Masculinity in Contemporary Science Fiction by Men Sara Martín,2025-05-30 Masculinity in Contemporary Science Fiction by Men No Plans for the Future is the first comprehensive study of the self representation of men in SF novels published in the twenty first century by male authors Exploring a broad selection of writers and works the fourteen chapters present a panoramic overview of men s contributions to current SF and explore their slow but noticeable progress in the representation of gender The impact of feminism and gender studies and the demands of readers have profoundly transformed men's SF which now presents far more caring and vulnerable male characters. The old stereotypes are being replaced by a collective reflection on how men and masculinity are changing though the lack of a common agenda results in novels that while exciting and often challenging sometimes miss the chance to imagine a better anti-patriarchal pro-feminist future for men and for all human beings. The authors analysed include Robert Charles Wilson, Geoff Ryman, Samuel R. Delany, Richard K. Morgan, John Scalzi, Iain M. Banks, Ernest Cline, James S. A. Corey, Colson Whitehead, Andy Weir, Daniel H. Wilson, Ian McDonald, Yoon Ha Lee, Tade Thompson, Neal Stephenson and Kim Stanley Robinson.

The Overland Monthly, 1897 Overland Monthly, 1897 Of Sex and Faerie: further essays on Genre Fiction John Lennard, 2010. Taking up where Of Modern Dragons 2007 left off, these essays continue Lennard's investigation of the praxis of serial reading and the best genre fiction of recent decades including work by Bill James, Walter Mosley, Lois McMaster Bujold and Ursula K. Le Guin. There are groundbreaking studies of contemporary paranormal romance and of Hornblower's transition to space while the final essay deals with the phenomenon and explosive growth of fanfiction and with the increasingly empowered status of the reader in a digital world. There is an extensive bibliography of genre and critical work with eight illustrations. John Lennard is Director of Studies at Hughes Hall, Cambridge and has also taught for the Universities of London, Notre Dame and for the Open University and was Professor of British American Literature at the University of the West Indies, Mona, 2004-09. Of Modern Dragons and other essays on genre fiction 2007 is also available from Lulu.

Trombone Craig Nova, 2002. Nova's classic novel is a powerful and poignant portrait of the complexities between an arsonist father and his good son. Dean Gollancz is an easygoing man of modest means. He commits arson for a gangster in Los Angeles and his son Ray must decide how much of his own life to sacrifice for Dean's respect.

Friends in High Places Douglas Frantz, David McKean, 1995. For more than forty years, Clark Clifford was Washington's consummate Democratic power broker, attorney and adviser to the nation's most influential leaders. His 1991 memoir Counsel to the President looked back on a remarkable career of public service. But the very year his autobiography was published, the Clifford legend began to crumble. Caught up in the scandal that destroyed the Bank of Credit and Commerce International, the eighty-five year old Clifford was arrested on charges relating to his law firm's involvement with the outlaw bank. Though his case never went to trial and his protégé Robert Altman was found not guilty, Clifford's reputation was in ruins. How could such a man come to such an end? What happened? And why? In Friends in High Places, a noted investigative reporter and a chief investigator in the Senate inquiry on BCCI provide the answers. Drawing on original documents, more than a hundred interviews with Clifford's friends and adversaries, and fifty hours of interviews with Clifford himself, the authors reveal the drive and shrewdness that led Clifford to the pinnacle of power and demonstrate convincingly that his involvement with BCCI was no aberration but the bitter fruit of seeds planted at the beginning.

Gothic Science Fiction 1980-2010 Sara Wasson, Emily Alder, 2011-01-01. Gothic fiction's focus on the irrational and supernatural would seem to conflict with science fiction's rational foundations.

However as this novel collection demonstrates the two categories often intersect in rich and revealing ways Analyzing a range of works including literature film graphic novels and trading card games from the past three decades through the lens of this hybrid genre this volume examines their engagement with the era s dramatic changes in communication technology medical science and personal and global politics
