

The background of the entire page is a reproduction of Michelangelo's famous fresco, "The Creation of Adam". It depicts the reclining position of Adam on the left, reaching towards the right, and the reclining position of God on the right, reaching towards the left. The composition is dynamic, with strong contrasts between light and shadow, emphasizing the divine spark and the human condition.

Descartes' Meditative Turn Christopher J. Wild, 2024-03-19 Why would Ren Descartes the father of modern rationalist philosophy choose meditations a term and genre associated with religious discourse and practice for the title of his magnum opus that lays the metaphysical foundations for his reform of all knowledge including mathematics and sciences Why did he believe that the immortality of the soul and the existence of God which the Meditations on First Philosophy set out to demonstrate can only be made self evident through meditating These are the question that Christopher Wild s book answers Descartes discovered the foundations of a marvelous science through a dramatic conversion in southern Germany in the winter of 1619 The spiritual and cognitive exercises derived from ancient philosophy and the Christian meditative tradition which Descartes deployed in the Meditations enable readers to discover metaphysical truths with the same degree of self evidence with which Descartes did during his own conversion Descartes meditative turn Wild argues brings to a culmination a lifelong preoccupation with the practice or craft of thinking known as Cartesian method By joining meditation to method the Meditations becomes the founding document for a Cartesian art of turning a new practice of both thought and life

Martin Luther's Understanding of Faith and Reality (1513-1521) Ilmari Karimies, 2022-08-03 Ilmari Karimies investigates Martin Luther s understanding of reality and faith He examines Luther s understanding of reality from three perspectives firstly God as the self giving highest good uniting opposites and hiding beneath them secondly the visible and invisible world and thirdly human beings as tripartite body soul spirit and bipartite flesh spirit The author explores the cognitive conflict between these in relation to spirit s grasping of God and the invisible world with reference to Augustinian Platonism He analyses aspects of faith from the perspective of the theory of divine illumination and shows that Luther represents a realistic Augustinian view Faith functions as the theological intellect grasping the invisible world and showing human beings the future good in a manner similar to the medieval notion of ecstatic knowledge It differs from vision in glory because of sin as mixed with humanity and as partial knowledge *Rev.
