Rethinking Language Arts Passion And Practice:

Rethinking Language Arts Nina Zaragoza, 2002 First Published in 2002 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Rethinking Language Arts Nina Zaragoza, 2013-12-02 In Rethinking Language Arts Passion and Practice Second Edition author Nina Zaragoza uses the form of letters to her students to engage pre service teachers in reevaluating teaching practices thus bringing to life a vision of an alternative classroom environment in which the teacher is the prime mover and creative leader Zaragoza discusses and explains the need for teachers to be decision makers reflective thinkers political beings and agents of social change in order to create a positive and inclusive classroom setting This book is both a critical text that deconstructs the way language arts are traditionally taught in our schools as well as a visionary text with clear no nonsense directions on how to provide much needed change in our schools Inner-City Schools,

Multiculturalism, and Teacher Education Frederick L. Yeo, 2013-04-03 Focusing on the causes for the continuing marginalization of minority children this book examines inner city education its teaching practices curricular rationales perspectives of teachers and students and the institutions themselves Pedagogy and the Politics of the Body Sherry Shapiro, 2005-07-05 Working within the relatively new perspective on the body as a zone of critical praxis Shapiro lays the foundation for the theory and practice of a somatically oriented critical pedagogy Educational Reform Douglas J. Simpson, Michael J. B. Jackson, 2023-07-28 First published in 1997 This book illuminates contemporary educational reform discussions regarding teacher education programs and pre K 12 schools by providing a clear analysis and application of John Dewey's relevant educational writings and ideas The volume addresses issues of how future teachers should be liberally educated as well as prepared to be professional educators Pre K 12 education is evaluated through a Deweyan lens involving a discussion of such topics as the teacher's responsibilities charter schools a common curriculum professional development schools new curricula school administration and cooperative learning In the concluding chapter the authors point out many of the questions and concerns that those who are interested in educational reform are well advised to ask and discuss

Freireian Pedagogy, Praxis, and Possibilities Stanley S. Steiner, H. Mark Krank, Robert E. Bahruth, Peter McLaren, 2004-11-23 Scholar activist and educator Paulo Freire was one of the first thinkers to fully appreciate the relationships between education politics imperialism and liberation This volume is a testament to the works of Paulo Freire in the field of Education as well as the life of the man a story of courage hardship perseverance and unyielding belief in the power of love In this comprehensive collection prominent intellectuals including Noam Chomsky and Donald Macedo reflect on Freire's politics of liberation and add important new dimensions to the revolutionary innovative ideas that Freire bequeathed to a generation much in need Cutting Class Joe L. Kincheloe, Shirley R. Steinberg, 2007-07-12 In these vivid thought provoking essays leading scholars draw from their own life experiences to explore the ways in which socio economic class has shaped their lives and educational practices Some experienced the sting of poverty as students while others tell stories of a privileged upbringing and moments of epiphany when they recognized the far reaching effects of class privilege Many in this volume tell stories of their successful and not so successful teaching experiences with students from various social classes providing valuable insights for teachers and other education professionals

Children's Books for Grown-Up Teachers Peter Appelbaum, 2017-09-25 Teachers and prospective teachers read children's books but that reading is often done as a teacher that is as planning for instruction rather than as a reader engaged with the text Children's Books for Grown Up Teachers models the kind of thinking about teaching and learning the sort of curriculum theorizing accomplished through teachers interactions with the everyday materials of teaching It starts with children's books branches out into other youth culture texts and subsequently to thinking about everyday life itself Texts of curriculum theory describe infrastructures that support the crafts of inquiry and learning and introduce a new vocabulary of poaching weirding dark matter and jazz At the heart of this book is a method of reading Each reader pulls idiosyncratic concepts from children's books and from everyday life Weaving these concepts into a discourse of curriculum theory is what makes the difference between going through the motions of teaching and designing educational experiences This book was awarded the 2009 AERA Division B Curriculum Studies Outstanding Book Award

