Rethinking the Novel/Film Debate Kamilla Elliott, 2003-08-07 Sample Text Rethinking the Novel/film Debate Rethinking the Novel/Film Debate ,2009 The relationship between books film is a key topic of cinema studies Much of this criticism however has been inherited from 18th century debates on poetry painting thus has fostered false limiting paradigms in which words pictures are opposed This text historicizes critiques the central paradigms Film Adaptation and Its Discontents Thomas Leitch, 2007-06-15 Most books on film adaptation the of this debate relation between films and their literary sources focus on a series of close one to one comparisons between specific films and canonical novels. This volume identifies and investigates a far wider array of problems posed by the process of adaptation Beginning with an examination of why adaptation study has so often supported the institution of literature rather than fostering the practice of literacy Thomas Leitch considers how the creators of short silent films attempted to give them the weight of literature what sorts of fidelity are possible in an adaptation of sacred scripture what it means for an adaptation to pose as an introduction to rather than a transcription of a literary classic and why and how some films have sought impossibly close fidelity to their sources After examining the surprisingly divergent fidelity claims made by three different kinds of canonical adaptations Leitch's analysis moves beyond literary sources to consider why a small number of adapters have risen to the status of auteurs and how illustrated books comic strips video games and true stories have been adapted to the screen The range of films studied from silent Shakespeare to Sherlock Holmes to The Lord of the Rings is as broad as the problems that come under review Adapting philosophy Catherine Constable, 2013-01-18 Adapting Philosophy looks at the ways in which The Matrix Trilogy adapts Jean Baudrillard's Simulacra and Simulation and in doing so creates its own distinctive philosophical position Where previous work in the field has presented the trilogy as a simple beginner s guide to philosophy this study offers a new methodology for inter relating philosophy and film texts focusing on the conceptual role played by imagery in both types of text This focus on the figurative enables a new found appreciation of the liveliness of philosophical writing and the multiple philosophical dimensions of Hollywood films The book opens with a critical overview of existing philosophical writing on The Matrix Trilogy and goes on to draw on adaptation theory and feminist philosophy in order to create a new methodology for interlinking philosophical and filmic texts Three chapters are devoted to detailed textual analyses of the films tracing the ways in which the imagery that dominates Baudrillard's writing is adapted and transformed by the trilogy's complex visuals and soundtrack The conclusion situates the methodology developed throughout the book in relation to other approaches currently emerging in the new field of Film Philosophy The book s multi disciplinary approach encompasses Philosophy Film Studies and Adaptation Theory and will be of interest to undergraduates and postgraduates studying these subjects It also forms part of the developing interdisciplinary field of Film Philosophy The detailed textual analyses of The Matrix Trilogy will also be of interest to anyone wishing to deepen their understanding of the multi faceted nature of this seminal work The Cambridge Companion to Literature on Screen Deborah Cartmell, Imelda Whelehan, 2007-05-10 A collection of essays covering many different aspects of literature on screen The Oxford Handbook of Adaptation Studies Thomas M. Leitch, 2017 This collection of forty new essays written by the leading scholars in adaptation studies and distinguished contributors from outside the field is the most comprehensive volume on adaptation ever published Written to appeal alike to specialists in adaptation scholars in allied fields and general readers it hearkens back to the foundations of adaptation studies a century and more ago surveys its ferment of activity over the past twenty years and looks forward to the future It considers the very different problems in adapting the classics from the Bible to Frankenstein to Philip Roth and the commons from online mashups and remixes to adult movies It surveys a dizzying range of adaptations around the world from Latin American telenovelas to Czech cinema from Hong Kong comics to Classics Illustrated from Bollywood to zombies and explores the ways media as different as radio opera popular song and videogames have handled adaptation Going still further it examines the relations between adaptation and such intertextual practices as translation illustration preguels seguels remakes intermediality and transmediality. The volume s contributors consider the similarities and differences between adaptation and history adaptation and performance adaptation and revision and textual and biological adaptation casting an appreciative but critical eye on the theory and practice of adaptation scholars and occasionally each other The Oxford Handbook of Adaptation Studies offers specific suggestions for how to read teach create and write about adaptations in order to prepare for a world in which adaptation already ubiquitous is likely to become ever more important Future Directions in Intermediality and Multimodality Signe Kjaer Jensen, Matilda Davidsson, 2025-07-11 This collection brings together leading scholars across disciplines to reflect on the relationship between intermediality and multimodality and future directions for the contemporary mediascape building on a 2022 Linnaeus University lecture series honouring the legacy of Lars Ellestr m following his untimely death in December 2021 The volume contributes to