Rethinking Our Story G. Douglas Hammack, 2014-01-13 If it ain't broke don't fix it But it's no secret that the Christian church is broke and does need fixing Despite great effort things are going badly for us We've tried trendy and tech savvy entrepreneurial and coffee house gritty They're not helping Our problem is deeper than that Our problem is our instincts instincts informed by our story There was a time when the Christian church was a powerfully transformative presence in society It can be again but it will require radical rethinking of the story that informs our instincts And it's time It's been five hundred years since the Reformation our last major update Today is a pivotal moment in history With our worldview upended by quantum physics history is demanding we renew the Christian story for our times Rethinking Our Story reframes the elements of the Christian narrative for the new era It explores quantum ways of thinking about God human nature Jesus salvation and the afterlife The future of the church and the health of our society depend on our willingness to rethink retell and live out a better story We will either update our instincts and contribute to the earth's well being or disappear into oblivion

Rethinking Our World Philip Higgs, J. Smith, 2004-05 Atheism and Love in the Modern Era Colby Dickinson, 2025-04-17 Discussing the decline of faith and the rise of love in the modern era Colby Dickinson proposes a critique of religious belief which addresses how a secular world can continue to mine religious traditions for their conceptual and emotional riches Atheism and Love in the Modern Era argues that theism and atheism taken together can peel back the layers of abstraction alienation and disillusionment that always accompany our humanity in order to help us really see how it is to exist in this world To illuminate this vision Dickinson takes up the notion of love as a cultivation and practice of indifference as a letting go of one's identity a crucial concept that unites both religion and atheism through a concerted effort to detach from them both The book is organized into four sections each situating the concept of love in relation to a distinct theme the first outlines modern secularized versions of various religious concepts such as technology in the place of miracles or art in the place of religious revelation The second argues that in a pluralistic world the actual lived realities of various religious communities and persons defy the static categories and classifications grouped under the umbrella of religion The third section discusses and defines non absolute love The fourth section discusses how atheism in its critiques of religion misses the significance of de centring the act of love Dickinson elaborates his reflections through lucid engagement with a variety of thinkers including i ek Agamben Irigaray Derrida Erich Fromm Charles Taylor and Philip Kitcher This is essential reading for those interested in popular debates around theism and atheism as well as those concerned with the ways in which continental and analytic philosophy have addressed the continued significance of religious traditions

Mindful Leadership Nikola Plohr, 2025-06-19. This book invites readers into a thought-provoking dialogue, fostering reflection and self-discovery. It offers a process designed for anyone eager to explore their inner world and personal patterns while remaining open to new perspectives in their interactions with others. Moving fluidly from introspection to action, it bridges theory with practice in a meaningful way. The first section, Inner Leadership, explores the rich possibilities of self-reflection, an essential element for contemporary leadership. Mindfulness, both as a practice and a concept, provides the space for inward exploration, helping us connect with our inner narratives, our unique responses to criticism and emotions, and the ongoing search for recognition. The second section shifts the focus to leadership within teams. Through the lens of Mindful Leadership, it delves into the complex web of interpersonal dynamics that shape not only our professional lives but our broader human relationships. Each chapter concludes with reflective questions and practical exercises, guiding readers to transform theoretical insights into actionable strategies.

Cultural Hijack Ben Parry, Sally Medlyn, Myriam Tahir, 2011-01-01. Working in cities from Liverpool and Glasgow to Paris and New York, the interventionist artist transforms ordinary urban spaces, disrupting everyday life in ways that reinvent the way we encounter and experience art and compelling people to act and think differently about the world around them. Providing incisive new insights into the work and life of the artist, Cultural Hijack examines how these artists use the city as a playground, a stage, or an instrument for unsanctioned artworks, informal creative practices, activist interventions, and political actions. Drawing on a series of essays, personal testimonies, and original interviews from artists such as Tatsuro Bashi, BGL Gelitin, Michael Rakowitz, and Krzysztof Wodiczko, this illuminating work enlarges our understanding of the creative process and how artists are developing new weapons in the arsenal of critical resistance, both emancipating and expanding the spaces of artistic and cultural production.

The Matter of Wonder Loriliai Biernacki, 2023. The current discourse of New Materialism seeks to chart a way of addressing our contemporary predicament around environmental destruction through reassessing our relationship and attitudes to matter. This book argues that the panentheism of the 11th-century Indian Hindu thinker Abhinavagupta offers a cogent philosophical model that gives us new ways of thinking about matter, which can help a contemporary New Materialist thought. What makes panentheism an attractive model for Abhinavagupta's philosophy is its Tantric impetus towards both the materiality of the world and the transcendence of divinity, proposing a philosophy that finds consciousness a subjectivity as and at the very core of matter With this Abhinavagupta s articulation of a foundational and encompassing subjectivity proposes a panentheist solution to a familiar conundrum one we still grapple with today that is how does consciousness which is so unlike matter how does it actually connect to the materiality of our world In familiar 21st century terms how does mind connect to body This book brings this question to bear in comparative fashion on contemporary issues our current concerns around what is sentient animals viruses artificial intelligence set in relation to Abhinavagupta s articulation of what gives rise to sentience via his use of the term vimar a our current conceptions of information as data articulated in juxtaposition to Abhinavagupta s theology of mantra mystic sound examining Abhinavagupta s use of wonder camatk ra as as a philosophical concept and how his cosmological system tattva underwrites his understanding of a foundational subjectivity
