Howard, Roger Straus III, 2012-11-06 Houses of the Presidents offers a unique tour of the houses and day to day lives of America's presidents from George Washington's time to the present Author Hugh Howard weaves together personal presidential and architectural histories to shed light on the way our chief executives lived Original photography by Roger Straus III brings the houses and furnishings beautifully to life From Jefferson's Monticello to Reagan's Rancho del Cielo with fascinating and surprising stops between and beyond Houses of the Presidents presents a fascinating alternative history of the American presidency Bohemian Los Angeles Daniel Hurewitz, 2008-04-30 Historian Hurewitz brings to life a vibrant and all but forgotten milieu of artists leftists and gay men and women whose story played out over the first half of the twentieth century and continues to shape the entire American landscape In a hidden corner of Los Angeles the personal first became the political the nation's first enduring gay rights movement emerged and the broad spectrum of what we now think of as identity politics was born Portraying life over more than forty years in the hilly enclave of Edendale now part of Silver Lake Hurewitz considers the work of painters and printmakers looks inside the Communist Party s intimate cultural scene and examines the social world of gay men He discovers why and how these communities inspiring both one another and the city as a whole transformed American notions of political identity with their ideas about self expression political engagement and race relations From publisher description Dwell, 2001-12 At Dwell we re staging a minor revolution We think that it s possible to live in a house or apartment by a bold modern architect to own furniture and products that are exceptionally well designed and still be a regular human being We think that good design is an integral part of real life And that real life has been conspicuous by its absence in most design and architecture magazines Adventurous Wine Architecture Michael Webb, 2005 Features projects that provide an introduction to the neophyte and are interesting for the connoisseur Erhard Pfeiffer's photography leads the reader to some of the most idyllic places on earth California Canada Australia New Zealand Precedented Environmental Futures Colin Porteous, 2019-04-17 This book Italy Austria Spain Chile and Argentina addresses the built environment through the lens of environmental architecture and in a holistic manner It moves gradually from psychophysiology and thinking doing feeling modalities through environmental criteria to environmental modulation concluding with a debate around mitigation and adaptation Much use is made of re interpreting past quotations seen as relevant for environmental architecture No definitive conclusions are reached but rather broad discursive messages are offered The text will have lasting luminance for new generations involved with the built environment Fallingwater Rising Franklin Toker, 2007-12-18 Fallingwater Rising is a biography not of a person but of the most famous house of the twentieth century Scholars and the public have long extolled the house that Frank Lloyd Wright perched over a Pennsylvania waterfall in 1937 but the full story has never been told When he got the commission to design the house Wright was nearing seventy his youth and his early fame long gone It was the Depression and Wright had no work in sight Into his orbit stepped Edgar J Kaufmann a Pittsburgh department store mogul the smartest retailer in America and a philanthropist with the burning ambition to build a world famous work of architecture It was an unlikely collaboration the Jewish merchant who had little concern for modern architecture and the brilliant modernist who was leery of Jews But the two men collaborated to produce an extraordinary building of lasting architectural significance that brought international fame to them both and confirmed Wright's position as the greatest architect of the twentieth century Fallingwater Rising is also an enthralling family drama involving Kaufmann his beautiful cousin wife Liliane and their son Edgar Jr whose own role in the creation of Fallingwater and its ongoing reputation is central to the story Involving such key figures of the 1930s as Frida Kahlo Albert Einstein Henry R Luce William Randolph Hearst Ayn Rand and Franklin Roosevelt Fallingwater Rising shows us how E J Kaufmann's house became not just Wright's masterpiece but a fundamental icon of American life One of the pleasures of the book is its rich evocation of the upper crust society of Pittsburgh Carnegie Frick the Mellons a society that was socially reactionary but luxury loving and baronial in its tastes hobbies and sexual attitudes Kaufmann had so many mistresses that his store issued them distinctive charge plates they could use without paying Franklin Toker has been studying Fallingwater for eighteen years No one but he could have given us this compelling saga of the most famous private house in the world and the dramatic personal story of the fascinating people who made and used it A major contribution to both architectural and social history
