Seeable Signs Ann Eljenholm Nichols, 1994 Representations of the seven sacraments in medieval art examined in the context of theological didactic and liturgical sources Sacramental Theology and the Decoration of Baptismal Fonts Frances Altvater, 2017-06-23 Baptismal fonts were necessary to the liturgical life of the medieval Christian Baptism marked the entrance of the faithful into the right relation with the Catholic Church representing the main cultural institution of medieval society In the period between ca 1050 and ca 1220 the decoration of the font often had an important function to underscore the theology of baptism in the context of the sacraments of the Catholic Church This period witnessed a surge of concern about sacraments Just as religious thinkers attempted to delineate the sacraments and define their function in sermons and Sentence collections sculptural programs visualized the teaching of orthodox ideas for the lay audience This book looks at three areas of primary concern around baptism as a sacrament incarnation initiation and the practice of baptism within the institution of the Church and the images that embody that religious discussion Baptismal fonts have been recognized as part of the stylistic production of the Romanesque period and their iconography has been generally explored as moral and didactic Here the message of these fonts is set within a very specific history of medieval Catholic sacramental theology connecting erudite thinkers and lay users through their decoration and use The Reformation World Andrew Pettegree, 2000 The most ambitious one volume survey of the Reformation yet this book is beautifully illustrated throughout The strength of this work is its breadth and originality covering the Church art Calvinism and Luther Pathos in Late-Medieval Religious Drama and Art Gabriella Mazzon, 2018-05-23 Pathos as Communicative Strategy in Late Medieval Religious Drama and Art explores the strategies employed to trigger emotional responses in late medieval dramatic texts from several Western European traditions and juxtaposes these texts with artistic productions from the same areas with an emphasis on Britain The aim is to unravel the mechanisms through which pathos was produced and employed mainly through the representation of pain and suffering with mainly religious but also political aims The novelty of the book resides in its specific linguistic perspective which highlights the recurrent use of words structures and dialogic patterns in drama to reinforce messages on the salvific value of suffering in synergy with visual messages produced in the same cultural milieu The Baptismal Font Canopy of St. Peter Mancroft, Norwich, 2023-10-16 The early 16th century baptismal font canopy of the church of St Peter Mancroft Norwich is one of only three such structures to survive anywhere in the British Isles This study inspired by the recent rediscovery of four attributable panels at the Philadelphia Museum of Art offers a trans temporal account of the canopy s initial creation and subsequent use mutilation and modification Written by a team of scholars in art architectural history art conservation heritage documentation literary studies and museum curation it explores the installation s multiple artistic ritual and cultural contexts from late medieval and early modern Europe to modern day North America Contributors are Benjamin Baaske Sarah Blick Kate Duffy Brent R Fortenberry Amy Gillette Jack Hinton Lesley

Havens, Derrick G. Pitard, 2003 Who were the Lollards What did Lollards believe What can the manuscript record of Lollard works teach us about the textual dissemination of Lollard beliefs and the audience for Lollard writings What did Lollards have in common with other reformist or dissident thinkers in late medieval England and how were their views distinctive These questions have been fundamental to the modern study of Lollardy also known as Wycliffism The essays in this book reveal their broader implications for the study of English literature and history through a series of closely focused studies that demonstrate the wide ranging influence of Lollard writings and ideas on later medieval English culture Introductions to previous scholarship and an extensive Bibliography of printed resources for the study of Wyclif and Wycliffites provide an entry to scholarship for those new to the field Contributors DAVID AERS MARGARET ASTON HELEN BARR MISHTOONI BOSE LAWRENCE M CLOPPER ANDREW COLE RALPH HANNA III MAUREEN JURKOWSKI ANDREW LARSEN GEOFFREY H MARTIN WENDY SCASE FIONA SOMERSET EMILY STEINER FIONA SOMERSET is at Duke University Durham NC JILL C HAVENS is at Texas Christian University DERRICK G PITARD is at

Whitaker, Ruth E. Sternglantz, Medieval Academy of America, Medieval Academy of America Staff, 2003-01-01 Makes available for the first time the unique text in the fifteenth century British manuscript MS Bodley 283 which is among the last and largest works in the tradition of lay religious instruction mandated by the Fourth Lateran Council      Painting the Sacred in the Age of Romanticism Cordula Grewe, 2017-07-05 After a century of Rationalist scepticism and political upheaval the nineteenth century awakened to a fierce battle between the forces of secularization and the crusaders of a Christian revival From this battlefield arose an art movement that would become the torchbearer of a new religious art Nazarenism From its inception in the Lukasbund of 1809 this art was controversial It nonetheless succeeded in becoming a lingua franca in religious circles throughout Europe America and the world at large This is the first major study of the evolution structure and conceptual complexity of this archetypically nineteenth century language of belief The