ongoing dialogues about media and society the challenges and opportunities for academia to engage with developments in the evolving mediascape and interdisciplinary pathways towards engaging with these questions Each chapter features an established figure in such fields as multimodality intermediality semiotics narratology art history and adaptation studies Each essay is prefaced with an introduction by the editors and bookended with a discussion transcribed from the original live presentations A concluding chapter looks ahead to future directions opening new lines of inquiry around the possibilities for intermediality and multimodality research towards continuing to build on Ellestr m s seminal work in the field This book will be of interest to scholars in multimodality intermediality and media and communication studies The Open Access version of this book available at http www taylorfrancis com has been made available under an Attribution Non Commercial No Derivative Licence CC BY NC ND 4 0 license Rewatching on the Point of the Cinematic Index Allen H. Redmon, 2022-08-24 Rewatching on the Point of the Cinematic Index offers a reassessment of the cinematic index as it sits at the intersection of film studies trauma studies and adaptation studies Author Allen H Redmon argues that far too often scholars imagine the cinematic index to be nothing more than an acknowledgment that the lens based camera captures and brings to the screen a reality that existed before the camera When cinema s indexicality is so narrowly defined the entire nature of film is called into question the moment film no longer relies on a lens based camera The presence of digital technologies seemingly strips cinema of its indexical standing This volume pushes for a broader understanding of the cinematic index by returning to the early discussions of the index in film studies and the more recent discussions of the index in other digital arts Bolstered by the insights these discussions can offer the volume looks to replace what might be best deemed a diminished concept of the cinematic index with a series of more complex cinematic indices the impoverished index the indefinite index the intertextual index and the imaginative index The central argument of this book is that these more complex indices encourage spectators to enter a process of ongoing adaptation of the reality they see on the screen and that it is on the point of these indices that the most significant instances of rewatching movies occur Examining such films as John Lee Hancock's Saving Mr Banks 2013 Richard Linklater's oeuvre Paul Greengrass's United 93 2006 Oliver Stone's World Trade Center 2006 Stephen Daldry's Extremely Loud and Incredibly Close 2011 and Christopher Nolan's Dunkirk 2017 Inception 2010 and Memento 2000 Redmon demonstrates that the cinematic index invites spectators to enter a process of Books and Beyond Kenneth Womack, 2008-10-30 There's a strong interest in reading for pleasure or ongoing adaptation self improvement in America as shown by the popularity of Harry Potter and book clubs including Oprah Winfrey s Although recent government reports show a decline in recreational reading the same reports show a strong correlation between interest in reading and academic acheivement This set provides a snapshot of the current state of popular American literature including various types and genres The volume presents alphabetically arranged entries on more than 70 diverse literary categories such as cyberpunk fantasy literature flash fiction GLBTQ literature graphic novels manga and anime and zines Each entry is written by an expert contributor and provides a definition of the genre an overview of its history a look at trends and themes a discussion of how the literary form engages contemporary issues a review of the genre's reception a discussion of authors and works and suggestions for further reading Sidebars provide fascinating details and the set closes with a selected general bibliography Reading in America for pleasure and knowledge continues to be popular even while other media compete for attention While students continue to read many of the standard classics new genres have emerged These have captured the attention of general readers and are also playing a critical role in the language arts classroom This book maps the state of popular literature and reading in America today including the growth of new genres such as cyberpunk zines flash fiction GLBTQ literature and other topics Each entry is written by an expert contributor and provides a definition of the genre an overview of its history a look at trends and themes a discussion of how the literary form engages contemporary issues a review of the genre's critical reception a discussion of authors and works and suggestions for further reading Sidebars provide fascinating details and the set closes with a selected general bibliography Students will find this book a valuable guide to what they re reading today and will appreciate its illumination of popular culture and contemporary social issues A Companion to Literature, Film, and Adaptation Deborah Cartmell, 2014-08-25 This is a comprehensive collection of original essays that explore the aesthetics economics and mechanics of movie adaptation from the days of silent cinema to contemporary franchise phenomena Featuring a range of theoretical approaches and chapters on the historical ideological and economic aspects of adaptation the volume reflects today s acceptance of intertextuality as a vital and progressive cultural force Incorporates new research in adaptation studies Features a chapter on the Harry Potter franchise as well as other contemporary perspectives Showcases work by leading Shakespeare adaptation scholars Explores fascinating topics such as unfilmable texts Includes detailed considerations of Ian McEwan's Atonement and Conrad's