Perfect Rivals Jeff Carroll, 2010-08-31 College football is a sport of rivalries and no two teams were ever more perfectly matched than the Miami Hurricanes and the Notre Dame Fighting Irish In Perfect Rivals award winning sportswriter Jeff Carroll takes us inside the locker rooms and onto the gridiron as two storied programs with very different cultures battle for national supremacy school pride and the soul of the game itself Beginning with the Hurricanes nationally televised 58-7 pasting of the Irish at the Orange Bowl in November 1985 the two teams faced each other five times over a six year span The last three of those games had national championship implications as a resurgent Notre Dame sought to reclaim its historic preeminence against a faster mouthier more talented Miami squad notorious for trash talking opponents stalking out of pregame buffets and wearing military fatigues on the team plane The games were marked by heartbreaking finishes disputed plays and nasty onfield brawls Adding fuel to the fire was a controversial slogan created by a Notre Dame student and picked up by the press Catholics vs Convicts which served to heighten the cultural and some would say racial tension between the opposing schools Carroll's fast paced up close and personal narrative centers on a handful of colorful characters on both sides of the rivalry the coaches from dapper Jimmy Johnson to punctilious Lou Holtz and the players including Miami's Steve Walsh a quiet Midwesterner and one time Holtz recruit who defied the freewheeling Miami stereotype and devout Baptist Tony Rice only the second black quarterback in Notre Dame history who defined the rivalry and decided the contests Filled with your are there depictions of game action and insights drawn from Carroll's unfettered access to many of the major figures involved Perfect Rivals is a vivid re creation of one of the most entertaining eras in the history of college football

The Irish and the Making of American Sport, 1835-1920 Patrick R. Redmond, 2015-03-07 Jerrold Casway coined the phrase The Emerald Age of Baseball to describe the 1890s when so many Irish names dominated teams rosters But one can easily agree and expand that the period from the mid 1830s well into the first decade of the 20th century and assign the term to American sports in general This book covers the Irish sportsman from the arrival of James Deaf Burke in 1836 through to Jack B Kelly's rejection by Henley regatta and his subsequent gold medal at the 1920 Olympics It avoids recounting the various victories and defeats of the Irish sportsman seeking instead to deal with the complex interaction that he had with alcohol gambling and Sunday leisure pleasures that were banned in most of America at some time or other between 1836 and 1920 This book also covers the Irish sportsman s close relations with politicians his role in labor relations his violent lifestyle and by contrast his participation in bringing respectability to sport It also deals with native Irish sports in America the part played by the Irish in Team USA s initial international sporting ventures and in the making and breaking of amateurism within sport The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1977 Assembly West Point Association of Graduates (Organization).,1997 American Sportswriters and Writers on Sport Richard Orodener,2001 Focuses on nineteenth century sportswriters and certain writers born after 1930 Discusses the styles of sportswriting employed in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Includes information on twentieth century authors who crossed over from serious literature to sportswriting as well as the history of sportswriting
