Life to Those Shadows Noël Burch, 1990-11-21 Noël Burch's new book is a critique of the assumptions underlying classical approaches to film history the assumption that what we call the language of film was a natural organic development that it lay latent from the outset in the basic technology of the camera waiting for the prescient pioneers to bring it into being and the assumption that this language was a universal neutral medium innocent of any social or historical meaning in itself His major thesis is that on the contrary film language has a social and economic history that it evolved in the way it did because of when and where it was constructed in the capitalist and imperialist west between 1892 and 1929 The book examines the chronology of the emergence of what it defines as cinema's Institutional Mode of Representation and the socio historical circumstances in which this took place It examines the principles of visualisation camera placement and movement lighting editing mise en scene that film makers and audiences came to internalize over the first three decades Special emphasis is laid on the allimportant change that occurred in the imaginary placing of the spectator from a position of exteriority to the film image implicit in both film form and viewing conditions during the primitive era pre 1909 to the imaginary centering of the spectator subject completed only with the generalisation of lip synch sound after 1929 It is the contention of this book that this imaginary centering of a sensorily isolated spectator is the keystone of the cinematic illusion of reality still achieved today by the same means as it was sixty years ago Shadows of the Sun Katherine Matzen, 2023-11-15 Sabra Narvi knows exactly which planet she's from And this snow filled nightmare of a place isn't it While protecting the terminally ill Secretary of Defense at his Wyoming family ranch Medic Evan Stone and his team are trapped by an unexpected blizzard As the storm strengthens Evan finds a woman wandering in the snow who is dressed for a summer day and has no memory of how she got there And the things she does remember make no sense Sabra Narvi had an eidetic memory But now she doesn't know where she is how she got there or if she can trust the scant memories that haunt her brain She's a diplomat and a skilled fighter but has no training in First Contact procedures And the men who saved her from freezing to death have no idea their planet is on the verge of being invaded by the alien Falgarans Evan tries to deny his growing attraction to the woman who claims to be a healer even though she drives him crazy with her insane statements Sabra lost all chances at love when her family died but who would know she broke taboo on an alien planet When she finds signs of an alien invasion can Sabra convince Evan she isn't delusional Or will the Falgarans succeed in taking over Earth Shadows of the Sun is the third book in the Beryllian Alliance series It is a stand alone story but is better when read after At Night's End and Storm Clouds at Sunset All roads lead to Folly Springs CO where Terrans and aliens coexist Can Sabra convince them that their mutual enemy is on their doorstep