Heart of Darkness Authorship in Film Adaptation Jack Boozer, 2009-06-03 Authoring a film adaptation of a literary source not only requires a media conversion but also a transformation as a result of the differing dramatic demands of cinema The most critical central step in this transformation of a literary source to the screen is the writing of the screenplay The screenplay usually serves to recruit producers director and actors to attract capital investment and to give focus to the conception and production of the film project Often undergoing multiple revisions prior to production the screenplay represents the crucial decisions of writer and director that will determine how and to what end the film will imitate or depart from its original source Authorship in Film Adaptation is an accessible provocative text that opens up new areas of discussion on the central process of adaptation surrounding the screenplay and screenwriter director collaboration In contrast to narrow binary comparisons of literary source text and film the twelve essays in this collection also give attention to the underappreciated role of the screenplay and film pre production that can signal the primary intention for a film Divided into four parts this collection looks first at the role of Hollywood's activist producers and major auteurs such as Hitchcock and Kubrick as they worked with screenwriters to formulate their audio visual goals The second part offers case studies of Devil in a Blue Dress and The Sweet Hereafter for which the directors wrote their own adapted screenplays Considering the variety of writer director working relationships that are possible Part III focuses on adaptations that alter genre time and place and Part IV investigates adaptations that alter stories of romance sexuality and ethnicity Post-Conflict Institutional Design Abu Bakarr Bah, 2020-01-15 Since gaining independence from colonial rule most African countries have been struggling to build democratic and peaceful states While African multiparty politics may be viewed as a democratic system of governance in reality it is plagued by ethnic and regional political grievances that undermine meaningful democracy By examining post conflict institutional reforms in several African countries this book sheds light on the common causes of violent conflicts and how institutional design can affect the conditions for peace and democracy in Africa Focussing on conceptual and practical questions of designing ethnically and regionally inclusive state institutions and the way institutions are perceived by the citizenry Post Conflict Institutional Design addresses political autonomy and control over resources issues which are often key sources of ethnic and regional grievances Crucially it examines the meanings of institutional reforms as well ethnic and regional representation Adaptation Studies Jorgen Bruhn, Anne Gjelsvik, Eirik Frisvold Hanssen, 2013-05-09 Extending the boundaries of contemporary adaptation studies this book brings together leading international scholars to survey new directions in the field Re thinking the key questions at the heart of the discipline Adaptation Studies New Directions New Challenges explores a wide range of perspectives and case studies in cross media transformation Topics covered include The history of adaptation studies Theories of adaptation Adaptations in film literature radio and historical sources What is an original text The New Peplum Nicholas Diak, 2018-01-12 Peplum or sword and sandal films an Italian genre of the late 1950s through the 1960s featured ancient Greek Roman and Biblical stories with gladiators mythological monsters and legendary quests The new wave of historic epics known as neo pepla is distinctly different embracing new technologies and storytelling techniques to create an immersive experience unattainable in the earlier films This collection of new essays explores the neo peplum phenomenon through a range of topics including comic book adaptations like Hercules the expansion of genre boundaries in Jupiter Ascending and John Carter depictions of Romans and slaves in Spartacus and The Eagle and Centurion as metaphors for America's involvement in the Iraq War in Visual Culture Julie Grossman, R. Barton Palmer, 2017-12-06 This book gathers together essays written by leading scholars of adaptation studies to explore the full range of practices and issues currently of concern in the field The chapters demonstrate how content and messaging are shared across an increasing number of platforms whose interrelationships have become as intriguing as they are complex Recognizing that a signature feature of contemporary culture is the convergence of different forms of media the contributors of this book argue that adaptation studies has emerged as a key discipline that unlike traditional literary and art criticism is capable of identifying and analyzing the relations between source texts and adaptations created from them Adaptation scholars have come to understand that these relations not only play out in individual case histories but are also institutional and this collection shows how adaptation plays a key role in the functioning of cinema television art and print media The volume is essential reading for all those interested both in adaptation studies and also in the complex forms of intermediality that define contemporary culture in the 21st century The Silents of Jesus in the Cinema (1897-1927) David Shepherd, 2016-03-31 While Jesus has attracted the sporadic interest of film makers since the epics of the Sixties it is often forgotten that between the advent of motion pictures in the 1890s and the close of the silent era at the end of the 1920s some of the longest most expensive and most watched films on both sides of the Atlantic were focused on the Life and Passion of the Christ Drawing upon rarely seen