Art on the Block Ann Fensterstock, 2025-06-25 A fascinating tour of the last five decades of contemporary art in New York City showing how artists are catalysts of gentrification and how neighborhoods in turn shape their art with special insights into the work of artists such as Jean Michel Basquiat Cindy Sherman and Jeff Koons Stories of New York City's fabled art scene conjure up artists' lofts in SoHo studios in Brooklyn and block after block of galleries in Chelsea But today no artist can afford a SoHo loft Brooklyn has long gentrified and even the galleries of Chelsea are beginning to move on Art on the Block takes the reader on a journey through the neighborhoods that shape and are shaped by New York's ever evolving art world Based on interviews with over 150 gallery directors as well as the artists themselves art historian and cultural commentator Ann Fensterstock explores the genesis expansion maturation and ultimate restless migration of the New York art world from one initially undiscovered neighborhood to the next Opening with the colonization of the desolate South Houston Industrial District in the late 1960s the book follows the art world's subsequent elopements to the East Village in the 80s Brooklyn in the mid 90s Chelsea at the beginning of the new millennium and most recently to the Lower East Side With a look to the newest neighborhoods that artists are just now beginning to occupy this is a must read for both art enthusiasts as well as anyone with a passion for New York City

Screen Presence Stephen Monteiro, 2016-05-31 Screen Presence explores the intersections of film popular media and contemporary art through the examples of four internationally celebrated artists Andy Warhol Robert Rauschenberg Mona Hatoum and Douglas Gordon

Art and Laughter Sheri Klein, 2006-11-22 This is the first book to take seriously though not too seriously the surprisingly neglected role of humour in art Art and Laughter looks back to comic masters such as Hogarth and Daumier and to Dada Surrealism and Pop Art asking what makes us laugh and why It explores the use of comedy in art from satire and irony to pun parody and black and bawdy humour Encouraging laughter in the hallowed space of the gallery Sheri Klein praises the contemporary artist as clown often overlooked in favour of the role of artist as serious commentator and takes us on a tour of the comic work of Red Grooms Cary Leibowitz The Hairys Richard Prince Bruce Nauman Jeff Koons William Wegman Vik Muniz and many more She seeks out those rare smiles in art from the Mona Lisa onwards and highlights too the pleasures of the cute the camp and the downright kitsch

Mouse Muse Lorna Owen, 2014-11-18 A beautifully designed introduction to art history by way of artworks that feature the mouse from the ancient world to drawings by Picasso Disney and Art Spiegelman Across centuries and civilizations artists have used the mouse the planet's most common mammal after us to illustrate our myths and beliefs Mice have appeared as Japanese symbols of good luck or medieval emblems of evil in Arab fables Russian political satire and Nazi propaganda as scientific tools and to help us challenge the way we see nature With more than 80 rarely reproduced works including paintings by Hieronymus Bosch and Gustav Klimt a silkscreen by Andy Warhol a print by Hokusai a photograph by Andrzej Kertész a sculpture by Claes Oldenburg a video installation by Bruce Nauman a performance by Joseph Beuys and many more Lorna Owen has created an engaging presentation of an extraordinary range The pieces which represent every period of visual art are accompanied by Owen's intriguing text about the story behind each work She has combined her passion for art and her empathy for the unsung archetype of the animal kingdom to explain not only how or why the artist came to use the mouse as a subject but how the art in the end reveals more about us than it could ever reveal about this humble creature
