Erickson, 2025-09-30

This handbook is an innovative recasting and reinterpretation of modern Turkish history centered on war and society It covers much neglected conflicts and wars and provides new insights about its complex politics military diplomacy and people The Turkish Republic was born after a series of wars which dismantled the Ottoman Empire and left the foundation of a state with new and reduced borders Turkey's foreign policy has been characterized for the last century by Mustafa Kemal Atatürk's principle of peace at home peace in the world but in practice it has had to fight foreign wars outside of its geography and battle counterinsurgency inside its borders against various rebel movements Although wars and conflicts were instrumental in shaping Turkey they have received very little scholarly attention and they are mostly absent in western studies of modern Turkey Rather than advocating for a single accepted interpretation of Turkish history this book aims to highlight the complexity of modern Turkish history and the diversity in interpretations Presenting a coherent and condensed history of modern Turkey in a reader friendly way this handbook offers students and general readers the sound background to better understand Turkey within its international and transnational context Modern Turkish Poetry, 1959 Making the Modern Turkish Citizen Özge Baykan Calafato, 2022-01-27 Featuring over 100 colour images this book explores the photographic self representations of the urban middle classes in Turkey in the 1920s and the 1930s Examining the relationship between photography and gender body space as well as materiality and language its six chapters explore how the production and circulation of vernacular photographs contributed to the making of the modern Turkish citizen in the formative years of the Turkish Republic when nation building secularization and modernization reforms took centre stage Based on an extensive photographic archive the book shows that individuals actively reproduced circulated and negotiated the ideal citizen image imposed by the Kemalist regime reflecting not only state imposed directives but also their class aspirations and other wider social and cultural developments of the period from Western fashion trends and movies to the increasing availability of modern consumer items Calafato also reveals that the freedom from state control afforded by personal cameras allowed the desired image to be sometimes tweaked by incorporating elements from Ottoman and Turkish traditions by pushing the boundaries of gender norms or by introducing playfulness Making the Modern Turkish Citizen offers a valuable portrait of the ongoing political and social changes on the lives of the Turkish middle class and of how they saw and wanted to present themselves privately and publicly Forming the Modern Turkish Village Özge Sezer, 2022-11-07 During the early republican period architectural interventions in rural Turkey took the form of social engineering as part of the state's modernization and nationalization policies zge Sezer demonstrates how the state's particular programs had a powerful effect on rural life in the countryside She examines the regime's goals and strategies for controlling the rural people through development projects and demographic shaping to create a strong Turkish identity and a loyal citizenry The book outlines the implementation of new rural settlements particularly following the 1934 Settlement Law with a geographic focus on two cities Izmir and Elazig with varied socio economic and ethnic standing in the state program
