Left of Poetry Sarah Ehlers, 2019-04-11 In this incisive study Sarah Ehlers returns to the Depression era United States in order to unsettle longstanding ideas about poetry and emerging approaches to poetics By bringing to light a range of archival materials and theories about poetry that emerged on the 1930s left Ehlers reimagines the historical formation of modern poetics Offering new and challenging readings of prominent figures such as Langston Hughes Muriel Rukeyser and Jacques Roumain and uncovering the contributions of lesser known writers such as Genevieve Taggard and Martha Millet Ehlers illuminates an aesthetically and geographically diverse matrix of schools and movements Resisting the dismissal of thirties left writing as mere propaganda the book reveals how communist affiliated poets experimented with poetic modes such as lyric and documentary and genres including songs ballads and nursery rhymes in ways that challenged existing frameworks for understanding the relationships among poetic form political commitment and historical transformation As Ehlers shows Depression left movements and their international connections are crucial for understanding both the history of modern poetry and the role of poetic thought in conceptualizing historical change Arkansas Made: Photography, art Swannee Bennett, William B. The Photographic Journal of America ..., 1894 American Journal of Photography, 1887 Grasping Shadows William Chapman Sharpe, 2017-08-04 What s in a shadow Menace seduction or salvation Immaterial but profound shadows lurk everywhere in literature and the visual arts signifying everything from the treachery of appearances to the unfathomable power of God From Plato to Picasso from Rembrandt to Welles and Warhol from Lord of the Rings to the latest video game shadows act as central players in the drama of Western culture Yet because they work silently artistic shadows often slip unnoticed past audiences and critics Conceived as an accessible introduction to this elusive phenomenon Grasping Shadows is the first book that offers a general theory of how all shadows function in texts and visual media Arguing that shadow images take shape within a common cultural field where visual and verbal meanings overlap William Sharpe ranges widely among classic and modern works revealing the key motifs that link apparently disparate works such as those by Fra Angelico and James Joyce Clementina Hawarden and Kara Walker Charles Dickens and Kumi Yamashita Showing how real world shadows have shaped the meanings of shadow imagery Grasping Shadows guides the reader through the techniques used by

writers and artists to represent shadows from the Renaissance onward The last chapter traces how shadows impact the art of the modern city from Renoir and Zola to film noir and projection systems that capture the shadows of passers by on streets around the globe Extending his analysis to contemporary street art popular songs billboards and shadow theatre Sharpe demonstrates a practical way to grasp the dark side that looms all around us Greenworlds Diana M. A. Relke, 1999 Greenworlds rewrites the literary history of Canada from a feminist ecological perspective through a series of essays that examine the lives and work of nine women poets Using insights from fields of knowledge as disparate as history and biology physics and philosophy psychoanalysis and communications studies these essays reflect the transdisciplinary character of womens studies generally and feminist ecocriticism in particular Peter Goin and the Photography of Environmental Change Cheryll Glotfelty, Peter Goin, 2022-06-30 Peter Goin and the Photography of Environmental Change narrates the forty year quest of award winning and internationally exhibited contemporary photographer Peter Goin to document human altered landscapes across America and beyond It is a collaborative work between an artist and a literary critic a retrospective of an accomplished environmental photographer and an innovative education in visual reading Enduring howling wind pounding rain and blistering sun Goin bears witness to radioactive landscapes abandoned mines simulated swamps rechanneled rivers controlled burns overgrown ruins industrialized agriculture shrinking reservoirs feral spaces in the city architected wilderness sacred wastelands contested borderlands and more Based on more than seventy hours of taped interviews with the artist spanning over a decade trailblazing ecocritic Cheryll Glotfelty narrates the arc of Goin's career sharing excerpts from their conversations that reveal his brilliant mind and piquant personality while situating his work within the broader context of environmental thinkers This beautifully illustrated volume with 200 images in color and black and white showcasing Goin's work will be a fascinating and insightful read for upper level students academics and researchers in photography environmental history and culture landscape studies and environmental humanities
