Segregated Information Highway:

The Road to Information Literacy Roisin Gwyer, Ruth Stubbings, Graham Walton, 2012-08-31 Information literacy has been identified as a necessary skill for life work and citizenship as well as for academic study for all of us living in today's information society. This international collection brings together practitioner and research papers from all sectors of information work. It includes case studies and good practice guides including how librarians and information workers can facilitate information literacy from pre school children to established researchers. digital literacy and information literacy for citizens Highway Statistics, 1952 Information Communication Technologies: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications Van Slyke, Craig, 2008-04-30 The rapid development of information communication technologies (ICTs) is having a profound impact across numerous aspects of social, economic and cultural activity worldwide and keeping pace with the associated effects, implications, opportunities and pitfalls has been challenging to researchers in diverse realms ranging from education to competitive intelligence Gender and the Information Revolution in Africa International Development Research Centre (Canada), 2000 Gender and the Information Revolution in Africa Research, Reference Service, and Resources for the Study of Africa Deborah Lafond, Gretchen Walsh, 2013-04-15 Experts present proven methods and techniques for studying about or in Africa. Research Reference Services and Resources for the Study of Africa helps you steer clear of washouts, cave ins and dead ends on the road to successful research on or in Africa. This one of a kind research guide presents practical solutions to frequently occurring problems in the study of Africa including Internet accessibility problems, errors that will affect a known item search, the imposition of colonial legacy and dealing with gender and class bias. Unlike most references on Africa that concentrate on collection development, this unique book focuses on the study of Africa, making it a must have for academic librarians, Africanist scholars and Africana librarians. Specialists, generalist librarians and end users all depend on tools designed to provide access to information in libraries and on the web including OPACs, databases and search engines. In this book, these tools, research methods and the accessibility of information on Africa are examined, offering students and professionals a thorough guide to the most successful researching route. Research Reference Services and Resources for the Study of Africa provides assistance in the research process according to a variety of categories including evaluating OPACs and similar databases for known item searching using keywords, subject headings, bias indexing, full text searching, terminology, cataloguing, user centered information services and other search strategies to find what you are looking for using Internet resources to your advantage using the partnerships between the U.S. and African libraries and scholarly institutions to help improve information access using techniques for reference librarians to act as a force increasing women's roles in the study of Africa and much more. Research Reference Services and Resources for the Study of Africa offers all the information necessary to avoid research hang ups that affect the study of Africa and the necessary information to pass these skills on to students 21st Century Skills Development Through Inquiry-Based Learning Samuel Kai

Wah Chu, Rebecca B. Reynolds, Nicole J. Tavares, Michele Notari, Celina Wing Yi Lee, 2016-09-21 This book presents innovative instructional interventions designed to support inquiry project based learning as an approach to equip students with 21st century skills Instructional techniques include collaborative team based teaching social constructivist game design and game play and productive uses of social media such as wikis and other online communication affordances The book will be of interest to researchers seeking a summary of recent empirical studies in the inquiry project based learning domain that employ new technologies as constructive media for student synthesis and creation The book also bridges the gap between empirical works and a range of national and international level educational standards frameworks such as the P21 the OECD framework AASL Standards for the 21st Century Learner and the Common Core State Standards in the US Of particular interest to education practitioners the book offers detailed descriptions of inquiry project based learning interventions that can be directly reproduced in today's schools Further the book provides research driven guidelines for the evaluation of student inquiry project based learning Lastly it offers education policymakers insight into establishing anchors and spaces for applying inquiry project based learning opportunities for youth today in the context of existing and current education reform efforts The aim of this book is to support education leaders practitioners and researchers efforts in advancing inspiring and motivating student learning through transformative social constructivist inquiry based knowledge building with information technologies We propose that preparing students with inquiry mindsets and dispositions can promote greater agency critical thinking and resourcefulness qualities needed for addressing the complex societal challenges they may face Bridging the Knowledge Divide Stewart Marshall, Wanjira Kinuthia, Wallace Taylor, 2009-04-01 In many international settings developing economies are in danger of declining as the digital divide becomes the knowledge divide This decline attacks the very fabric of cohesion and purpose for these regional societies delivering increased social health economic and sustainability problems The examples in this book will provide leaders policy developers researchers students and community with successful strategies and principles of ICT use in education to address these needs This book will discuss how educational technology can be used to transform education and assist developing communities to close the knowledge divide It will provide comprehensive coverage of educational technology in development in different professions and parts of world The book will provide examples of best practice case studies and principles for educators community leaders researchers and policy advisers on the use of educational technology for development In particular it will provide examples of how education can be provided more flexibly in order to provide access to hitherto disadvantaged communities and individuals Innovation, 2000 Nordic Voices, 2009-01-01 This volume represents the work of sixteen authors who all work at different universities and other academic institutions in the Nordic countries It provides insight into the diversity of research being conducted in the northernmost parts of Europe Although it would be incorrect to assert that research in this far away part of Europe represents something drastically different than that done in other parts of the world it would be equally incorrect to maintain that being at the outskirts on the cusp or on the periphery _ whichever way one wishes to describe the position of the Nordic countries in relation to the rest of the world does not influence the ways in which educational processes phenomena and their consequences are viewed These sixteen Nordic Voices discuss with readers different issues regarding teaching and researching Comparative and International Education in the Nordic countries The editors began their collaboration in 2006 working together to revitalize the Nordic Comparative and International Education Society NOCIES was officially re established in May 2008 Halla B Holmarsdottir who is from Iceland lives and works in Norway where she is Associate Professor in Multicultural and International Education at Oslo University College Mina O Dowd whose father is from the USA and mother is Norwegian lives and works in Sweden Nordic Voices Teaching and Researching Comparative and International Education in the Nordic Countries is a result of the collaboration that began over three years ago
