Color & Emotion Buddy Huang ,Evan Yanagi ,2015-10-01 By using the traditional Chinese theories of the Five Elements and Zi Wei Dou Shu we have explored the interrelationship between our personal elemental colors and their impact on our personal emotion In order to easily manage this relationship we have created the simple concept of a personal ID The personal ID does not represent citizens of a country but they are rather the number codes that derive precisely from the year month day hour and minute of our births and take into account the longitude and latitude of the birth place as well as the true solar time There are a total of nine numbers Through these nine numbers we can balance the five elemental energies to make us complete The same IDs are also attached to all products Therefore you can buy the products that match your elemental requirements The 109TM app helps you match the Yin and Yang attributes of the Five Elements and shop from our 109TM online shopping platform Mindfulness-Based Cognitive Therapy for Anxious Children Randye J. The Bride of the Nile (Complete) George Ebers, Half a lustrum had elapsed since Egypt had become subject to the youthful power of the Arabs which had risen with such unexampled vigor and rapidity It had fallen an easy prey cheaply bought into the hands of a small well captained troop of Moslem warriors and the fair province which so lately had been a jewel of the Byzantine Empire and the most faithful foster mother to Christianity now owned the sway of the Khalif Omar and saw the Crescent raised by the side of the Cross It was long since a hotter season had afflicted the land and the Nile whose rising had been watched for on the Night of Dropping the 17th of June with the usual festive preparations had cheated the hopes of the Egyptians and instead of rising had shrunk narrower and still narrower in its bed It was in this time of sore anxiety on the 10th of July A D 643 that a caravan from the North reached Memphis It was but a small one but its appearance in the decayed and deserted city of the Pyramids which had grown only lengthwise like a huge reed leaf since its breadth was confined between the Nile and the Libyan Hills attracted the gaze of the passers by though in former years a Memphite would scarcely have thought it worth while to turn his head to gaze at an interminable pile of wagons loaded with merchandise an imposing train of vehicles drawn by oxen the flashing maniples of the imperial cavalry or an endless procession wending its way down the five miles of high street The merchant who riding a dromedary of the choicest breed conducted this caravan was a lean Moslem of mature age robed in soft silk A vast turban covered his small head and cast a shadow over his delicate and venerable features The Egyptian guide who rode on a brisk little ass by his side looked up frequently and with evident pleasure at the merchant's face not in itself a handsome one with its hollow cheeks meagre beard and large aquiline nose for it was lighted up by a pair of bright eyes full of attractive thoughtfulness and genuine kindness But that this fragile looking man in whose benevolent countenance grief and infirmities had graven many a furrow could not only command but compel submission was legible alike in his thin firmly closed lips and in the zeal with which his following of truculent and bearded fighting men armed to the teeth obeyed his slightest sign His Egyptian attendant the head of the Hermeneutai the guild of the Dragomans of that period was a swarthy and surly native of Memphis whenever he accidentally came too close to the fierce looking riders of the dromedaries he shrunk his shoulders as if he expected a blow or a push while he poured out question and answer to the Merchant Haschim the owner of the caravan without timidity and with the voluble garrulity of his tribe Color behind Bars Scott W.

Bowman,2014-08-11 A diverse critical analysis of racial and ethnic disparities within the American criminal justice system that encourages critical thinking by providing various sides to the issues Low income African Americans Latin Americans and American Indians bear the statistical brunt of policing death penalty verdicts and sentencing disparities in the United States Why does this long standing inequity exist in a country where schoolchildren are taught to expect justice for all The original essays in this two volume set not only examine the deep rooted issues and lay out theories as to why racism remains a problem in our prison system but they also provide potential solutions to the problem The work gives a broad multicultural overview of the history of overrepresentation of ethnic minorities in our prison system examining white black disparities as well as racism and issues of ethnic based discrimination concerning other ethnic minorities This up to date resource is ideally suited for undergraduate students who are enrolled in criminal justice or racial ethnic studies classes and general readers interested in the U S criminal justice system Consciousness, Seeing, and Knowing, digital original edition Michael
