Paradise Carolann Dowding,2013 An insightful account of a woman s perseverance through adoption secrecy and red tape SHADOWS IN PARADISE traces Carolann Dowding s search for her biological family Despite a wholesome upbringing by her adoptive family in a beautiful Queensland Australia Carolann is compelled to reconcile the silences of her past As an adult she reconnects with her birth mother and describes the unpredictable awkward struggles of their relationship until later in life a truce is drawn between them Through her own determination and with a boost from a private investigator Carolann courageously pursues a trail of clues leading to her mysterious birth father changing her life forever Illuminated by compassion tragedy and gratitude which span the generations SHADOWS IN PARADISE reveals the breadth of our need for truth and connection Shadowed by Three Lawrence L. Lynch,1882 Human Shadows Bright as Glass Howard D. Pearce,1997 A fresh approach to the dramatic experience is attempted in this book It begins with a consideration of Edmund

Husserl s attempt to clarify our understanding of immediate experience and takes into account Martin Heidegger s and Hans Georg Gadamer s movements from the phenomenology toward the individual s complex interactions and involvements in a world The Long Shadows of War David Evered ,2025-09-28 Mark is a successful political journalist Following the death of his emotionally constrained mother on the eve of the fall of the Berlin Wall he finds a journal written by his father George who was absent throughout his childhood It reveals the distinguished military record of a soldier charged with mine clearance in the ruins of post war Germany George s own words paint a vivid picture of the father Mark had scarcely known A man dedicated to his family despite tensions in his marriage and his growing friendship with a local woman He only becomes aware of the depth of his feelings for her as he is about to return home following demobilisation Mark had never challenged his mother s account of his father s death in 1947 He now sets out to dismantle the wall of silence she had erected and discover more His sister discourages him sensing that disturbing family secrets might be uncovered and his German born wife seeks to distance herself from his quest she is scared that she will be forced to confront painful memories of her wartime flight from East Prussia and her post war childhood Mark s quest leads to a transformative conclusion in Germany against the background of the reunification ceremonies Standing in the Shadows of Street Legends Vernon Lucas,2010-06-01 I have heard it said that we all shall pay for the sins of the father Someone once told me that when the next generation has it rough its because they are reaping what the generation before them has sowed This is what Creole people would call Blood Magic in the Basement or so Ive been told I am Vernon Lucas II and my father was a kingpin in the heroin drug trade I cant say that my adult life has been easy but at least as a child I never really wanted for anything Ive been told that since my family has helped to poison many people in America with illegal drugs that I was cursed to suffer in my adult life for their sins I almost believed that for a time I felt very restless in my adult life and very few goals that I set for myself ever worked out for me I felt ashamed and even embarrassed by my family until I began to research the reasons why they did what they did in the first place My father and his brothers came from very humble beginnings His mother my Grandmother was a field hand housewife and her husband my Grandfather was a share cropper as well as a bootlegger They lived loved and struggled in the segregated south of the early 1900s There have been rumors about how mean my Grandfather was but by the time I had to live with him he was much kinder and gentler My Fathers brother Frank Lucas was at least 20 years older than he was so it was natural for him to look up to my Uncle Frank as not only an older brother but also as somewhat of a Father figure Frank left home at a very early age to make his own way in life and turned to a life of crime out of necessity He became one of the best at what he did It was just a matter of time before my father eventually followed in his footsteps I am by no means condoning what they did in the 60s the chicken or the egg Meaning Was my lifes emotional instability inherited or was it caused by the way I had to live You be the judge I am hoping this autobiography serves some as a manual as well as entertainment through self education So in synopsis what Im trying to convey is that the Lucas family is so much more than this gangster image
