America John Michael, 2008 From Thomas Jefferson to John Rawls justice has been at the center of America's self image and national creed At the same time for many of its peoples from African slaves and European immigrants to women and the poor the American experience has been defined by injustice oppression disenfranchisement violence and prejudice In Identity and the Failure of America John Michael explores the contradictions between a mythic national identity promising justice to all and the realities of a divided hierarchical and frequently iniquitous history and social order Through a series of insightful readings Michael analyzes such cultural moments as the epic dramatization of the tension between individual ambition and communal complicity in Moby Dick attempts to effect social change through sympathy in the novels of Lydia Marie Child and Harriet Beecher Stowe Ralph Waldo Emerson's antislavery activism and Frederick Douglass's long fight for racial equity and the divisive figures of John Brown and Nat Turner in American letters and memory Focusing on exemplary instances when the nature of the United States as an essentially conflicted nation turned to force Michael ultimately posits the development
