Resurgent Islam Philip W. Sutton, Stephen Vertigans, 2005-11-11 With a glossary and a bibliography Resurgent Islam and America David Goldmann, 2010-04 Will America wake up to the threat of radical Islam in time Join Goldmann in a thoughtful analysis of Resurgent Islam's continued war against America He will explore issues such as We need to treat terrorists as soldiers in a war and not criminals The Quran says that Jews start wars and are the greatest enemies of Islam President Ahmadinejad of Iran believes the destruction of Israel will trigger the appearance of the Mahdi and that he has a personal role in bringing this to pass Both Muslims and Christians teach that Jesus is coming again They embrace varying views of his coming His extensive experience in the Muslim world his intensive study of their society and faith and his compassion for the Muslim people qualify David Goldmann to write this valuable book If you seek a better understanding of your new neighbors and of the latest news reports reading this book is the place to start WARREN W WIERSBE author and conference speaker David Goldmann is an authentic follower of Christ with a great love for the Muslim people and a profound knowledge of Islam I have pastored for over forty years and this book has given me a better understanding than any other book on the various forms of Islam and its concept on Jihad The way David relates the challenge of Militant Islam to the end times is Biblically sound DARREL GABBARD senior pastor of Dublin Baptist Church Dublin OH DAVID GOLDMANN spent 24 years ministering among Muslims in North Africa He conducts seminars on the Challenge of Islam He has authored Islam and The Bible Why Two Faiths Collide Voices of Resurgent Islam John L. Esposito, 1983 Essays discuss Islamic identity influential Islamic leaders and reasons for the revitalization of Islam in the Middle East Intellectual Origins of Islamic Resurgence in the Modern Arab World Ibrahim M. Abu-Rabi?, 1996-01-01 A systematic treatment of the religious intellectual cultural and social foundations of the Islamic resurgence in the modern Arab world that is grounded in the larger context of Arab and Islamic intellectual history Toward an Islamic Reformation Abdullahi Ahmed An Na'im, 2019-01-31 Toward an Islamic Reformation is an ambitious attempt to modernize Islamic law calling for reform of the historical formulations of Islamic law commonly known as Shari'a that is perceived by many Muslims to be part of the Islamic faith As a Muslim Abdullahi Ahmed An Na'im is sensitive to and appreciative of the delicate relationship between Islam as a religion and Islamic law Nevertheless he considers that the questions raised here must be resolved if the public law of Islam is to be implemented today An Na'im draws upon the teachings and writings of Sudanese reformer Mahmoud Mohamed Taha to provide what some have called the intellectual foundations for a total reinterpretation of the nature and meaning of Islamic public law The Failure of Political Islam Olivier Roy, 1994 For many Westerners ours seems to be the era of the Islamic threat with radical Muslims everywhere on the rise and on the march remaking societies and altering the landscape of contemporary politics In a powerful corrective to this view the French political philosopher Olivier Roy presents an entirely different verdict political Islam is a failure Even if Islamic fundamentalists take power in countries like Algeria they will be unable to reshape economics and politics and in the name of Islamic universalism will express no more than nationalism or an even narrower agenda Despite all the rhetoric about an Islamic way an Islamic economy and an Islamic state the realities of the Muslim world remain essentially unchanged Islamic Resurgence in South Africa Abdulkader Tayob,1995

Resurgent Islam and the Politics of Identity Ali A. Mazrui,2014-10-16 One of the most important functions of religion is to serve as a basis of identity This collection of essays by Ali A Mazrui a distinguished scholar of Islam discusses how Islam differentiates Muslims from non Muslims and affects how Muslims view each other In the light of the upheaval currently occurring in the Muslim world this collection provides readers with valuable context for the challenges of modernity and multiculturalism faced by Muslims In these essays Mazrui deploys his formidable knowledge of theology history and Muslim societies to analyze the theological historical and political influences on Muslim identity In his usual style of comparative analysis Mazrui draws most frequently in these essays from examples in Africa the Middle East South Asia and Muslim communities in the West These essays delve into the complexities of Muslim identity and stratification and provide contributions to key debates on modern Islamic political ideology These essays will be of interest to readers engaged with Islam religion culture comparative politics and international relations The Politics of Islamic Reassertion (RLE Politics of Islam) Mohammed Ayoob,2014-03-26 The Iranian Revolution has catalysed the preconceptions holding sway in the Western World about the character of Islam and its politics based as they are on a