Shadow Man The Life Of Dashiell Hammett:

Shadow Man Richard Layman, 1981 The legend of Dashiell Hammett the former Pinkerton detective who reinvented the mystery story in five books written between 1929 and 1934 is carefully examined here by Richard Layman in a meticulously factual account of all that is likely to be known about the real Continental Op This unsentimental account of Hammett from his rural Maryland youth through the Pinkerton years in San Francisco fame as a novelist notoriety as a Hollywood screen writer imprisonment as an uncooperative McCarthy committee witness and an obscure death in 1961 highlights the facts while accenting the shadow on which the legend would be built Book jacket

Dashiell Hammett and the Movies William H. Mooney, 2014-11-03 As the father of the hardboiled detective genre Dashiell Hammett had a huge influence on Hollywood Yet it is easy to forget how adaptable Hammett's work was fitting into a variety of genres and inspiring generations of filmmakers Dashiell Hammett and the Movies offers the first comprehensive look at Hammett's broad oeuvre and how it was adapted into films from the 1930s all the way into the 1990s Film scholar William H Mooney reveals the wide range of films crafted from the same Hammett novels as when The Maltese Falcon was filmed first as a pre Code sexploitation movie then as a Bette Davis screwball comedy and finally as the Humphrey Bogart classic He also considers how Hammett rose to Hollywood fame not through the genre most associated with him but through a much fizzier concoction the witty murder mystery The Thin Man To demonstrate the hold Hammett still has over contemporary filmmakers the book culminates in an examination of the Coen brothers pastiche Miller's Crossing Mooney not only provides us with an in depth analysis of Hammett adaptations he also chronicles how Hollywood enabled the author's own rise to stardom complete with a celebrity romance and a carefully crafted public persona Giving us a behind the scenes look at the complex power relationships cultural contexts and production concerns involved in bringing Hammett's work from the page to the screen Dashiell Hammett and the Movies offers a fresh take on a literary titan

The Social History of Crime and Punishment in America Wilbur R. Miller, 2012-07-20 Several encyclopedias overview the contemporary system of criminal justice in America but full understanding of current social problems and contemporary strategies to deal with them can come only with clear appreciation of the historical underpinnings of those problems Thus this five volume work surveys the history and philosophy of crime punishment and criminal justice institutions in America from colonial times to the present It covers the whole of the criminal justice system from crimes law enforcement and policing to courts corrections and human services Among other things this encyclopedia explicates philosophical foundations underpinning our system of justice charts changing patterns in criminal activity and subsequent effects on legal responses identifies major periods in the development of our system of criminal justice and explores in the first four volumes supplemented by a fifth volume containing annotated primary documents evolving debates and conflicts on how best to address issues of crime and punishment Its signed entries in the first four volumes supplemented by a fifth volume containing annotated primary documents provide the historical context for students to better understand contemporary criminological debates and the contemporary shape of the U S system of law and justice

John Huston: Courage and Art Jeffrey Meyers, 2011-09-27

From the acclaimed biographer of Ernest Hemingway Humphrey Bogart and Errol Flynn comes the first complete biography of the legendary John Huston the extraordinary director writer actor and bon vivant who made iconic films such as The Maltese Falcon The Treasure of the Sierra Madre The Asphalt Jungle and The African Queen and lived one of the most vibrant eventful lives in Hollywood history An actor in the 1920s and scriptwriter in the 1930s John Huston made his dazzling directorial debut in 1941 with The Maltese Falcon His career as a filmmaker spanned some fifty seven years and yielded thirty seven feature films He made most of his movies abroad spent much of his life in Ireland and Mexico and remains one of the most intelligent and influential filmmakers in history With equal attention given to Huston's impressive artistic output and tempestuous personal relationships biographer Jeffrey Meyers presents a vivid narrative of Huston's remarkably rich creative life The son of the famous stage and screen actor Walter Huston John Huston was born in Nevada City Missouri and suffered from a weak heart that forced him to live as an invalid for much of his childhood One day however he impulsively left his sickbed dove over a waterfall swam into a raging river and began to lead a strenuous life He became an expert sportsman as well as a boxer bullfighter hunter soldier gambler and adventurer Though he didn't finish high school he was a man of true genius a serious painter and amusing raconteur playwright and story writer stage and screen actor director of plays on Broadway and operas at La Scala autobiographer and political activist who crusaded against Senator Joseph McCarthy's anticommunist witch hunts in Hollywood He was a discerning collector of art and connoisseur of literature food and wine Passionate about horses and women he had five successively younger wives Meyers chronicles Huston's extraordinarily peripatetic life and examines his rise as a great masculine artist in the formidable tradition of Melville Conrad and Hemingway whose persona ethos prose style and virile code had a powerful influence on his life and work Thirty four of Huston's thirty seven films adapted important novels stories and plays and Meyers perceptively describes how Huston brilliantly transformed the written word into the cinematic image Huston's dominant theme is the almost impossible quest tempered by detachment and irony His heroes sacrifice honor in pursuit of wealth but fail in that venture are mocked by cruel fate and remain defiant in the face of defeat Based on research in Huston's personal and professional archives and interviews with his children friends and colleagues this is the dramatic story of a courageous artist who Meyers persuasively argues is one of the most fascinating men who ever lived From the Hardcover edition

Writers in Hollywood 1915-1951

Ian Hamilton, 2011-11-17 Legend has it that Hollywood lures gifted writers into its service with sunshine and money only to treat them as glorified typists and plot mechanics peripheral to the main business of moviemaking This is what Ian Hamilton describes as the writer in chains saga that emerges from any study of Hollywood during its so called golden years the period I have marked as running from 1915 1951 But in this superb account of what befell the likes of Faulkner Fitzgerald Chandler and Huxley by working for the Dream Factory Hamilton argues that these writers were in the movies by choice they earned far more money than their colleagues who did not write for films and in several cases they applied themselves conscientiously to the not unimportant task at hand And they had a lot of laughs Fascinating and enjoyable New Statesman Abounds in marvelous stories apocryphal fabulous funny and even true Observer Faber Finds is devoted to restoring to readers a wealth of lost or neglected classics and authors of distinction The range embraces fiction non fiction the arts and children s books For a full list of available titles visit www.faberfinds.co.uk To join the dialogue with fellow book lovers please see our blog www.faberfindsblog.co.uk

Irwin,2006-10-25 The noted literary critic delves into the psychology and significance of American hardboiled crime fiction and film noir of the 1930s and 40s Early in the twentieth century American crime novelists like Dashiell Hammett and Raymond Chandler put forward a new kind of character the hard boiled detective as exemplified by Sam Spade in The Maltese Falcon Unlike the analytical detectives of nineteenth century fiction these new detectives encountered cases not as intricate logical puzzles but as stark challenges of manhood John T Irwin explores how the stories of these characters grapple with ideas of American masculinity Professional codes are pitted against personal desires resulting in either ruinous relationships or solitary integrity In thematic conflicts between independence and subordination all notions of manly independence prove subordinate to the hand of fate Tracing the stylistic development of the genre Irwin demonstrates the particular influence of the novel of manners especially the writing of F Scott Fitzgerald He also shows that as hard boiled fiction began to appear on the screen in film noir it took on themes of female empowerment just as women entered the workforce in large numbers Finally he discusses how these themes persist in contemporary dramatic series on television representing the conflicted lives of Americans into the twenty first century