archival footage and the work of both the era's most important directors e g Alice Guy Ferdinand Zecca Sidney Olcott D W Griffith Carl Dreyer and C B DeMille and others who have been all but forgotten this collection of essays offers a representative survey of the Silents of Jesus illustrating the ways in which the earliest films and those which followed were influenced by a multiplicity of factors Written by leading scholars in biblical and early film studies this collection explores the ways in which the Silents of Jesus were shaped not only by the performing and visual arts of the nineteenth century and the technological challenges and opportunities of a new medium and industry but also by the artistic theological and ideological predilections of studios and directors and the expectations of audiences as the genre evolved Taken together the essays collected here offer a seminal treatment of the genesis and early evolution of the cinematic Jesus Jane Austen's Textual Lives Kathryn Sutherland, 2005-10-06 Through three intertwined histories Jane Austen's Textual Lives offers a new way of approaching and reading a very familiar author One is a history of the transmission and transformation of Jane Austen through manuscripts critical editions biographies and adaptations a second provides a conspectus of the development of English Studies as a discipline in which the original and primary place of textual criticism is recovered and a third reviews the role of Oxford University Press in shaping a canon of English texts in the twentieth century Jane Austen can be discovered in all three Since her rise to celebrity status at the end of the nineteenth century Jane Austen has occupied a position within English speaking culture that is both popular and canonical accessible and complexly inaccessible fixed and certain yet wonderfully amenable to shifts of sensibility and cultural assumptions The implied contradiction was represented in the early twentieth century by on the one hand the Austen family's continued management censorship and sentimental marketing of the sweet lady novelist of the Hampshire countryside and on the other by R W Chapman s 1923 Clarendon Press edition of the Novels of Jane Austen which subjected her texts to the kind of scholarly probing reserved till then for classical Greek and Roman authors obscured by centuries of attrition It was to be almost fifty years before the Clarendon Press considered it necessary to recalibrate the reputation of another popular English novelist in this way Beginning with specific encounters with three kinds of textual work and the problems clues or challenges to interpretation they continue to present Kathryn Sutherland goes on to consider the absence of a satisfactory critical theory of biography that can help us address the partial life and ends with a discussion of the screen adaptations through which the texts continue to live on Throughout Jane Austen's textual identities provide a means to explore the wider issue of what text is and to argue the importance of understanding textual space as itself a Books in Motion, 2005-01-01 Books in powerful agent established only by recourse to further interpretations and fictions Motion addresses the hybrid interstitial field of film adaptation The introductory essay integrates a retrospective survey of the development of adaptation studies with a forceful argument about their centrality to any history of culture any discussion that is of the transformation and transmission of texts and meanings in and across cultures The thirteen especially composed essays that follow organised into four sections headed Paradoxes of Fidelity Authors Auteurs Adaptation Contexts Intertexts Adaptation and Beyond Adaptation variously illustrate that claim by problematising the notion of fidelity highlighting the role played by adaptation in relation to changing concepts of authorship and auteurism exploring the extent to which the intelligibility of film adaptations is dependent on contextual and intertextual factors and making a claim for the need to transcend any narrowly defined concept of adaptation in the study of adaptation Discussion ranges from adaptations of established classics like A Tale of Two Cities Frankenstein Henry V Le temps retrouv Mansfield Park Pride and Prejudice The Dead or Wuthering Heights to contemporary popular texts films like Bridget Jones s Diary Fools The Governess High Fidelity The Hours The Orchid Thief Adaptation the work of Doris D rrie the first Harry Potter novel film or the adaptations made by Alfred Hitchcock Stanley Kubrick and Walt Disney This book will appeal to both a specialised readership and to those The Cinematic Novel and Postmodern Pop Fiction accessing the dynamic field of adaptation studies for the first time Décio Torres Cruz, 2019-12-05 D cio Torres Cruz approaches connections between literature and cinema partly through issues of gender and identity and partly through issues of reality and representation In doing so he looks at the various ways in which people have thought of the so called cinematic novel tracing the development of that genre concept not only in the French cin roman and film scenarios but also in novels from the United States England France and Latin America The main tendency he identifies is the blending of the cinematic novel with pop literature through allusions to Pop Art and other postmodern cultural trends His prime exhibits are a number of novels by the Argentinian writer Manuel Puig Betrayed by Rita Hayworth Heartbreak Tango The Buenos Aires Affair Kiss of the Spider Woman and Pubis angelical Bringing in suggestive sociocultural and psychoanalytical considerations Cruz shows how in Puig s hands the cinematic novel resulted in a pop collage of different texts films discourses and narrative devices which fused reality and imagination into dream and desire
