Interwoven Globe Amy Elizabeth Bogansky, 2013 Published in conjunction with an exhibition held at The Metropolitan Museum of Art New York Sept 16 2013 Jan 5 2014 Potential Images Dario Gamboni, 2002 In Potential Images Dario Gamboni explores ambiguity in modern art considering images that rely to a great degree on a projected or imaginative response from viewers to achieve their effect Ambiguity became increasingly important in late 19th and early 20th century aesthetics as is evidenced in works by such artists as Redon Cezanne Gauguin Ensor and the Nabis Similarly the Cubists subverted traditional representational conventions requiring their viewers to decipher images to extract their full meanings The same device was taken up in the various experiments leading to abstraction For example it was Kandinsky's intention that his work could be interpreted in both figurative and non figurative ways and Duchamp's Readymades suggested the radical conclusion that it is the beholder who makes the picture These invitations to viewers to participate in the process of artistic communication had social and political implications as they accorded artist and beholder symmetrical almost interchangeable roles Textilforum, 2000 Chinoiserie Francesco Morena, 2009 The taste for chinoiserie which originated and developed in the West during the 17th century reinterpreted the themes ornamentation and decorative techniques of the Far East and China This volume is the first published on Italian Chinoiserie a style developed slightly later in Italy than at other European courts but which flourished rapidly and spectacularly during the 18th century when a passion for the Orient heavily influenced the rococo style Throughout the peninsula many of the Italian courts from the Bourbons in Sicily and Campania to the Savoy in Piedmont from the Veneto to papal Rome and including Florence and the Medici later Lorraine Grand Duchy indulged their enthusiasm for chinoiseries creating some intriguing works of art No field was left untouched and the author of this volume has taken pains to cover them all from architecture the Chinese Palace at Palermo to interior decorative painting the rooms frescoed by Tiepolo in Vicenza and the Chinese rooms of Naples and Palermo from ceramics and porcelain the Capodimonte Porcelain Room to cabinet making Venetian lacquered furniture in particular but also the Lacquer Room in Turin to fabrics and all other decorative arts ILLUSTRATIONS 200 colour 95 b w HALL, 2000
