The Cambridge Companion to English Poetry, Donne to Marvell Thomas N. Corns,1993-11-18 English poetry in the first half of the seventeenth century is an outstandingly rich and varied body of verse which can be understood and appreciated more fully when set in its cultural and ideological context This student Companion consisting of fourteen new introductory essays by scholars of international standing informs and illuminates the poetry by providing close reading of texts and an exploration of their background There are individual studies of Donne Jonson Herrick Herbert Carew Suckling Lovelace Milton Crashaw Vaughan and Marvell More general essays describe the political and religious context of the poetry explore its gender politics explain the material circumstances of its production and circulation trace its larger role in the development of genre and tradition and relate it to contemporary rhetorical expectation Overall the Companion provides an indispensable guide to the texts and contexts of early seventeenth century English poetry Reliques of Ancient English Poetry Thomas Percy, 2020-09-23 Reprint of the original first published in 1869 The Broadview Anthology of Sixteenth-Century Poetry and Prose Marie Loughlin, Sandra Bell, Patricia Brace, 2011-10-24 The Broadview Anthology of Sixteenth Century Poetry and Prose makes available not only extensive selections from the works of canonical writers but also substantial extracts from writers who have either been neglected in earlier anthologies or only relatively recently come to the attention of twentieth and twenty first century scholars and teachers Popular fiction and prose nonfiction are especially well represented including selections from popular romances merchant fiction sensation pamphlets sermons and ballads The texts are extensively annotated with notes both explaining unfamiliar words and providing cultural and historical contexts Typology of Seventeenth-Century Literature Joseph A. Galdon, 2019-01-14 No detailed description available for Typology of Seventeenth Century Literature All the poetry I recently wrote but went unread. Darren Hobson, 2021-10-01 This is a collection of poetry written over the last five years some of the poems were published as independent eBooks none of which got off the ground some of the collections were abandoned before being finished here you have a collection of poems that documents most of the world events and social issues from the last five years The path through these poems is dark and dangerous the path splinters off into many directions you will find yourself in the depths of a tortured mind and then find yourself in a haunted maze this work is deep and eccentric cruel and energetic in places angry and disturbing at the end of the day this is a guide to surviving in this new world ravaged by the pandemic and lashed by natural disasters Would you dare to read it Granger's Index to Poetry and Recitations , 1929 A Concordance to the Poems of Robert Browning ,