Resources in Education, 1998

Steinberg, Joe L. Kincheloe, Patricia H. Hinchey, 1999 This volume argues that while twentieth century educational psychology has made important advances a time for reassessment has arrived Recent years have seen the rise of neo Vygotskian analysis and situated cognition within the discipline of cognitive psychology The authors of Post Formal Reade have picked up where these theories leave off to more fully develop the specific connections between the social and the psychological dimensions of learning theory and educational psychology Look, I Made a Book Nina Zaragoza, Eric Dwyer, 2005 What does it mean to have high expectations for five year old learners In one of the author s classrooms children are treated as authors as world citizens and as confident responsible community and family contributors Kindergartners publish their own stories and keep them on the same shelves as books from libraries and bookstores In addition to books these young students also produce their own plays thank you cards and math problems Zaragoza Dwyer and Brownie the class mascot invite new teachers along as they take one class of children through a month by month journey of authorship literacy development poetry positive interaction and imagination This book is appropriate for both undergraduate and graduate students of education early childhood and teachers of English language learners It can also be of value to scholars of constructivist and or critical theory Examining Science Teaching in Elementary School from the Perspective of a Teacher and Learner Margery Osborne, 2014-01-21 Osborne examines the way relationships between subject matter teacher and children are constructed in the context of teaching science in the lower elementary grades This is a study of how relationships evolve how they are initiated and how they change over time as the components interact and effect one another The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2009 Critical Art Pedagogy Richard Cary, 2012-11-12 First published in 1998 this work identifies the possibilities concepts needs and strategies for radical reform of traditional art education by resituating it within the postmodern paradigm It advocates continued research to inform theory and practice in art education providing detailed summaries of new methodologies such as semiotics and deconstruction It is clearly sectioned and easy to use which provides an ideal foundation for postmodern art education Becoming Multicultural Terry Ford,2014-01-21 This book argues that becoming multicultural is a process of recursive cycles that must involve confrontational dialogue for change Multicultural education texts often describe multiculturalism as a process where a person develops competencies of perceiving evaluating believing and doing in multiple ways However the dynamic fluid and changing qualities central to the process of interpersonal interaction often results in mastery of a product focusing on lists of static features of generalized groups rather than on the individuals who make up those groups Rather than listing and describing objectified features of cultural groups from a theoretical view this book details the interactions of 21 ethnically diverse individuals through one classroom experience First the personal histories and meanings constructed from lived experience are detailed and analyzed to reveal the ways in which personal identity constructions influence learning events in a singular classroom context Second from this analysis the author develops a conceptual model for the process of becoming multicultural Then the author applies the model to herself and describes specific ways in which interaction with these individuals has influenced her present teaching strategies for expecting and facilitating confrontational dialogue toward developing education that is multicultural Specifically the book addresses the questions 1 What does it mean to become multicultural 2 What does it mean to be culturally sensitive 3 How can the process of multiculturalism be facilitated in a classroom setting 4 What is the teacher s role in the multicultural classroom 5 What are some expected predictable outcomes of a multicultural classroom Includes bibliography and index Curriculum William Pinar,2014-01-21 This collection of essays by established writers in postmodern pedagogy stakes out new conceptual territories redefines the field and presents a complete review of contemporary curriculum practice and theory in a single volume Drawing upon contemporary research in political feminist theological literary and racial theory this anthology reformulates the research methodologies of the discipline and creates a new paradigm for the study of curriculum into the next century The contributors consider gender identity narrative and autobiography as vehicles for reviewing the current and future state of curriculum studies Special Features Presents new essays by established writers in postmodern pedagogy Reviews curriculum studies through the filters of race gender identity narrative and autobiography Offers in a single affordable volume a complete review of contemporary curriculum practice and theory Annual Meeting Program American Educational Research Association,2002 Flexible Grouping in Reading Michael F. Opitz,1998 Shows how to improve reading skills with customized reading groups Avid and reluctant readers alike will respond to groups that are formed according to skills and special teaching strategies for grades 2 8
