Niekerk

Shadows By Saul J:

Shadows John Saul, 2010-11-03 They call it the Academy A secluded cliff top mansion overlooking the rugged Pacific coast A school for children gifted or cursed with extraordinary minds Children soon to come under the influence of an intelligence even more brilliant than their own and unspeakably evil For within this mind a dark plan is taking form A plan so horrifying no one will believe it No one but the children And for them it is already too late Too late unless one young student can resist the seductive invitation that will lead into the Shadows

Shadows John Saul, 1993 As one by one the children housed at The Academy a clifftop mansion school for gifted children begin to die mysterious deaths Josh McCallum a brilliant but lonely boy knows that someone or something evil is to blame Reprint Shadow of Liberation Vishnu

Padayachee, Robert Van Niekerk, 2019-10-01 Shadow of Liberation explores the intricate twists turns contestations and compromises of ANC economic and social policymaking with a focus on the transition era of the 1990s and the early years of democracy With the damning revelations by the Zondo Commission of Inquiry into State Capture on the massive corruption of the South African body politic the timing of this book could not be more relevant South Africans need to confront the economic and social policy choices that the liberation movement made and to see how these decisions may have facilitated the conditions for corruption to emerge and flourish Answers are needed Padayachee and van Niekerk focus their attention on the primary question of how and why the ANC given its historical anti inequality redistributive stance come in the 1990s to such a dramatic turn around and move towards an essentially market dominated approach Were they pushed or did they go willingly What role if any did Western governments and international financial institutions play And what of the role of the late apartheid state and South African business Did leaders and comrades sell out the ANC's emancipatory policy vision Shadow of Liberation tries to provide answers to these questions drawing on the best available primary archival evidence as well as extensive interviews with key protagonists across the political non government and business spectrum The authors argue that the ANC's emancipatory policy agenda was broadly to establish a social democratic welfare state upholding rights of social citizenship However its economic policy framework to realise this emancipatory mission was either non existent or egregiously misguided

In The Shadow of Mandela Alexander Johnston, 2019-12-12 This outstanding and original work goes to the heart of South Africa's political problems doubts as to the sustainability of the post apartheid settlement beset with divisions in the ruling ANC factionalism corruption and the widening of fault lines in state and society The leadership issue has become key and this will be the first specific examination of leadership in the light of Mandela's legacy and its effect on his successor as potential and actual leaders all in the shadow of Mandela as the architect of the transition from apartheid to democracy and with overarching moral authority and international reputation Alexander Johnston shows how his successors are judged against Mandela's achievements including the potentially impressive lost leaders and concentrating on his immediate successors Thabo Mbeki and Jacob Zuma The book concludes with an in depth assessment of new president

Cyril Ramaphosa's potential to be a leader for a new dawn. This is an objective and critical work by a close observer who acknowledges the achievement of South African leadership but is acutely aware of the doubts as to the sustainability of South Africa's hard won democratic settlement. An essential read for all readers interested in leadership and in the traumatic history and future of Africa's leading state as the continent rises to global importance.

Philosophising Experiences and Vision of the Female Body, Mind, and Soul: Historical Context and Contemporary Theory Musungafi, Maxwell Constantine Chando, Mafumbate, Racheal, Khumalo, Thandi Fredah, 2021-04-23. Much of our understanding of the world our societies and ourselves rests on theories and knowledge generated predominantly by men of certain nationalities and economic classes. This male dominated and culturally specific theorizing and knowledge have generally resulted in the exclusion of women and other groups from the process of formal theorizing and knowledge building. Feminism argues that the male dominated knowledge represents a skewed perception of reality and is only partial knowledge. Feminism is a generalized wide ranging system of ideas about social life and human experience developed from a woman centered perspective. It treats women as the central subjects in the investigative process and seeks to see the world from the distinctive vantage points of women in the social world. The best way to empower women and better the situation for women is to take women's daily experiences and their informal theorizing into account and on this basis adopt feminist approaches to building theory and knowledge. Philosophising Experiences and Vision of the Female Body Mind and Soul: Historical Context and Contemporary Theory provides an overview and introduction to the study of feminist theory and practice in the social sciences. This book provides a starting point for further and more advanced study of the nexus of feminism gender and development and translates feminist theory and concepts into practice. The chapters investigate in a historical context mainstream and contemporary theories of feminism and gender studies. This book is ideal for post graduate students of social science researchers of development management business management public governance and gender and development activists feminists and practitioners stakeholders researchers academicians and students interested in feminist theory and knowledge building.

