The Handbook of Community Practice Marie Weil, Michael S. Reisch, Mary L. Ohmer, 2013 Written by some of the most influential scholars in the field this Handbook covers community development organizing planning and social change as well as key issues fields of practice and global approaches

The Power of Us: The Art and Science of Enlightened Citizen Engagement and Collective Action Anita R. Estell, Esquire, 2013-07 Anita Estell has done it She has published an easy to read handbook that promises to transform our individual and collective understanding of the federal government how it really works and most important our own relevance in its operation The Power of US is a must have guide It provides instruction for those possessing the audacity to seize the opportunities unfolding during one of the most transformational periods in American history Estell shares insights experiences wisdom and expertise gained in more than twenty years of working at the federal level in a way that not only invites and supports constructive engagement but also sheds light on the way forward Estell provides an extraordinary panorama of information and instruction melding a multidisciplinary suite of principles that underscore and bring texture to what Estell calls citizen centrality or citizen centric engagement The Power of US provides a profoundly creative approach relevant to policymakers and advocates Estell's treatment is a breath of fresh air in civic discourse which can be stifled by stale approaches and potentially toxic hyperpartisan dynamics In The Power of US Estell establishes herself as a revolutionary thinker exhibiting the vision knowledge and personal power to move the compass of individual hope in the direction of collective freedom

Collaborating for Change Susan D. Greenbaum, Glenn Jacobs, Prentice Zinn, 2020-01-17 Across the U S immigrants laborers domestic workers low income tenants indigenous communities and people experiencing homelessness are conducting research to fight for justice Collaborating for Change A Participatory Action Research Casebook documents the stories of a dozen community based research projects Academics and their partners share authorship about the importance of gathering credible evidence both for organizing and persuading The emphasis is on community organizations involved in struggles for equality and justice Research projects directly engage community partners in all phases of the research process Finally the stories capture how the research changes the roles of researchers and those being researched The book is designed for students but also for community organizers social justice activists and their research allies it offers real stories and real projects that show how democratizing research supports social change and heightens our understanding of complex social issues

Youth-Led Community Organizing Melvin Delgado, Lee Staples, 2008 Youth led organizing is increasingly receiving attention from scholars activists and the media Delgado and Staples have produced the first comprehensive study of this dynamic field Their well organized book takes an important step toward bridging the gap between academic knowledge and community practice in this growing area

This Is an Uprising Mark Engler, Paul Engler, 2016-02-09 This is an Uprising traces the evolution of civil resistance providing new insights into the contributions of early experimenters such as Mohandas Gandhi and Martin Luther King Jr groundbreaking theorists such as Gene Sharp and Frances Fox Piven and contemporary practitioners who have toppled repressive regimes in countries such as South Africa Serbia and Egypt Drawing from discussions with activists now working to defend human rights challenge corporate corruption and combat climate change the Englers show how people with few resources and little influence in conventional politics can nevertheless engineer momentous upheavals Although it continues to prove its importance in political life the strategic use of nonviolent action is poorly understood Nonviolence is usually studied as a philosophy or moral code rather than as a method of political conflict disruption and escalation This is an Uprising corrects this oversight

Race and Space Lisa Leitz, 2022-10-24 Emphasising location specific human experience and incorporating insights from geography Race and Space s careful study of the differences of physical spaces gives rise to more complete explanations for social issues and variances in social movements

Interpersonal Social Work Skills for Community Practice Donna Hardina, 2012-07-23 Specifically dedicated to the skills that social workers need to advance community practice this creative book is long overdue Grounded in the wisdom and evidence of well honed interpersonal social work skills Donna Hardina s new text takes community practice to a higher level than ever before developed in book form indeed she displays the most thorough understanding of research on community practice that I have read in any community practice text Journal of Teaching in Social Work Community organization has been a major component of social work practice since the late 19th century It requires a diverse set of abilities interpersonal skills being among the most important This textbook describes the essential interpersonal skills that social workers need in community practice and helps students cultivate them Drawing from empirical literature on community social work practice and the author s own experience working with community organizers the book focuses on developing the macro level skills that are especially useful for community organizing It covers relationship building interviewing recruitment community assessment facilitating group decision making and task planning creating successful interventions working with organizations and program evaluation along with examples of specific applications For clarity and ease of use the author employs a framework drawn from a variety of community practice models including social action and social planning transformative popular education and community development approaches and multicultural and feminist approaches The text is linked to the competencies outlined in the Council of Social Work Education s 2008 Educational Policy and Accreditation Standards EPAS as well as ethics and values identified in the National Association of Social Workers NASW Code of Ethics and the International Federation of Social Workers statement of ethical principles Most chapters begin with a quote from a community organizer explaining how interpersonal skills are used in practice and student exercises conclude each chapter The text also addresses other important skills such as legislative advocacy lobbying and supervision Key Features Describes the essential skills social workers need in community practice and how to acquire them Includes examples of specific applications drawn from empirical literature and the author s experience working with community organizers Grounded in social justice strengths based and human rights perspectives Linked to competencies outlined in EPAS and values identified in the NASW Code of Ethics Based on a variety of community practice models Community Organizing and Community Building for Health and Welfare Meredith Minkler, 2012-07-16

