Lyautey And The French Conquest Of Morocco:

Lyautey and the French Conquest of Morocco William A. Hoisington Jr, 1995-08-11 Lyautey and the French Conquest of Morocco describes and analyzes the method of colonial conquest and rule linked to the name of Marshal Louis Hubert Lyautey 1854 1934 France's first resident general in Morocco and the most famous of France's 20th century overseas soldier administrators Lyautey popularized the notions of peaceful penetration and indirect rule as part of a grand colonial design of military pacification economic development political modernization and social betterment For Lyautey imperialism could be a life giving force for both Frenchmen and Moroccans alike and during his thirteen years as resident general he boldly promoted France's actions in Morocco as the highest form of imperialism This book traces the development of Lyautey's ideas on conquest and rule at home and abroad and shows how they translated into practice While there was much that was praiseworthy in Lyautey's approach to colonial matters in the end force always remained more effective than anything else and whether used gently or severely it failed to stem Moroccan resistance to French rule Based on archival material in Morocco and France Lyautey and the French Conquest of Morocco is the first book to deal in a detailed manner with French pacification strategy in Morocco and with the mechanics of indirect rule always in reality rather more direct than indirect It should be of great value to readers of 19th and 20th century French European and North African history and to students of colonialism and imperialism

French Military Rule in Morocco Moshe Gershovich, 2012-10-12 This analysis of French colonial ideology and interest in Morocco delineates the manner in which the agents of the protectorate regime sought to conquer the country and control its indigenous inhabitants Numerous comparative perspectives are offered placing the French policy towards Morocco in a wider context making this study relevant to not only North Africa but also to other parts of the post colonial world

Lamentation and Modernity in Literature, Philosophy, and Culture R. Saunders, 2007-10-01 Saunders analyzes the ideological uses of loss in literary philosophical and social texts from the late 19th and 20th centuries through the lens of women's lament traditions and includes philosophical texts by Nietzsche Heidegger and Derrida and literary works by William Faulkner Stéphane Mallarmé Dimitris Hatzis and Tahar Ben Jelloun

The French empire between the wars Martin Thomas, 2017-03-01 By considering the distinctiveness of the inter war years as a discrete period of colonial change this book addresses several larger issues such as tracing the origins of decolonization in the rise of colonial nationalism and a re assessment of the impact of inter war colonial rebellions in Africa Syria and Indochina The book also connects French theories of colonial governance to the lived experience of colonial rule in a period scarred by war and economic dislocation

Anthropology, Colonial Policy and the Decline of French Empire in Africa Douglas W. Leonard, 2019-12-26 Conceived as both a vehicle to national prestige and as a civilizing mission the second French colonial empire 1830 1962 challenged soldiers scholars and administrators to understand societies radically different from their own The resultant networks of anthropological inquiry however did not have this effect Rather they opened pathways to political and intellectual independence framed in the language of social science and in the process upended the colonial political system and reshaped the nature of human inquiry in France While still unequal French colonial rule in Africa revealed the durability and strength of non European modes of thought In this influential new study historian Douglas W Leonard examines the political and intellectual repercussions of French efforts to understand and to dominate colonial Africa through the use of anthropology From General Louis Faidherbe in the 1840s to politician Jacques Soustelle and sociologist Pierre Bourdieu in the 1950s these French thinkers sowed the seeds of colonial destruction Wars Of Imperial Conquest Bruce Vandervort,2015-01-28 First Published in 1998 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informal company A Global Chronology of Conflict Spencer C.
