Sexism And The War System Syracuse Studies On Peace And Conflict Resolution:

Sexism and the War System Betty A. Reardon, 1996-05-01 This work integrates feminist scholarship with peace research to draw attention to the fundamental relationship between sexism and militarism The author sees an unhealthy imbalance of male principles in modern society leading to war aggression greed and other embodiments of masculinity Encyclopedia of Violence, Peace, and Conflict ,2008-09-05 The 2nd edition of Encyclopedia of Violence Peace and Conflict provides timely and useful information about antagonism and reconciliation in all contexts of public and personal life Building on the highly regarded 1st edition 1999 and publishing at a time of seemingly inexorably increasing conflict and violent behaviour the world over the Encyclopedia is an essential reference for students and scholars working in the field of peace and conflict resolution studies and for those seeking to explore alternatives to violence and share visions and strategies for social justice and social change Covering topics as diverse as Arms Control Peace Movements Child Abuse Folklore Terrorism and Political Assassinations the Encyclopedia comprehensively addresses an extensive information area in 225 multi disciplinary cross referenced and authoritatively authored articles In his Preface to the 1st edition Editor in Chief Lester Kurtz wrote The problem of violence poses such a monumental challenge at the end of the 20th century that it is surprising we have addressed it so inadequately We have not made much progress in learning how to cooperate with one another more effectively or how to conduct our conflicts more peacefully Instead we have increased the lethality of our combat through revolutions in weapons technology and military training The Encyclopedia of Violence Peace and Conflict is designed to help us to take stock of our knowledge concerning these crucial phenomena Ten years on the need for an authoritative and cross disciplinary approach to the great issues of violence and peace seems greater than ever More than 200 authoritative multidisciplinary articles in a 3 volume set Many brand new articles alongside revised and updated content from the First Edition Article outline and glossary of key terms at the beginning of each article Entries arranged alphabetically for easy access Articles written by more than 200 eminent contributors from around the world Encyclopedia of Violence, Peace, & Conflict Lester R. Kurtz, 2008 The 2nd edition of Encyclopedia of Violence Peace and Conflict provides timely and useful information about antagonism and reconciliation in all contexts of public and personal life Building on the highly regarded 1st edition 1999 and publishing at a time of seemingly inexorably increasing conflict and violent behaviour the world over the Encyclopedia is an essential reference for students and scholars working in the field of peace and conflict resolution studies and for those seeking to explore alternatives to violence and share visions and strategies for social justice and social change Covering topics as diverse as Arms Control Peace Movements Child Abuse Folklore Terrorism and Political Assassinations the Encyclopedia comprehensively addresses an extensive information area in 225 multi disciplinary cross referenced and authoritatively authored articles Sexual Offenses in Armed Conflict and International Law Noëlle Quénivet, 2021-10-01 No lle N R Qu nivet has constructed a valuable tool for navigating the morass of sexual offences and international law Using

Bosnia Herzegovina a jumping off point she proceeds to show how over the last two decades the Western world has been swept up by a wave of feminist scholars writing about international law and more particularly humanitarian and human rights law Although these articles books and statements have covered a broad range of issues the focus has been on sexual offences and more specifically on rape in times of conflict These authors as well as NGOs supporting their ideas have made a series of assumptions concerning sexual offences in times of armed conflict On the basis of these presumptions they have claimed inter alia that international law does not adequately prohibit sexual offences and that prosecution is scarce This timely work examines whether the assumptions made by feminist scholars are solidly grounded in international law and whether their claims are still valid regarding the latest legal developments A thorough examination of the laws and the jurisprudence relating to sexual offences demonstrates that whereas before the creation of the ad hoc international criminal tribunals some of their claims were founded these claims are now partially ill founded Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint

Israel, Jordan, and the Peace Process Yehuda Lukacs,1997 Israel and Jordan even though self proclaimed enemies of one another practiced a relationship of interdependence based on corresponding interests In the years following the 1967 war these two countries fates were delicately intertwined because of many factors like mutual reliance on natural resources especially water and parallel interests in the subordination of the Palestinian national movement These conditions of commonality led to extensive ties between the two countries and approximated a state of de facto peace that ironically made an official peace treaty almost impossible to sign A formal peace treaty would have required not only Israel's withdrawal from the West Bank but also Jordan's acknowledgment of the clandestine contacts between the two formal enemies Yehuda Lukacs gives us an account of how this relationship changed in 1988 when Jordan disengaged from the West Bank This event combined with the Palestinian uprising and the Gulf War paved the way for Israel and Jordan in 1994 to sign the Israeli Jordanian peace treaty By systematically examining the impact of functional cooperation between two official enemies Lukacs makes an important contribution to Middle East studies and international conflict resolution

