Lectures on Dostoevsky Joseph Frank,2022-04-19 L ditteur indique This book collects twelve classroom lectures on seven major works by Dostoevsky Crime and Punishment The Brothers Karamazov The Idiot Notes from Underground and three others by Joseph Frank the author of the definitive five volume biography of Dostoevsky published by Princeton University Press Frank s widow Marguerite Frank has worked with a Russian translator and former student of Frank s Marina Brodskya to compile the lectures some of which Frank had written out in their entirety others for which he left extensive notes The book will contain a preface introduction seven chapters each containing one or two lectures on a major work and lists of further reading and stage and screen adaptations of Dostoevsky s works Each lecture is about 4 000 words and is written in a conversational style that is accessible for undergraduates but also demonstrates Frank s unparalleled knowledge of the Russian author and his world providing wide ranging literary and historical context The editors include notes to explain references and allusions The book also will include some images of Joseph Frank Dostoevsky a couple of artworks discussed in the lectures and a sample of Frank s handwritten lecture notes Anton Rubinstein Philip S. Taylor,2007-06-14 The first modern biography in English of Russian composer pianist Anton Rubinstein this book places Rubinstein within the context of Russian and western European musical culture during the late 19th century exploring his rise to international fame from humble origins in Bessarabia as well as his subsequent rapid decline and marginalization in later musical culture Taylor provides a balanced account of Rubinstein s life and his career as a piano virtuoso conductor composer and as the founder of Russia s first conservatory Widely considered the virtuosic heir to Liszt and recognized internationally as an equivalent cultural icon he performed with most leading musicians of the day including Liszt himself Joachim Clara Schumann Vieuxtemps Wieniawski Saint Saens and Ysa e Dostoevsky and the Catholic Underground Elizabeth A. Blake,2014-04-30 While Dostoevsky s relation to religion is well trod ground there exists no comprehensive study of Dostoevsky and Catholicism Elizabeth Blake s ambitious and learned Dostoevsky and the Catholic Underground fills this glaring omission in the scholarship Previous commentators have traced a wide ranging hostility in Dostoevsky s understanding of Catholicism to his Slavophilism Blake depicts a far more nuanced picture Her close reading demonstrates that he is repelled and fascinated by Catholicism in all its medieval Reformation and modern manifestations Dostoevsky saw in Catholicism not just an inspirational source for the Grand Inquisitor but a political force an ideological wellspring a unique mode of intellectual inquiry and a source of cultural production Blake s insightful textual analysis is accompanied by an equally penetrating analysis of nineteenth century European revolutionary history from Paris to Siberia that undoubtedly influenced the evolution of Dostoevsky s thought Before They Were Titans Elizabeth Cheresch Allen,2019-08-28

Dostoevsky and Tolstoy are the titans of Russian literature. As mature artists they led very different lives and wrote vastly different works, but their early lives and writings display provocative kinships while also indicating the divergent paths the two authors would take en route to literary greatness. The ten new critical essays here, written by leading specialists in nineteenth-century Russian literature, give fresh, sophisticated readings to works from the first decade of the literary life of each Russian author: for Dostoevsky the 1840s, for Tolstoy the 1850s. Collectively, these essays yield composite portraits of these two artists as young men finding their literary way. At the same time, they show how the early works merit appreciation for themselves before their authors were Titans.

Narrative, Space and Gender in Russian Fiction: 1846-1903 Joe Andrew, 2007-01-01. The present volume has as its primary aim readings from a feminist perspective of a number of works from Russian literature published over the period in which the woman question rose to the fore and reached its peak. All the works considered here were produced in or hark back to a fairly narrowly defined period of not quite 20 years, 1846-1864, in which issues of gender of male and female roles were discussed much more keenly than in perhaps any other period in Russian literature. The overall project is summed up by the three key words of this book's title: narrative, space, and gender, and especially the interconnections between them. That is, what do the way these stories were told tell us about gender identities in mid-nineteenth-century Russia? Which spaces were central to these fictional worlds? Which spaces suggested which gender identities? The discussions therefore focus on issues of narrative and space and how they acted as technologies of gender. This volume will be of interest to all interested in nineteenth-century Russian literature as well as students of gender and of the semiotics of narrative space.

Crime and Punishment Fyodor Dostoyevsky, 2017. Crime and Punishment is the story of a murder committed on principle of a killer who wishes to set himself outside and above society. It is marked by Dostoevsky's own harrowing experience and yet there are moments of wild humour. This authoritative translation comes with a challenging new introduction and helpful annotation.