Nazarene quest for a modern religious idiom evolved around a return to pre modern forms of biblical exegesis and the adaptation of traditional systems of iconography Reflecting the era s historicist sensibility as much as the general revival of orthodoxy in the various Christian denominations the Nazarenes responded with great acumen to pressing contemporary concerns Consequently the artists did not simply revive Christian iconography but rather reconceptualized what it could do and say This creativity and flexibility enabled them to intervene forcefully in key debates of post revolutionary European society the function of eroticism in a Christian life the role of women and the social question devotional practice and the nature of the Church childhood education and bible study and the burning issue of anti Judaism and modern anti Semitism What makes Nazarene art essentially Romantic is the meditation on the conditions of art making inscribed into their appropriation and reinvention of artistic tradition Far from being a reactionary move this self reflexivity expresses the modernity of Nazarene art This study explores Nazarenism in a series of detailed excavations of central works in the Nazarene corpus produced between 1808 and the 1860s The result is a book about the possibility of religious meanin

Broken Idols of the English Reformation ,     Julian of Norwich Kevin Magill,2006-07-13 Julian of Norwich was a fourteenth century woman who at the age of thirty had a series of vivid visions centred around the crucified Christ Twenty years later while living as an anchoress in a church she is believed to have set out these visions in a text called the Showing of Love Going against the current trend to place Julian in the category of mystic a classification which defines her visions as deeply private psychological events this book sets Julian s thinking in the context of a visionary project used to instruct the Christian community Drawing on recent developments in philosophy that debate the objectivity and rationality of vision and perception Kevin J Magill gives full attention to the depth and richness of the visual language and modes of perception in the Showing of Love In particular the book focuses on the ways in which Julian presented her vision to the Christian society around her demonstrating the educative potential of interaction between the isolated anchoress and the wider community Challenging Julian s identification as a mystic and solitary female writer this book argues that Julian engaged in a variety of educative methods oral visual conversational mnemonic alliterative that extend the usefulness of her text     Medievalia et Humanistica, No. 34 Paul Maurice Clogan,2009-01-16 Since its founding in 1943 Medievalia et Humanistica has won worldwide recognition as the first scholarly publication in America to devote itself entirely to medieval and Renaissance studies Since 1970 a new series sponsored by the Modern Language Association of America and edited by an international board of distinguished scholars and critics has published interdisciplinary articles In yearly hardcover volumes the new series publishes significant scholarship criticism and reviews treating all facets of medieval and Renaissance culture history art literature music science law economics and philosophy Medievalia et Humanistica Editorial Board and Submissions Guidelines     The Technology of Salvation and the Art of Geertgen tot Sint Jans JohnR. book demonstrates how the pictorial arts intersected with popular religious practice The author reconstructs the conceptual frameworks underlying the use and production of religious art in this period and provides a more nuanced understanding of the use of images in the process of soul formation This study delves into the complexity of the early modern system of personal justification and argues that religious images and objects were part of a larger Technology of Salvation In order to make these connections clearer the author analyzes selected works by Geertgen tot Sint Jans Little Gerard at St John s and shows how they functioned within their larger social and historical milieu Medieval and Early Modern Art, Architecture and Archaeology in Norwich Sandy Heslop,2024-11-15 This volume explores the importance of Norwich as the second city of England for 500 years It addresses two of the most ambitious Romanesque buildings in Europe cathedral and castle and illuminates the role of Norwich based designers and makers in the region Images of Medieval Sanctity Debra Higgs Strickland,2007-08-31 Assembled on the occasion of Gary Dickson s retirement from the University of Edinburgh following a distinguished career as an internationally acclaimed scholar of medieval social and religious history this volume contains contributions by both established and newer scholars inspired by Dickson s particular interests in medieval popular religion including religious enthusiasm Together the essays comprise a comprehensive and rich investigation of the idea of sanctity and its many medieval manifestations across time fifth through fifteenth centuries and in different geographical locations England Scotland France Italy the Low Countries By approaching the theme of sanctity from multiple disciplinary perspectives this highly original collection pushes forward current academic thinking about medieval hagiography iconography social history women s studies and architectural history Imagining the Self, Constructing the Past Meriem Pagès,Robert G.