The third edition of Community Organizing and Community Building for Health and Welfare provides new and more established ways to approach community building and organizing from collaborating with communities on assessment and issue selection to using the power of coalition building media advocacy and social media to enhance the effectiveness of such work With a strong emphasis on cultural relevance and humility this collection offers a wealth of case studies in areas ranging from childhood obesity to immigrant worker rights to health care reform A tool kit of appendixes includes guidelines for assessing coalition effectiveness exercises for critical reflection on our own power and privilege and training tools such as policy bingo From former organizer and now President Barack Obama to academics and professionals in the fields of public health social work urban planning and community psychology the book offers a comprehensive vision and on the ground examples of the many ways community building and organizing can help us address some of the most intractable health and social problems of our times Dr Minkler's course syllabus Although Dr Minkler has changed the order of some chapters in the syllabus to accommodate guest speakers and help students prep for the midterm assignment she uses she arranged the actual book layout in a way that should flow quite naturally if instructors wish to use it in the order in which chapters appear

Research Methods for Community Change A Project Based Approach Second Edition is an in depth review of all of the research methods that communities can use to solve problems develop their resources protect their identities and build power With an engaging writing style and numerous real world examples Randy Stoecker shows how to use a project based research model in the community to diagnose a community condition prescribe an intervention for the condition implement the prescription and evaluate its impact At every stage of this model there are research tasks from needs and assets assessments to process and outcome studies Readers also learn the importance of involving community members at every stage of the project and in every aspect of the research making the research part of the community building process

Community Practice Skills Dorothy N. Gamble,Marie Weil,2010 Dorothy N Gamble and Marie Weil differentiate among a range of intervention methods to provide a comprehensive and effective guide to working with communities Presenting eight distinct models grounded in current practice and targeted toward specific goals Gamble and Weil take an unusually inclusive step combining their own extensive experience with numerous case and practice examples from talented practitioners in international and domestic settings The authors open with a discussion of the theories for community work and the values of social justice and human rights concerns that have guided the work of activists from Jane Addams and Martin Luther King Jr to Cesar Chavez Wangari Maathai and Vandana Shiva They survey the concepts knowledge and perspectives influencing community practice and evaluation strategies Descriptions of eight practice models follow incorporating real life case examples from many parts of the world and demonstrating multiple applications for each model as well as the primary roles competencies and skills used by the practitioner Complexities and variations encourage readers to determine through comparative analysis which model at which time best fits the goals of a community group or organization given the context culture social economic and environmental issues and opportunities for change An accompanying workbook stressing empowerment strategies and skills development is also available from Columbia University Press

Community-Based Participatory Research for Health Meredith Minkler,Nina Wallerstein,2011-04-18 Minkler and Wallerstein have pulled together a fantastic set of contributions from the leading researchers in the field In addition to a fine collection of case studies this book puts the key issues for researchers and practitioners in a historical philosophical and applied practical context

Citizenship, Democracy and Higher Education in Europe, Canada and the USA J. Laker,C. Naval,K. Mrnjaus,2014-06-23 Citizenship democracy and human rights have always been central to higher education and increasing globalization has amplified their urgency and complexity This volume explores conceptual theoretical and policy implications for post secondary education engaging with these topics comparing the USA Canada Eastern Europe and Western Europe

Class, Inequality and Community Development Shaw, Mae,Mayo, Marjorie,2016-09-06 With inequality continuing to be an incredibly salient political and social issue this book on the part it plays in community development could not be more timely Arguing strenuously that class analysis should be central to any discussion of the potential benefits of community development because otherwise development can simply mask the underlying causes of inequality the book brings together contributors from a wide range of backgrounds to explore the ways that an understanding of class can offer a new path in the face of increasing social polarization Encyclopedia of Social Work, 1965 Social Work Skills for Community Practice Mary-Ellen Brown, Katie Stalker, 2022-11-10 Focuses on skill building to facilitate positive social change With straightforward content enriched by practical and applicable learning experiences this comprehensive text prepares social work students for careers in community organizing and macro practice It focuses on building the social work skills required for organizing communities including cause based coalitions geographically identity based communities and health and human service organizations to achieve culturally relevant equity and justice driven social change The second edition presents new information that includes self care for the community practitioner social work grand challenges cultural humility community dialogue trauma informed and resiliency focused community development environmental justice and many other topics Emphasizing community practice through the application of macro mezzo and micro social work skills the book uses frameworks drawn from generalist social work practice as well as core competencies identified by CSWE's EPAS Its focus on a broad range of community practice models makes it accessible to all social workers The text also highlights the importance of technology as a tool for social work macro practice with skill building activities Vivid case vignettes applied and experiential learning activities and team and individual based assignments reinforce content and emphasize skill building along with abundant resources for further learning New to the Second Edition Presents a framework for self care for the community practitioner Highlights the importance of community practitioner readiness competency and leadership Introduces a new trauma informed and resiliency focused approach for community development Discusses strategic compatibility for interorganizational collaboration Introduces youth based participatory research and empowerment evaluations Key Features Focuses on skill building for community engagement and organizing facilitating community dialogue and conducting assessments Covers planning and implementing community change initiatives and evaluating and disseminating knowledge from change activities Provides case vignettes to reinforce content and abundant resources for additional learning Offers a complete ancillary package that includes chapter PowerPoints Test Bank and an Instructor's Manual with suggested individual and group activities and more