The Dostoevsky Encyclopedia Kenneth Lantz, 2004-06-30. One of the greatest writers of all time, Fyodor Dostoevsky (1821-1881) is best known for such masterpieces as Crime and Punishment and The Brothers Karamazov. His works are widely read and studied today and he has received much biographical and critical attention. Like many other writers of enduring literature, he engages timeless moral and theological issues. His writings and ideas are complex and reflect the swirling political and intellectual controversies of his time. This encyclopedia is a convenient and comprehensive guide to his life and writings. Through more than 200 alphabetically arranged entries, this reference details his life and career. Each of his fictional works is discussed, as are his major pieces of journalism. There are also entries for his family members, close friends, and associates; places where he lived; literary movements with which he is associated; and journals or newspapers in which he published. Also included are entries for major writers and thinkers who influenced his works and for ideas and themes that figure prominently in his writings. The entries cite works for further reading, and the encyclopedia closes with a selected general bibliography of major works.

Dostoevsky's Polyphonic Talent

Joe E. Barnhart, 2005 This book illuminates the connectedness of Dostoevsky's literary art with his philosophical and psychological brilliance. Two Fyodor Dostoevsky conferences originating at the University of North Texas set the stage for this volume. Scholars contributed original papers focusing on how Dostoevsky's literary art and philosophical insights enrich one another. Fyodor Dostoevsky wrote and thought polyphonically. His polyphonic method is both his special literary technique and his distinctive way of probing theological, social, and philosophical depths. As Bakhtin and Terras suggest, all Dostoevsky's major literary inventions, from the underground man to the vitriolic Grushenka, are products of his ability to listen profoundly to his own characters. Like the genius author/redactor of 1 and 2 Samuel, he reports the heights and depths of human emotion and behavior, whether exploring the anatomy of dysfunctional families, making the heart soar with Zosima's vision of forgiveness, or giving Ivan Karamazov full rein to challenge theism. Dostoevsky's characters transform themselves into irregular verbs whose fierce independence emerges only because of their desperate and inescapable interdependence. His major characters are text, subtext, and context for each other. They play inside each other's head and answer in one way or another.

Dostoevsky Joseph Frank, 2009-10-19 A magnificent one-volume abridgement of one of the greatest literary biographies of our time. Joseph Frank's award-winning five-volume Dostoevsky is widely recognized as the best biography of the writer in any language and one of the greatest literary biographies of the past half-century. Now Frank's monumental 2,500-page work has been skillfully abridged and condensed in this single, highly readable volume with a new preface by the author. Carefully preserving the original work's acclaimed narrative style and combination of biography, intellectual history, and literary criticism, Dostoevsky: A Writer in His Time illuminates the writer's works from his first novel, Poor Folk, to Crime and Punishment and The Brothers Karamazov, by setting them in their personal, historical, and above all, ideological context. More than a biography in the usual sense, this is a cultural history of nineteenth-century Russia, providing both a rich picture of the world in which Dostoevsky lived and a major reinterpretation of his life and work.

Problems of Communism, 1984

Scholarly Book Reviewing in the Social Sciences and Humanities Ylva Lindholm-Romantschuk, 1998-01-26 This study explores the flow of information within and among academic disciplines in the social sciences and humanities through analyses of the patterns of scholarly book reviewing. An elite sample of scholarly monographs published by university presses between 1971 and 1990 was used. Beginning with Derek de Solla Price, the measurement of communication within the disciplines of science has been ongoing. In the present book, that field of inquiry is summarized and provides a basis for examining the flow of information in the social sciences and humanities.

The Russian Image of Goethe, Volume 2

Andre von Gronicka, André von Gronicka, 2016-11-11 The two volumes of The Russian Image of Goethe constitute the only study in a Western language on Goethe's reception in Russia. Volume II is a seamless continuation of the earlier book, covering the second half of the nineteenth century and the first two decades of the twentieth. Von Gronicka examines the attitudes toward Goethe and his work of, among others, Turgenev, Dostoevski, Tolstoi, and the Russian symbolists. He draws on the Russian writers diaries letters and essays quoting from them extensively in faithful translation or felicitous paraphrase In developing The Russian image of Goethe von Gronicka traces the course of Russian literature in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries and provides not only a clear idea of how Russian writers viewed Goethe but an excellent introduction to that literature Both volumes of The Russian Image of Goethe are of interest to scholars of Russian German and comparative literature