mixture of imagined cultural superiority and a latent fear of a resurgence similar to the Arab conquests of the seventh and eighth centuries of the long Ottoman domination of Eastern Europe This book constitutes a counterweight to such monolithic perceptions of Islam It surveys the nature of opinion and of government in the larger Muslim regions of the world and the position of Muslims in states where they are not the dominant population Each contributor expresses his own assessment of the regional data and the editor's concluding chapter draws together the threads of a work which will form an important contribution to international understanding and a first breach in the Green Curtain dividing East and West First published in 1981 Religious Resurgence Richard T. Antoun,Mary Elaine Hegland,1987 Islam in Perspective (RLE Politics of Islam) Patrick Bannerman,2013-06-03 There has been a significant upsurge of western interest in the political manifestations and significance of Islam in the last decade fuelled by the notion of Islamic revival the Iranian revolution and by events in countries as diverse as Egypt Pakistan and Sudan Oil power and its effect on the international economic order the relationship of Muslim countries with the superpowers and the continuation of the Arab Israeli conflict have also served to focus attention on Islamic politics and in particular on the notion of Islamic reassertion As the author of this book argues one result of this interest has been the development of a view of Islam as monolithic and implacable He takes a broad view of the intellectual and cultural history of Islam emphasising the extraordinary diversity of Islamic societies and the ways in which the ideal is often pragmatically adapted to reality In this wider social and historical context the nature of Islamic revival is then reassessed First published in 1988 The Resurgence of Religion David S. Zeidan, 2018-11-13 This book is a comparative study of basic themes in Christian and Islamic fundamentalist discourses analyzing and comparing texts from a wide variety of fundamentalist leaders and movements looking for family resemblances and significant differences in order to better understand the contemporary phenomenon of religious resurgence After placing fundamentalisms in a theoretical framework the study looks at selected themes important to fundamentalists noting resemblances and differences These themes include their anti secularist stance their theocentric worldviews their reliance on inerrant sacred scriptures and their attitudes to politics government state and democracy The study also looks at the fundamentalist view of the world as a perennial battlefield between the forces of good and those of evil in the realm of ideologies as well as politics and the legitimation of violence The Muslim Resurgence in Ghana Since 1950 Nathan Samwini, 2006 This volume examines the place of Islam in Ghanaian society with particular attention to the role of the dominant orthodox Tijnyiya tradition and its relation to newer groups which have become increasingly prominent since 1950 These are characterized as part of a Muslim resurgence The two groups given particular attention are the Ahmadiyya Muslim Mission Amm and the Ahlus Sunna wal Jama a Nathan Samwini holds a doctoral degree in philosophy from the University of Birmingham UK and is ordained minister of the Methodist Church in Ghana Malay Muslims Robert Day McAmis, 2002-07-09 McAmis also gives attention to the history of their relationship with Christians a history that is key to understanding the current state of religious and social life in places like Indonesia Malaysia and the Philippines Since Muslims and Christians together comprise ninety four percent of the Malay population peaceful interaction and cooperation between mosque and church are crucial to realizing the economic and political goals of the entire region

Jihad for Jerusalem M.A. Khan, 2004-10-30 Jihad for Jerusalem explores the agent structure dynamics in world politics and advances a constructivist theory of choice that explains the role of identity culture religion and other core values in international politics The struggle for Jerusalem by Iran Saudi Arabia Jordan and Israel is the empirical space where the dynamics between reason and identity values and strategies is explored Jihad for Jerusalem advances a theory of agency in international politics This theory of agency is based on a reconstituted constructivist paradigm The theory is tested by an examination of the foreign policy decision making of Iran Israel Jordan and Saudi Arabia towards Israel from 1967 1997 The book uses the foreign policy of these states as cases to test the tension between religion and rationality between identity and reason between power and morality and advances a constructivist theory of choice that explains the importance of the role of culture religion identity and core values in international politics Anyone interested in international relations theory and the convoluted politics of the Middle East will find this book intriguing reading Islamic Revivalism Jan A. Ali, 2012-06 Contemporary Islamic revivalism is a multi dimensional and multi faceted phenomenon This book