In Glory's Shadow Catherine S. Manegold, 2009-12-09. In Glory's Shadow explores the history of The Citadel, an institution set on preserving tradition in the face of profound change. Established as protection against slave insurrections feared by the white minority of Charleston, South Carolina, a generation later The Citadel was a school of privilege for young white men. Through two world wars it grew in size and reputation, proudly providing the United States with male military leaders, paying little heed to what was happening in the country around it. In 1993, when the school rescinded Shannon Faulkner's admission because of her gender, a landmark legal battle ensued. Faulkner won, and although she faced vicious harassment and left after a week, The Citadel was forced to reform. Nearly 30 women have graduated since her brief time at The Citadel. In Glory's Shadow is an engrossing and illuminating look at this pivotal event in military history and the history of women.

Investigating Light and Shadow with Young Children (Ages 3-8) Beth Dykstra Van

Meeteren,2022-06-17 Children are intrigued by switches that power a light source and by items that reflect light and sparkle and they take notice of personal shadows cast on the playground An understanding of light and shadow is crucial to many STEM fields including astronomy biology engineering architecture and more This book shows teachers how to engage children ages 3 8 with light and shadow in a playful way building an early foundation for the later more complex study of this phenomena and ultimately for children s interest in professions within the STEM fields The text offers guidance for arranging the physical environment of classrooms integrating literacy learning and investigations and building partnerships with administrators Each volume in the STEM for Our Youngest Learners Series includes examples of educators and children engaging in inquiry learning guidance for selecting materials and arranging the learning environment modifications and accommodations for diverse learners support for establishing adult learning communities and more The Shadow of a Great Rock Harold Bloom,2011-09-13 Examines the King James translation of the Bible comparing it with other translations and noting its superiority over previous editions and highlights the influences of the King James Bible in literature from the Romantic era to today Illuminating Shadow Figures in Scripture Chantal J. Klingbeil,Gerald A. Klingbeil,2010 If youve ever felt unimportantthat your lifes work hasnt made even the tiniest ripple in the grand scheme of thingsyoure not alone Meet a few of the shadow figures in Scripture who probably felt the exact same way people who lived out their lives in anonymity except for a few words recorded in the Bible Explore the lives and times of these minor characterssome silent and passive others bold and aggressive still others weak and vacillatingand discover that even those who are nameless in Scripture had a definite place in Gods overarching plan Fiction Index Three Gerald Brooks Cotton,1988 Shadow of Spirit Philippa Berry,Andrew Wernick,2006-04-27 By illuminating the striking affinity between the most innovative aspects of postmodern thought and religious mystical discourse Shadow of Spirit challenges the long established assumption that western thought is committed to nihilism This collection of essays by internationally recognised scholars explores the implications of the fascination with the sacred divine or infinite which characterizes much contemporary thought It shows how these concerns have surfaced in the work of Derrida Baudrillard Lyotard Kristeva Irigaray and others Examining the connection between this postmodern turn and the current search for a new discourse of ethics and politics it also stresses the contribution made by feminist thought to this unexpected intellectual direction Shadow Self Mark Chironna,2024-09-17 Turn your darkest moments into opportunities for lasting joy and well being Discover how to make resurrection a daily practice and transform your worst failures into opportunities for true healing strength and a life fully lived Embark on a transformative journey with Shadow Self where pastor and philosopher Mark Chironna guides you through the depths of the human soul Here shadows and the potential for resurrection coexist Chironna invites you to face your darkest corners head on not merely to heal but to truly live Drawing on powerful biblical and cultural stories from Moses to Michael Corleone from Elijah to Spiderman he shows how our fears and dreams awaken our desire to confront adversities with courage The key to every story The shadows Our heroes like ourselves are not immune to pain and failure Anxiety and fear Grief and loss Financial stress Old trauma and wounds Social strife These shadowy parts of ourselves those things we try to hide are not residues to bury They are the means of our flourishing the tools to find and live our fullest self Our darkest moments are essential Our greatest mistakes become the very means by which we summon strength and find our truest selves According to Chironna this means of grace is resurrection Resurrection is not just a historical event but a daily practice a habit of rising above life's trials Practicing resurrection leads us out of the shadows Through this practice we move from languishing to flourishing We rediscover joy and move beyond trauma and fear toward a life well lived Shadow Self offers a roadmap from grief and isolation to healing and wholeness showing how to flourish even when hope seems lost This book challenges you to embrace failure as a necessary part of your journey to grace inviting you to step into the shadows confront your pain and emerge resurrected whole and fully alive Crime Fiction and Film in the Southwest Steve Glassman, Maurice J.

