wasn't any ordinary podcast. In each episode Hopkins and his guests would time travel together to the year 2030 walking down imagined future streets talking with imagined future neighbors visiting imagined future local businesses. While Hopkins's guests came from all walks of life economists politicians bakers comedians novelists and more they all shared a willingness to suspend their worries about the future long enough to mentally inhabit and then describe a world they were thrilled to be a part of. What Hopkins discovered was no less profound: this simple exercise of visiting a positive future forced him to rethink the work he'd been doing as a climate activist for decades. How to Fall in Love with the Future is the result of that radical disruption and Hopkins's deep dive into the people and movements throughout history who have used visions of the future to inspire positive change on a large and dramatic scale. From the life and writings of musician Sun Ra and the history of Black utopian movements to the latest neuroscience on what goes on in our minds and hearts when we time travel Hopkins brings essential new thinking to anyone overwhelmed with dread and anxiety for the future. He asks us to consider what would the world look like if we all got to work imagining and then building a world we were deeply in love with. Rob Hopkins puts imagination back at the heart of future dreaming offering us an irresistible invitation to dream bigger and then make those dreams a reality. Kate Raworth author of Doughnut Economics     The Star Shack Lila Castle, 2010-06-01 Pete and Annabelle always believed they were a perfect pair until junior year when Annabelle became obsessed with astrology. Now they can hardly stand each other. Pete thinks Annabelle has become a total flake she thinks he's an uptight jerk. To prove her point Annabelle dares Pete to open a summer business on the boardwalk giving advice based on the stars. You and me and an astrology booth. I dare you. Annabelle knows Pete can never say no to a dare. Together they'll run the Star Shack and read visitors' charts for romance and see what happens. Will a simple dare lead to a summer to remember or to something even more? Leo Ladies You feel things deeply and passionately. Picking the right guy is important. This summer you may need a lion's share of Leo's courage and self-confidence when love hits a bump in the road. Scorpio Guys You burn with passion but on the outside you appear calm cool and collected. When you love you love forever. This makes you cautious. Watch out for that stubborn streak and keep an open mind.     The Elementary School Library Collection Brodart, 1996-02 A primary source for the continuous development evaluation and maintenance of existing collections.
