Seeing Differently Br Samuel ssf, Br Nicolas Alan ssf, Simon Cocksedge, 2021-01-30 This timely book brings together the stories of St Francis his preaching to birds rejection of wealth caring for lepers befriending animals and living simply his poetry and hymnody in praise of creation that is still sung today and the influential writings and examples of inspiring Franciscans who have followed him such as Clare Bonaventure Duns Scotus and Angela of Foligno and draws them into conversation with contemporary concerns for our planet It gathers 800 years of accumulated wisdom and practical examples of how Franciscans have found ways to live at home and at peace with creation It explores that long tradition and experience to ask what lessons can be drawn for today to challenge and enable readers to re visit their own relationship with creation

Seeing Eye Girl Beverly J. Armento, 2025-07-30 As the Seeing Eye Girl for her blind artistic and mentally ill mother Beverly Armento was intimately connected with and responsible for her even though her mother physically and emotionally abused her She was Strong Beverly at school excellent in academics and mentored by caring teachers but at home she was Weak Beverly cowed by her mother's rage and delusions Beverly's mother regained her sight with two corneal transplants in 1950 and went on to enjoy a moment of fame as an artist but these positive turns did nothing to stop her disintegration into her delusional world of communists radiation and lurking Italians To survive Beverly had to be resilient and hopeful that better days could be ahead But first she had to confront essential ethical issues about her caregiving role in her family In this emotional memoir Beverly shares the coping strategies she invented to get herself through the trials of her young life and the ways in which school and church served as refuges over the course of her journey Breaking the psychological chains that bound her to her mother would prove to be the most difficult challenge of her life and ultimately the most liberating one

Evaluative Perception Anna Bergqvist, Robert Cowan, 2018-06-06 Evaluation is ubiquitous Indeed it isn't an exaggeration to say that we assess actions character events and objects as good cruel beautiful etc almost every day of our lives Although evaluative judgement for instance judging that an institution is unjust is usually regarded as the paradigm of evaluation it has been thought by some philosophers that a distinctive and significant kind of evaluation is perceptual For example in aesthetics some have claimed that adequate aesthetic judgement must be grounded in the appreciator's first hand perceptual experience of the item judged In ethics reference to the existence and importance of something like ethical perception is found in a number of traditions for example in virtue ethics and sentimentalism This volume brings together philosophers working in aesthetics epistemology ethics philosophy of mind and value theory to investigate what we call evaluative perception Specifically they engage with 1 Questions regarding the existence and nature of evaluative perception Are there perceptual experiences of values If so what is their nature Are perceptual experiences of values sui generis Are values necessary for certain kinds of perceptual experience 2 Questions about epistemology Can evaluative perceptual experiences ever justify evaluative judgements Are perceptual experiences of values necessary for certain kinds of justified evaluative judgements 3 Questions about value theory Is the existence of evaluative perceptual experience supported or undermined by particular views in value theory Are particular views in value theory supported or undermined by the existence of evaluative perceptual experience Yale Classics (Vol. 2)

The Address of the Eye Vivian Sobchack, 2020-05-05 Cinema is a sensuous object but in our presence it becomes also a sensing sensual sense making subject Thus argues Vivian Sobchack as she challenges basic assumptions of current film theory that reduce film to an object of vision and the spectator to a victim of a deterministic cinematic apparatus Maintaining that these premises ignore the material and cultural historical situations of both the spectator and the film the author makes the radical proposal that the cinematic experience depends on two viewers viewing the spectator and the film each existing as both subject and object of vision Drawing on existential and semiotic phenomenology and particularly on the work of Merleau Ponty Sobchack shows how the film experience provides empirical insight into the reversible dialectical and signifying nature of that embodied vision we each live daily as both mine and another s In this attempt to account for cinematic intelligibility and signification the author explores the possibility of human choice and expressive freedom within the bounds of history and culture
