INSCOM Journal, 1984 Tales from the Indiana High School Basketball Locker Room Jeff Washburn, 2013-08-01 It is often said that while Dr James Naismith invented basketball in Massachusetts the sport was raised and ultimately came of age in the high schools of Indiana the state where politics religion and sweet corn fall in line behind the game played with the round orange ball Tales from Indiana High School Basketball now newly revised centers on those special people who have played the game their stories their passion their drive for excellence their laughs and their tears This is a book about Lebanon schoolboy hero Rick Mount the first prep basketball player ever featured on the cover of Sports Illustrated it s about Gene Cato the Indiana High School Athletic Association s former commissioner whose father his high school coach would not put the young scoring phenomenon into a game until his team s fans demanded it it s also about Marion s Purple Reign consecutive state championships in 1985 1986 and 1987 when the Giants were the most important game on every opponent s schedule John Wooden Bobby Plump Steve Alford Damon Bailey it s as easy for an Indiana high school basketball fan to roll the names off the tongue as it is to find the broadcast of a high school game on AM radio on any Friday night during an Indiana winter Tales from Indiana High School Basketball is not so much about statistics and winning streaks as it is about the personalities and emotions of those who created a phenomenon that became a way of life in the

Handbook of Basketball Drills from the Coaching Clinic The Coaching Clinic,1972 American Book Publishing Record ,1984 Ramblers Michael Lenehan,2013-02-18 Today basketball is played above the rim by athletes of all backgrounds and colors But 50 years ago it was a floor bound game and the opportunities it offered for African Americans were severely limited A key turning point was 1963 when the Loyola Ramblers of Chicago took the NCAA men s basketball title from Cincinnati the two time defending champions It was one of Chicago s most memorable sports victories but Ramblers reveals it was also a game for the history books because of the transgressive lineups fielded by both teams Ramblers is an entertaining detail rich look back at the unlikely circumstances that led to Loyola s historic championship and the stories of two Loyola opponents Cincinnati and Mississippi State Michael Lenehan s narrative masterfully intertwines these stories in dramatic fashion culminating with the tournament s final game a come from behind overtime upset that featured two buzzer beating shots While on the surface this is a book about basketball it goes deeper to illuminate how sport in America both typifies and drives change in the broader culture The stark social realities of the times are brought vividly to life in Lenehan s telling illustrating the challenges faced in teams efforts simply to play their game against the worthiest opponents The Laurinburg Institute Elizabeth Munroe Jones,2024-08-27 For the white race it is almost impossible to comprehend what it took to lift blacks from the state of brutal slavery to their rightful place in society Indeed we are still grappling with that problem today Starting from scratch has new meaning when you look at the beginnings of Booker T Washington and Emmanuel and Tinny McDuffie the founders of the Laurinburg Normal and Industrial Institute in 1904 How far they came has to be measured against where they began Emmanuel McDuffie the son of none became the symbolic father of many He did not flee to the relative safety of the North after the war but plunged deeper into the divided and often dangerous South He was determined to build a place where he his family and his race could stand and thrive This 119 year history of the oldest private black prep school in the United States comes alive through extensive interviews and records now uncovered for the first time Accounts of Jazz musician Dizzy Gillespie and NBA Hall of Famers Sam Jones and Charlie Scott among many distinguished graduates and faculty members paint a vivid picture Ranked sixth nationwide among high schools in producing the most NBA players Laurinburg Institute also sent more than 60 players to Division I college basketball teams all across the country At least 50 000 students built a new world based on the firm foundation of Laurinburg Institute and four generations of the McDuffie family
