Retelling Tales Essays In Honor Of Russell Peck:

Retelling Tales Alan Lupack, Thomas G. Hahn, 1997 Essays exploring the reshaping of traditional narratives through an examination of a variety of specific tales A Companion to the Fairy Tale Hilda Roderick Ellis Davidson, Anna

Chaudhri, 2003 This title discusses the characteristics of the traditional fairy tale in Europe and North America and various theories of its development and interpretation Folktales of the Jews, V. 3 (Tales from Arab Lands) Dan Ben

Amos, 2011-05-01 Thanks to these generous donors for making the publication of the books in this series possible Lloyd E Cotsen The Maurice Amado Foundation National Endowment for the Humanities and the National Foundation for Jewish Culture Tales from Arab Lands presents tales from North Africa Yemen Lebanon Syria and Iraq in the latest volume of the most important collection of Jewish folktales ever published This is the third book in the multi volume series in the tradition of Louis Ginzberg s timeless classic Legends of the Jews The tales here and the others in this series have been selected from the Israel Folktale Archives IFA named in Honor of Dov Noy at The University of Haifa a treasure house of Jewish lore that has remained largely unavailable to the entire world until now Since the creation of the State of Israel the IFA has collected more than 20 000 tales from newly arrived immigrants long lost stories shared by their families from around the world The tales come from the major ethno linguistic communities of the Jewish world and are representative of a wide variety of subjects and motifs especially rich in Jewish content and context Each of the tales is accompanied by in depth commentary that explains the tale s cultural historical and literary background and its similarity to other tales in the IFA collection and extensive scholarly notes There is also an introduction that describes the culture and its folk narrative tradition a world map of the areas covered illustrations biographies of the collectors and narrators tale type and motif indexes a subject index and a comprehensive bibliography Until the establishment of the IFA we had had only limited access to the wide range of Jewish folk narratives Even in Israel the gathering place of the most wide ranging cross section of world Jewry these folktales have remained largely unknown Many of the communities no longer exist as cohesive societies in their representative lands the Holocaust migration and changes in living styles have made the continuation of these tales impossible This series is a monument to a rich but vanishing oral tradition This series is a monument to a rich but vanishing oral tradition A Companion to Arthurian Literature Helen Fulton, 2012-01-30 This Companion offers a chronological sweep of the canon of Arthurian literature from its earliest beginnings to the contemporary manifestations of Arthur found in film and electronic media Part of the popular series Blackwell Companions to Literature and Culture this expansive volume enables a fundamental understanding of Arthurian literature and explores why it is still integral to contemporary culture Offers a comprehensive survey from the earliest to the most recent works Features an impressive range of well known international contributors Examines contemporary additions to the Arthurian canon including film and computer games Underscores an understanding of Arthurian literature as fundamental to western literary tradition Arthurian Studies in Honour of P.J.C.

Field Bonnie Wheeler, 2004 Studies range over the whole field of Arthurian literature in Europe and North America with special focus on Malory and Morte Darthur A Companion to Gower Siân Echard, 2004 An introduction to Gower and his work focusing on his sources historical context and literary tradition special attention is paid to Confessio Amantis The Routledge Research Companion to John Gower Ana Saez-Hidalgo, Brian Gastle, R.F. Yeager, 2017-03-31 The Routledge Research Companion to John Gower reviews the most current scholarship on the late medieval poet and opens doors purposefully to research areas of the future It is divided into three parts The first part Working theories medieval and modern is devoted to the main theoretical aspects that frame Gower's work ranging from his use of medieval law rhetoric theology and religious attitudes to approaches incorporating gender and queer studies The second part Things and places material cultures examines the cultural locations of the author not only from geographical and political perspectives or in scientific and economic context but also in the transmission of his poetry through the materiality of the text and its reception Polyvocality text and language the third part focuses on Gower's trilingualism his approach to history and narratological and intertextual aspects of his works The Routledge Research Companion to John Gower is an essential resource for scholars and students of Gower and of Middle English literature history and culture generally Later Middle English Literature, Materiality, and Culture Brian Gastle, Erick Kelemen, 2018-04-12 The essays in this volume consider the ways in which material and intellectual culture both shaped and were shaped by the literature of late medieval England The first section Textual Material reflects on cultural and social issues generally referred to as the History of Ideas and how those ideas manifest in later medieval English texts Essays address for example affect in The Book of Margery Kempe rhetoric in Sir Gawain and the Green Knight anarchy in late medieval political texts and temporality in Gower's Confessio Amantis The essays in the second section Material Texts examine physical objects from pilgrim badges to manuscripts to money to early printed editions and the cultural behaviors associated with them interpreting these objects and exploring their connections to the important literary and political texts of the age such as Piers Plowman Lydgate's Troy Book and Chaucer's Canterbury Tales All of the essays in this collection emerge from the relationships and connections between the issues that characterize Jim Dean's work the cultural material and aesthetic aspects of later medieval English literature So too do they reflect a movement in medieval literary studies presaged by Dean's career of scholarship and teaching that critical approaches to literary texts are best undertaken with an understanding of the complex cultural and historical milieu that defines both the production of those texts and the production of our own work on those texts Nine Medieval Romances of Magic Marijane Osborn, 2010-03-05 In this book Marijane Osborn translates into modern English nine lively medieval verse romances in a form that both reflects the original and makes the romances inviting to a modern audience All nine tales contain elements of magic shapeshifters powerful fairies trees that are portals to another world and enchanted clothing and armor Many of the tales also feature powerful women characters while others include representations of Saracens The tales address issues of enduring interest and concern and also address sexuality agency and identity formation in unexpected ways

