Nurses, Patients, and Pocketbooks Committee on the Grading of Nursing Schools, May Ayres Burgess, 1928 This book presents the results of a study of the economic factors which most directly affect nursing education Page 30 The Survey, 1926 Modern Hospital, 1918 Nursing World, 1920 Nurses' Journal of the Pacific Coast, 1910 Pale Girl Speaks Hillary Fogelson, 2012-09-25 Hillary Fogelson led a charmed life as the young wife of a successful Hollywood executive her only major concerns were her acting auditions interior decorating and unexpected visits from her high maintenance parents Then one day her doctor told her she had malignant melanoma a cancer that leads to more deaths for women between the age of 25 and 30 than any other and her life was forever changed Pale Girl Speaks is the darkly funny story of Fogelson's neuroses and struggles after her diagnosis with melanoma In her witty wisecracking narrative Fogelson recounts how her battle with cancer brings up other issues in her life that she's been ignoring especially her anxieties about her relationship with her husband her friends and her parents The apprehension she feels soon manifests itself in more concrete ways panic attacks heavy reliance on alcohol and a compulsive need to constantly check in with her doctor but when her father discovers that he has melanoma as well Fogelson has to learn to lead by example and let go of her fear A story that will appeal to anyone who has faced adversity and lived to tell jokes about it Pale Girl Speaks is about one woman who experienced the worst possible fallout of being fair skinned and survived with her sense of humor intact The Trained Nurse and Hospital Review, 1906 A monthly magazine of practical nursing devoted to the improvement and development of the graduate nurse Victory, 1942 Victory United States. Office of War Information, 1942 Current Issues in Nursing Peta Allan, Moya Jolley, 2013-11-11 The editors' intention in the production of this book was to provide a realistic picture of the present state of nursing This has been presented from a number of different but interlinked perspectives The decades since the inception of the National Health Service have been ones of significant change both in society at large and in the field of health care The period has witnessed political economic social scientific and technological change taking place ever more rapidly whilst in terms of health care demand and expectations continue to increase apace Nursing throughout the period has been influenced by and has responded to these prevailing influences and continues to do so Contributors to this volume have sought to examine in depth some of the current issues in nursing at the present time Each chapter examines a specific issue in the current nursing context and is therefore capable of standing alone But considered together the chapters enable many aspects of the current debate on and development of nursing to be seen as a whole It is hoped that this book will serve two fundamental purposes First to stimulate debate and activity by all nurses in their particular sphere of influence and in the wider world of nursing Second it aims to inform those undertaking pre or post registration nursing programmes and thus assist their understanding of the state of nursing
