 Carl E. Braaten, 1985 First published in 1983 Principles of Lutheran Theology has guided students into theological reflection on the landmarks of Christian faith as understood in the Lutheran confessional heritage for a generation The book sets forth the main principles of classical Lutheran theology but with an eschatological accent Canon confession ecumenicity Christ centeredness sacrament law gospel and two kingdoms are all examined not only in terms of their original meaning and historical development but also in light of current reflections In this new edition Braaten takes stock of the research and reflection of the last twenty five years and also adds a chapter on the distinctive Archimedean Lutheran insight into the hiddenness of God as a fount or ground of all theologizing This new edition cross referenced to key readings in Luther's Works and The Book of Concord will both equip and facilitate the search for a contemporary articulation of Christian identity in light of the church's historic commitments Koinonia and the Quest for an Ecumenical Ecclesiology Lorelei F. Fuchs, 2008 The word koinonia has gained prominence in recent ecumenical discussions In this original and substantial work Lorelei Fuchs proposes the theological idea of koinonia commonly translated as communion or fellowship as the key to moving fractured churches toward a future unity Fuchs challenges churches to move beyond mere dialogue and to apply ecumenical insights at the local level She begins by relating the exegetical meaning of koinonia to its ecumenical meaning tracing the place of koinonia both within the churches and between the churches She then examines the concept of koinonia in the extensive and fruitful dialogues that have taken place between Lutherans Anglicans and Roman Catholics finally articulating a symbolic competence for communionality that provides a rich and workable way forward for church unity at all levels Encompassing the latest in ecumenical thought Koinonia and the Quest for an Ecumenical Ecclesiology provides a broad thoughtful framework for realizing Christ's prayer that all may be one so that the world may believe The Lutheran Confessions Charles P. Hinlicky, 2020-05-06 In this book Lutheran theologian Paul Hinlicky makes the deeply conflicted origins of Lutheran theology fruitful for the future Exploring this intellectual and spiritual tradition of thought through its major historical chapters Hinlicky rejects essentialist projects exposing the debilitating binaries such programs engender and perpetuate to establish an authentic Luther theology or Lutheran theology Hinlicky excavates the ways that throughout a five hundred year tradition the legacy of Luther texts has been appropriated retooled subverted or developed Readers of this introduction will thus be critically equipped to make intellectually honest appropriations of the Luther legacy in the plurality of contemporary
