth century The volume proceeds historically from studies of the classic Marxian legacy to the early twentieth century efforts of Lukacs Weber and Adorno proceeding to the disintegration of the Marxian paradigm in both its pure and revisionist forms It ends with a study of options posed by this paradigmatic collapse to consideration of the status of postmodernity and the choices between pure relativism and a theological fundamentalism This is a work of absolute importance for political philosophy the sociology of knowledge and the history of ideas In raising recent events to a theoretically meaningful framework it represents a refreshing as well as remarkable step toward understanding

Revolutions from 1789 to 1989 Art, Power and Modernity Gordon Fyfe,2001-01-01 How did the rise of metropolitan art institutions influence modernism and the modernisation of art in England This volume explores the artist as creator notions of class and taste and the power of institutions to affect creativity and artistic expression Topics discussed include the radicalism of engravers and how their claim to be artists is an important and neglected aspect of the nineteenth century art world and how the aesthetic dispute over the Chantrey Bequest epitomized conflicts of taste cultural independence and interdependence between opposed art institutions and the Treasury Artists in Exile Frauke Josenhans,Marijeta Bozovic,Joseph Leo Koerner,Megan R. Luke,2017-01-01 An unprecedented survey of artists in exile from the 19th century through the present day with notable attention to Asian Latin American African American and female artists This timely book offers a wide ranging and beautifully illustrated study of exiled artists from the 19th century through the present day with notable attention to individuals who have often been relegated to the margins of publications on exile in art history The artworks featured here including photography paintings drawings prints and sculpture present an expanded view of the conditions of exile forced or voluntary as an agent for both trauma and ingenuity The introduction outlines the history and perception of exile in art over the past 200 years and the book's four sections explore its aesthetic impact through the themes of home and mobility nostalgia transfer and adjustment and identity Essays and catalogue entries in each section showcase diverse artists including not only European ones like Jacques Louis David Paul Gauguin George Grosz and Kurt Schwitters but also female African American East Asian Latin American and Middle Eastern artists such as Elizabeth Catlett Harold Cousins Mona Hatoum Lotte Jacobi An My L Matta Ana Mendieta Abelardo Morell Mu Xin and Shirin Neshat The Intertwining of Aesthetics and Ethics Jadranka Skorin-Kapov, 2016-04-21 The Intertwining of Aesthetics and Ethics Exceeding of Expectations Ecstasy Sublimity analyzes the common experiential ground for both aesthetics and ethics by considering experiential environment both nature and art the precedents to desire the notion of experience incorporating a break and the reverberations of surprise leading to the intertwining of aesthetics and ethics Jadranka Skorin Kapov discusses different philosophical positions on the relationship between nature and art in conversation with Kant Hegel Goethe Gadamer and Adorno She argues that Kantian sublimity can carry over from nature to art As part of the discussions of expectations and authenticity the author interprets Husserl's view on expectations Heidegger's view on death and authenticity Blanchot's view on death and Arendt's view on natality As for understanding the aesthetic experience as the paradigmatic experience Skorin Kapov is informed by Dewey's work on art as experience Gadamer's work on experience of art and Jauss's work on the aesthetics of reception and the horizon of expectations After our sensibility and representational capability are broken recuperation then leads to sublimity and the subsequent feelings of admiration and or responsibility allowing for the intertwining of aesthetics and ethics Additionally elements of Kantian morality Foucault's ethics and Kierkegaard's work on interactions between aesthetics and ethics together help to characterize the relation between aesthetics and ethics Since we often encounter surprise due to unexpectedness in comedy Skorin Kapov also interprets philosophical views on the comedy and laughter including Aristotle Kierkegaard Meredith and Bergson using the theatrical work of Dario Fo as an example The novel analysis in The Intertwining of Aesthetics and Ethics will be of particular interest to students and scholars working or teaching in aesthetics phenomenology art history cultural studies and ethics Nine Letters on Landscape Painting Carl Gustav Carus, 2002 Carl Gustav Carus 1789-1869 court physician to the king of Saxony was a naturalist amateur painter and theoretician of landscape painting whose Nine Letters on Landscape Painting is an important document of early German romanticism and an elegant appeal for the integration of art and science Carus was inspired by and had contacts with the greatest German intellectuals of his day Carus prefaced his work with a letter from his correspondence with Johann Wolfgang von Goethe who was his primary mentor in both science and art His writings also reflect however the influence of the German natural philosopher Friedrich Wilhelm Joseph Schelling especially Schelling's notion of a world soul and the writings of the naturalist and explorer Alexander von Humboldt Carus played a role in the revolution in landscape painting taking place in Saxony around Caspar David Friedrich The first edition appears here in English for the first time Goethe in English Derek Glass, Martin H. Jones, 2005 This bibliography was commissioned by the English Goethe Society as a contribution to the celebration in 1999 of the 250th anniversary of Goethe's birth. It sets out to record translations of his works into English that have been published in the twentieth century up to and including material published in that anniversary year. It aims to serve as wide a constituency as possible, be it as a simple reference tool for tracing a translation of a given work or as a documentary source for specialized studies of Goethe reception in the English speaking world. The work records publications during the century, not merely translations that originated during this period. It includes numerous reprintings of older material as well as some belated first publications of translations from the nineteenth century. It shows how frequent and how long enduring was the recourse of publishers and anthologists to a Goethe Victorian in diction, a signal factor in perceptions and misperceptions. Derek Glass was putting the finishing touches to the bibliography at the time of his sudden death in March 2004. Colleagues at Kings College London have edited the final manuscript which is now published jointly by the English Goethe Society and the Modern Humanities Research Association both as a worthy commemoration of Goethe's anniversary and as a tribute to Derek himself.

Machine in the Studio Caroline A. Jones, 1996 Drawing on extensive interviews with artists and their assistants as well as close readings of artworks, Jones explains that much of the major work of the 1960s was compelling precisely because it was mainstream, central to the visual and economic culture of its time.

The Recovery of Rhetoric Richard H. Roberts, James M. M. Good, 1993

Twilight of Jewish Philosophy Wright, Dr Tamra Wright, 2013-12-19 First Published in 1999 Emmanuel Levinas 1906-1995 is widely acknowledged to be one of the great Jewish thinkers of the 20th century. This book explores the relationship between Levinas' ethical philosophy and his understanding of Judaism. Through close readings of his major texts, the significance of key terms in Levinas' work is clarified.

The Twilight of Equality Lisa Duggan, 2004-10-11 By now we've all heard about the shocking redistribution of wealth that's occurred during the last thirty years and particularly during the last decade. But economic changes like this don't occur in a vacuum; they're always linked to politics. The Twilight of Equality searches out these links through an analysis of the politics of the 1990s, the decade when neoliberalism, free market economics, became gospel. After a brilliant historical examination of how racial and gender inequities were woven into the very theoretical underpinnings of the neoliberal model of the state, Duggan shows how these inequities play out today. In a series of political case studies, Duggan reveals how neoliberal goals have been pursued, demonstrating that progressive arguments that separate identity politics and economic policy, cultural politics and affairs of state can only fail. Ultimately, The Twilight of Equality not only reveals how the highly successful rhetorical maneuvers of neoliberalism have functioned, but more importantly, it shows a way to revitalize and unify progressive politics in the U.S. today.