Confessio Amantis, Volume 1 John Gower, 2006-05-01 The complete text of John Gower's poem is a three volume edition including all Latin components with translations of this bilingual text and extensive glosses bibliography and explanatory notes Volume 1 contains the Prologue and Books 1 and 8 in effect the overall structure of Gower's poem Epic Ambitions in Modern Times Robert Crossley, 2022-08-16 Epic Ambitions in Modern Times explores how artists in varied genres and media have aimed for in Milton's phrase things unattempted yet in epic creation Starting with the last books of Paradise Lost as a farewell to the ancient tradition of epic and extending to an assessment of four twenty first century women writers retelling canonical epics in the voices of marginalized characters the book's intervening chapters consider epic in the forms of an epistolary novel a work of history a poetic autobiography an opera a silent film a series of paintings two literary fantasies three poems set in the future and a play Sacred and Profane in Chaucer and Late Medieval Literature Will Robins, 2010-01-01 Literary depictions of the sacred and the secular from the Middle Ages are representative of the era's widely held cultural understandings related to religion and the nature of lived experience Using late Medieval English literature including some of Chaucer's writings these essays do not try to define a secular realm distinct and separate from the divine or religious but instead analyze intersections of the sacred and the profane suggesting that these two categories are mutually constitutive rather than antithetical With essays by former students of John V Fleming the collection pays tribute to the Princeton University professor emeritus through wide ranging scholarship and literary criticism Including reflections on depictions of Bathsheba Troilus and Criseyde the Legend of Good Women Chaucer's Pardoner and Margery Kempe these essays focus on literature while ranging into history philosophy and the visual arts Taken together the work suggests that the domain of the sacred as perceived in the Middle Ages can variously be seen as having a hierarchical or a complementary relationship to the things of this world Notes and Queries, 2003 The Cambridge Companion to Literature and the Posthuman Bruce Clarke, Manuela Rossini, 2017 This book gathers diverse critical treatments from fifteen scholars of the posthuman and posthumanism together in a single volume Middle English Biblical Poetry Cathy Hume, 2021 A new analysis of the neglected genre of medieval Biblical poetry Medieval England had a thriving culture of rewriting the Bible in art drama and literature in Latin French and English Middle English biblical poetry was central to this culture and although these poems have suffered from critical neglect sometimes dismissed as mere paraphrase they are rich innovative and politically engaged Read in the same gentry and noble households as secular romance biblical poems borrow and adapt romance plots and motifs present romance inflected exotic settings and share similar concerns reputation order family and marriage This book explores six poems from the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries that retell episodes from the Old Testament the ballad like Iacob and Iosep two lives of Adam and Eve an alliterative version of the Susanna story the Pistel of Susan and the Gawain poet's Patience and Cleanness Each chapter identifies new sources and influences for the poems including from biblical glosses and manuscript illustration The book also investigates the poems relationships with contemporary cultures of literature and religion including with secular romance and offers new readings of each poem and its cultural functions showing how they bridge the chasm between medieval Christian England and the Jews and pagans of the pre Christian Mediterranean world It also considers reading contexts arguing that the poems and their manuscripts offer hints about the social class and gender of their household audiences Anxious Intellectuals John Michael, 2000-04-24 A critical examination of the complex role of intellectuals in contemporary society including the often contradictory definitions of such roles advocated by intellectuals themselves Disembodied Heads in Medieval and Early Modern Culture

Barbara Baert, Anita Traninger, Catrien Santing, 2013-07-18 Do heads excite a desire to chop them off a desire to decapitate and take a human life as anthropologists have suggested The contributors to this book are fascinated by disembodied heads which are pursued in their many medieval and early modern disguises and representations including the metaphorical They challenge the question why in medieval and early modern cultures the head was usually considered the most important part of the body a primacy only contested by the heart for religious reasons Carefully mapping beliefs mythologies and traditions concerning the head the result is an attempt to establish a cultural anatomy of the head which is relevant for cultural

Europe the word fama denoted both talk what was commonly said about a person or event and an individual s ensuing reputation one s fama Although talk by others was no doubt often feared it was also valued and even cultivated as a vehicle for shaping one s status People had to think about how to manage their fama which played an essential role in the medieval culture of appearances At the same time however institutions such as law courts and the church alarmed by the power of talk sought increasingly to regulate it Christian moral discourse literary and visual representation juristic manuals and court records reflected concern about talk This book s authors consider how talk was created and entered into memory They address such topics as fama s relation to secular law and the preoccupations of the church its impact on women s lives and its capacity to shape the concept of literary authorship Lollards and Their Influence in Late Medieval England Fiona

Somerset, Jill C. Havens, Derrick G. Pitard, 2003 Who were the Lollards What did Lollards believe What can the manuscript record of Lollard works teach us about the textual dissemination of Lollard beliefs and the audience for Lollard writings What did Lollards have in common with other reformist or dissident thinkers in late medieval England and how were their views distinctive These questions have been fundamental to the modern study of Lollardy also known as Wycliffism The essays in this book reveal their broader implications for the study of English literature and history through a series of closely focused studies that demonstrate the wide ranging influence of Lollard writings and ideas on later medieval English culture

Introductions to previous scholarship and an extensive Bibliography of printed resources for the study of Wyclif and Wycliffites provide an entry to scholarship for those new to the field Contributors DAVID AERS MARGARET ASTON HELEN BARR MISHTOONI BOSE LAWRENCE M CLOPPER ANDREW COLE RALPH HANNA III MAUREEN JURKOWSKI ANDREW LARSEN GEOFFREY H MARTIN WENDY SCASE FIONA SOMERSET EMILY STEINER FIONA SOMERSET is at Duke University Durham NC JILL C HAVENS is at Texas Christian University DERRICK G PITARD is at Slippery Rock University PA Metamorphosis Alison Keith, Stephen James Rupp, 2007