Feminist Interventions in Critical Peace and Conflict Studies Laura McLeod, Maria O'Reilly, 2021-05-30 This book provides a feminist intervention in Peace Conflict Studies It demonstrates why feminist approaches matter to theories and practices of resolving conflict and building peace Understanding power inequalities in contexts of armed conflict and peace processes is crucial for identifying the root causes of conflict and opportunities for peaceful transformation Feminist scholarship offers vital theoretical insights and innovative methods which can deepen our understanding of power relations in peacebuilding Yet all too often feminist research receives token acknowledgement rather than sustained engagement and analysis This collection highlights the value of feminist analysis to contemporary Peace and Conflict Studies Drawing on case studies from around the world including Croatia Myanmar Iceland Nepal India Afghanistan and Timor Leste it demonstrates why paying serious attention to feminist scholarship prompts useful insights for peacebuilding policy practice and scholarship Feminist theory epistemology and methodology provide a rich resource for critically analysing peacebuilding practices In particular the chapters highlight the value of feminist reflexivity the contributions of a feminist corporeal analysis and the significance of a feminist reading of core concepts in Peace and Conflict Studies including hybridity the local and the everyday The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Peacebuilding

Reflections on International Studies Michael Brecher, Frank P. Harvey, 2009-12-22 Collection of essays that debate the question of progress in the discipline Traveling to Vietnam Mary Hershberger, 1998-11-01 Traveling to Vietnam is the first book to document the little known activities of the American peace activists who traveled to Vietnam to meet with officials in Hanoi and with the National Liberation Front What began as an effort to provide information about the war to the American public encouraged travelers to organize mail deliveries between American prisoners of war in Hanoi and their families at home Activists included Mary Clarke of Women Strike for Peace Staughton Lynd former director of the 1964 Mississippi Freedom schools Dr George Perera of Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons who researched the effects of defoliants that Americans used during the war Elizabeth Boardman of A Quaker Action Group Joseph Elder of the American Friends Service Committee and actress Jane Fonda Although Washington officials opposed their endeavors seized their passports and bank accounts and usually refused to issue licenses for medical equipment and supplies the activists continued their efforts By 1967 they averaged one delegation trip a month to Hanoi They continued to bring back news from North Vietnam and won the release of some American pilots The Coming Age of Scarcity Michael N.

Dobkowski, Isidor Wallimann, 1998-03-01 Michael Dobkowski and Isidor Walliman have edited a book that although ominous is not a fatalistic look at the future The Coming Age of Scarcity lays out the perils of not recognizing the reality of genocide or of acknowledging the full implications of warfare Showing how scarcity and surplus populations can lead to disaster The Coming Age of Scarcity is about evil It tells of ethnic cleansing and excavates the world s expanding killing fields The writers in this volume are all too aware that the future suggests that present day population growth land resources energy consumption and per capita consumption cannot be sustained without leading to greater catastrophes The essays in this volume ask What is the solution in the face of mass death and genocide As philosopher John K Roth says in the Foreword The essays can sensitize us against despair and indifference because history shows that human made mass death and genocide are not inevitable and no events related to them will ever be The Gender Imperative Betty A. Reardon, Asha Hans, 2012-12-06 The book asserts that human security derives from the experience and expectation of human well being which depends on four essential conditions a life sustaining environment the meeting of essential physical needs respect for the identity and dignity of persons and groups protection from avoidable harm and expectations of remedy from them The book demonstrates their integral relationship to human security Patriarchy being the germinal paradigm from which most major human institutions such as the state the economy organised religions and social relations have evolved the book argues that fundamental inequalities must be challenged for the sake of equality and security The fundamental point raised is that expectation of human well being is a continuing cause of armed conflict which constitutes a threat to peace and survival of all humanity and human security cannot exist within a militarised security system The editors of the book bring together 14 essays which critically examine militarised security in order to find human security pathways show ways in which to refute the dominant paradigm indicate a clear gender analysis that challenges the current system and suggests alternatives to militarised security With a mix of female and male feminist scholar activists as contributors the book makes an important contribution to a new discourse on human security