explores this phenomenon through an ethnographic study of the world s largest Islamic revivalist movement the Tabligh Jama at Convey message of Islam Group The basic contention of the book is that contemporary Islamic revivalism is a defensive reaction to the crisis of modernity yet it is neither anti modernity nor does it seek modernity's destruction. Rather it highlights that Muslims are in a crisis. They face the threat of losing their faith and identity in modernity because according to the revivalist Muslims the true Islamic practice no longer constitutes the foundation of everyday Muslim living. To preclude this from reaching a point of no return, Islamic revivalist movements like the Tablighi Jamaat are engaged in encouraging Muslims to return to the true teachings of Islam and restoring the Islamic glory that once was the envy of the world. This volume highlights the veritable sectarian intensity with which Tablighis undertake this restorative work. Religious Resurgence and Politics in the Contemporary World Emile F. Sahliyah, 1990-01-01. This book examines the highly politicized religious groups and movements that have surfaced since the late 1970s in the United States, Central America, South Africa, the Philippines, India, and the Middle East. Sahliyah and others analyze this trend toward the politicization of religious conservatism and question a number of assumptions central to concepts of modernization. For example, it has been assumed by development theorists that the interrelated components of modernization would enhance the trend toward secularization of societies. This book shows that in many societies today religious revivalism and fundamentalism seem to be direct products of modernization. A global comparative approach is utilized to formulate general explanations for religious revivalism and its implications for modernization, development, and politics. Living at the Crossroads Michael W. Goheen, Craig G. Bartholomew, 2008-11-01. How can Christians live faithfully at the crossroads of the story of Scripture and postmodern culture? In Living at the Crossroads, authors Michael Goheen and Craig Bartholomew explore this question as they provide a general introduction to Christian worldview. Ideal for both students and lay readers, Living at the Crossroads lays out a brief summary of the biblical story and the most fundamental beliefs of Scripture. The book tells the story of Western culture from the classical period to postmodernity. The authors then provide an analysis of how Christians live in the tension that exists at the intersection of the biblical and cultural stories, exploring the important implications in key areas of life such as education, scholarship, economics, politics, and church. Islam and Dissent in Postrevolutionary Iran Behrooz Ghamari-Tabrizi, 2008-04-08. The Islamic Republic of Iran came into being in 1979, the result of a radical revolution that overhauled not only the foundations of Iranian society, religion, and politics but also our understanding of the role of religion in modern government. Here Behrooz Ghamari-Tabrizi takes us on an enlightening journey showing that contrary to widespread assumptions, the Iranian revolution opened up the public sphere to competing interpretations of Islam with profound consequences for the nature of democratic reform. Ghamari-Tabrizi sheds new light on the contingencies within which the new regime evolved and traces the steps by which the clerical establishment sought to consolidate power during the immediate postrevolutionary period. Contrary to the received view, he argues that the ruling class failed to institute a theocratic regime and more significantly unintentionally established the grounds for civic challenges to government policies underwritten by official interpretations of Islam. Far from being the exclusive preserve of high-ranking seminarians, interpretations of doctrinal Islam in contemporary Iran now form a contested varied and negotiated discourse in which lay theologians intellectuals lawyers and social activists are active and influential interlocutors Against the background of this unexpected development Ghamari Tabrizi addresses the early and late works of Abdolkarim Soroush an Iranian philosopher who has become one of the most influential Muslim intellectuals in recent years a leading force behind Iran's pro democracy movement and vocal critic of the state Through a close reading of Soroush's evolving ideas and of the works of Ali Shari'ati and by tracing the links between Muslim intellectual critique and the realpolitik of postrevolutionary power struggles Ghamari Tabrizi offers nothing less than a pathbreaking reassessment of the Iranian revolution In so doing he demonstrates how democratic transformation in Muslim societies has taken place by means of a public engagement with the teachings of Islam and highlights a most significant if unintended consequences of the Iranian revolution namely the secularization of Islam Drawing on a wealth of sources and with powerful insights Islam and Dissent is essential for an understanding of the Muslim world today and of the new relationships between religion culture and political power visible across the globe