O'Sullivan, 2001 When Joe Leaphorn and Jim Chee Tony Hillerman's oddly matched tribal police officers patrol the mesas and canyons of their Navajo reservation they join a rich tradition of Southwestern detectives In Crime Fiction and Film in the Southwest a group of literary critics tracks the mystery and crime novel from the Painted Desert to Death Valley and Salt Lake City In addition the book includes the first comprehensive bibliography of mysteries set in the Southwest and a chapter on Southwest film noir from Humphrey Bogart's tough hood in The Petrified Forest to Russell Crowe's hard-nosed cop in L.A. Confidential

Apprentices' Library, 1888 Masculinity, Class and Same-Sex Desire in Industrial England, 1895-1957 Helen

Smith, 2015-10-05 Masculinity Class and Same Sex Desire in Industrial England 1895-1957 explores the experiences of men who desired other men outside of the capital In doing so it offers a unique intervention into the history of sexuality but it also offers new ways to understand masculinity working class culture regionality and work in the period Trouble With Gender

Alex Byrne, 2023-10-04 Sex used to rule Now gender identity is on the throne Sex survives as a cheap imitation of its former self assigned at birth on a spectrum socially constructed and definitely not binary Apparently quite a few of us fall outside the categories male and female But gender identity is said to be universal we all have one Humanity used to be cleaved into two sexes whereas now the crucial division depends on whether our gender identity aligns with our body If it does we are cisgender if it does not we are transgender The dethroning of sex has meant the threat of execution for formerly noble words such as woman and man In this provocative bold and humane book the philosopher Alex Byrne pushes back against the new gender revolution Drawing on evidence from biology psychology anthropology and sexology Byrne exposes the flaws in the revolutionary manifesto The book applies the tools of philosophy accessibly and with flair to gender sex transsexuality patriarchy our many identities and our true or authentic selves The topics of Trouble with Gender are relevant to us all This is a book for anyone who has wondered Is sex binary Why are men and women different What is a woman or simply Where can I go to know more about these controversies Revolutions devour their own children and the gender revolution is no exception Trouble with Gender joins the forefront of the counter revolution restoring sex to its rightful place at the centre of what it means to be human Ownership and Governance of Companies Jonathan Michie,Vishnu Padayachee,2021-06-29 Apartheid South Africa was often thought to run in the interests of the business elite Yet 27 years after apartheid those business interests remain largely entrenched Why Did the South African business community play a role in engineering this outcome perhaps recognising the apartheid era was over and jumping ship in time Conversely the mission of the ANC was widely perceived to be to shift wealth and power into the hands of the whole community Yet despite black empowerment measures corporate ownership remains largely in white hands and certainly in the hands of an elite few even though no longer restricted to whites This picture is replicated across the global south where corporate ownership tends to be concentrated in the hands of an elite rather than being more democratically spread Why have alternative corporate forms not been pursued more vigorously with ownership in the hands of customers employees and local communities In the case of South Africa where the majority of customers and employees are black this could have delivered on the ANC s mission to replace the apartheid era with a democratic one in terms of wealth incomes and power as well as in terms of voting and civic rights This edited volume explores all these questions and looks at ways to align corporate forms with economic and social goals The chapters in this book were originally published as special issues of International Review of Applied Economics

In the Shadow of Empire Pamela Barmash,Mark W. Hamilton Hamilton,2021-11-05 Empires Come and Go Homelands Never Readers of the Hebrew Bible know the basic story line during the early sixth century BCE the Babylonian ruler Nebuchadnezzar sacked Jerusalem deported a portion of the population to Mesopotamia and triggered a crisis of faith in the minds of prophets priests and liturgists that still echoes through the centuries Though many Judahites chose to make their way home under Persian imperial control the straightforward biblical story of exile and return masks many complex issues of evidence and fact Unlike previous studies that focused narrowly on the Babylonian exile of the Judahite elites this volume widens the geographical and temporal scope to include the Assyrian Babylonian and Persian Empires Improved access to and understanding of relevant texts iconography and material culture provide an opportunity for scholars to reappraise methods of imperial control and the responses of those in exile and under occupation Contributors Pamela Barmash Ryan P Bonfiglio Caralie Cooke Lisbeth S Fried Martien A Halvorson Taylor Mark W Hamilton Matt Waters and Ian D Wilson lay a firm foundation for future work on the long sixth century Responses to 7 October: Law and Society Rosa Freedman,David Hirsh,2024-05-29 One of three volumes responding to the 7 October attack Law and Society begins with a legal and a genocide studies critique of the claim that Israel is genocidal another reflects on the absence of an understanding of antisemitism in international legal discourse There are reflections on experiences in the Palestine solidarity movement and on the twists that discourse there takes Contributions draw on Judaism feminism and sociology to face what happened and to trace how Israelis were transported back to a quintessentially pre Israel Jewish experience Others survey reports of antisemitism around the globe in the wake of 7 October including pieces about Britain and Germany This work will appeal to scholars students and activists with an interest in antisemitism Jewish studies and the politics of Israel St. James Guide to Horror, Ghost & Gothic Writers David Pringle, 1998 As a companion volume to St James Guide to Fantasy Writers this volume concentrates on those types of fiction which may be labelled as horror novels dark fantasies ghost stories gothic novels tales of terror supernatural fictions occult fantasies black magic stories psychological thrillers tales of unease grand guignol shockers creepy stories shudder pulp fictions contes cruels uncanny stories macabre fictions and weird tales Editor s note p ix
